As the hands do not come in contact with the water, chapped, scalded and sore hands are avoided. The mop being wrung at arm's length there is no stooping or straining of the back or shoulders. The hands are not soiled or disfigured by the wringing of a filthy, greasy cloth. As the cloth is not drenched or discolored as in ordinary mopping no special preparation is required.

The use of scalding water is another important advantage impossible with the ordinary hand-wringing mop. The floor washes easier cleaner and quicker, and dries quicker. Agents write for prices.

DR. A. WILFORD HALL'S HEALTH PAMPHLET.

Health Without Medicine.

Read the Following Testimonial:

"DEAR SIR,—I was among the very first to order Dr. Hall's Health Pamphlet on seeing its announcement in the Microcosm. I was then in Washington City, and proceeded immediately to put the new treatment into practice personally and with others, more especially to test its physiological and therapeutic effects. I have become so well convinced of its value for the alleviation of many forms of disease, such as dyspepsia, lung troubles, constipation, kidney derangements, and in fact all forms of disease which have their origin in an impure state of the circulation, that I am ready to give it my unqualified endorsement as a potent adjuvant in the treatment of such cases. Jas. F. Danter, M.D., late of Toronto, now of Fresno, Cal.

The Epitaph of Adam.

The following epitaph on Adam, "Our common ancestor," was written by Gabriel Alvarez, of Paris, about 1743, and may be found in his "Historia Ecclesiae Antediluviana":—

Here lies, reduced to a pinch of dust, he whom from a pinch of dust, was formed to govern the earth,

ADAM, The son of none, father of All, the step-father of All, and of himself.

Having never waited as a child, he spent his life in sorrow and weeping, the result of penitence.

Power, Wisdom, Justice, Immortality He sold for the price of disobedience. Having abused the privilege of Free Will, Which weapon he had received for the preservation of KNOWLEDGE AND GRACE. By one stroke he struck with death himself and all the human race.

The Omnipotent Judge, Who in his justice took him from Righteousness, by his mercy restored him whole again. Saved by the Grace of THE REDEEMER.

The first Adam lived to die.

The second Adam died to live.

Go, and imitate the penitence of the FIRST ADAM.

Go, and celebrate the goodness of the SECOND ADAM.
