ST. ANN'S SCHOOL.

VACATION COMMENCED

A Large List of Prize Winners-Praise for Brother Arnold-A Model School.

The annual distribution of prizes at the St. Ann's school took place on Saturday last, previous to the summer vacation, in the presence of a large number of the friends of the pupils and others. of the mends of the Catulle presided, and The Rev. Father Cauthe presided, and among those present was the Rev. Brother Marius, of Paris, the Assistant Superior-General; C. J. Doherty, Q.C., Mr. Semple, trustee, and others. Mr. Mr. semple, sale had visited all the Cathosemple said ne nad visited all the Catho-hischools and could only speak in the highest terms of St. Ann's, the system impressing him very highly. It was astonishing to think that a boy could estonshing to think that a boy could enter the school in its lowest form and go out of the St. Louis Institute later on the highest honors. with the highest honors. Such a school win the right a credit to the city of Montreal. Another excellent feature of Montreal. Another excellent feature of the scholastic training was the household economy and lessons in politeness. He chought that it would be impossible to give Brother Arnold too great praise for his management of the school. It was a his relation work of the school. marvel of perfection, and it was seen that the loys were at home on every point of their studies. He regretted that there were not more of the citizens invited to be present.

Mr. C. J. Doherty, Q.C., also spoke eloquently in eulogistic terms.

QUEBEC, July 3.—The trouble in the boot and shoe trade here is now stated to be over and to have resulted in a victory for the manufacturers, who refuse to treat with the striking lasters now in any shape, and have replaced them with lasting machines which enable them to completely dispense with their services, and the working of which can be perfectly learned by a green hand in a couple of days. Twelve of these machines, accompanied by instructors from Boston, have already arrived and eight more are shortly expected.
