The "POST" FOUNTAIN PEN has been on the market but a comparatively short time, yet it has received more commendations from well known public men and endorsement from the American Press than all the other pens manufactured put together. With little or no advertising, but simply through recommendation, tens of thousands have been sold, and the fame of the "Post" self filler has spread to all parts of the world. The pen has never been offered to the trade. Hitherto it has only been possible to supply the individual orders that have come in for the pen from all parts. Arrangements are now being made for an increasing output, and for the first time the "Post" makes a bid for the store trade.

If you handle pens you cannot afford to have any other than the "Post." In a very short time all other pens will have to take a back seat. In fact, it will be impossible to sell the old-style makes side by side by this unique invention.
