A LIVING MARTYR

In the Sandwich Islands there are six teen hundred leners

Most of those living masses of corruption have been is clated on the Island of Molokei, and there, rotting daily and falling to pieces, they await death as a boon that will end their loathsome existence.

For twelve years past a gentleman of education and refinement, abandoning nome and kin to live with these forlorn creatures has devoted his life to the smelioration of their condition, has lav ished on them the affections of his mag nanimous heart, has bound the sores of nanimous heart, has bound the sores of the living and given Christian burial to the dead. Entering with perfect health on this heoric service, greater than built of chiralry even performed her the commission of the living and given Christian burial to knight of chivalry ever performed, he has fallen a victim to his charity, and is in the first stages of Ieprosy. But he utters no complaint. He says. 'God's will be done. He knows best.' And so, he waits the termination of the putrefle tion that is gradually benumbing his members. Who could be be? Who who is he? Who could be be? Who else could so triumph over nature and get so close to the shadow of Calvary but a Catholic priest?, he is a Catholic priest, and a living martyr, begotten by the Mother of Martyrs, the Holy Cathol-

There in that dreary abode of torture surrounded by minery; Father Damies camly awaits death and the Church is glorified by his sufferings and the angels gather around him to solace him, to give him strength from on high to lay up further treasures in Heaven, and, when the day of his perfection shall come to carry his noble soul before the Throne of God.

A RECANTATION IN ROME

A Roman priest, named Paolo Grassi, who, twelve years ago, forsook the one true Church to join the sect of Baptists has now returned, and has published his retraction, which is in the form of a letter addressed to Signor Natal, the head of the Baptist sect in Rome, Twelve years ago, he writes, T. Paolo Grassi, Roman Priest, yielding to the in. sinuations of persons who came to Rome about that period, and belonging to proscribed and heretical sects, gave my hange to the Bondists, which was then recently established in Rome uning the liberty, which to the prejudice of the Catholic Church- various heretical sects had of proselytizing in this capital, and not of eight days, while introduce of the Catholic world. Having entered applications of fourteen days, and not merely twice public encertage high land formula for the sect of the Baptists by means of public encertage high land formula for the sect of the Baptists by means of public encertage high land formula for the sect of the Baptists by means of the sect of the sect of the Baptists by means of the sect of the into the sect of the Baptists by means of public appetacy which I made from the Cathelic Higion, not drily have I adher ed to and embraced their errors and sacrilegious ceremonies, but; unfortunately, I have been a propagator of them.

Now, illuminated by the grace of God. and deeply forrowful for the many sacrilages and crimes committed and scandals given, he returns. humble and contrite to the arms of the Apostolic Roman Catholic Church,, the only source. of truth,-I throw myself,' he continues, at the teet of the Roman Pontiff, who represents Christ on earch. I return at the wandering sheep to the fold. deplore and abjure all my errors, my, tntelligent and sauscious dog of the many falling away and perjury, hoping through the Divise mercy, and slip intercession of the Most Blessed Virgin Mary, the pardon of my sins and that peace which I have sought in vain during twelve veare. I deplote be to a public splann and irrevocable declaration that I ac. cept no other Church than the Catholic Apostolic Roman Church, and no other than the sovereign Pontiff, no other doctrine and truth but that which the Church, by means of its intalliable head, proposes to the belief of the faith-

After expressing his ffrm resolve to endure all the sufferings, even to the shedding of his blood, rather than for. by saying that he has only one sole prayer. the conversion of all heretics, and that the day may soon come that being all in the fold of our holy mother, Church, we may sing Unum ovile et Unus Pastor.'

THE MINISTER OF WAR AND THE SISTERS OF CHARITY

From the censures so justly passed by Catholics upon the present French Cab. inet, General Boulanger, the active and 'reforming' Minister of War, must hence forth be excepted, His claim to this exemption was indica-ed on Saturday last. While on a visit to the Valde. Grace, he called at the military School of Medicine; and having walked through the wards of the hospital he was about to retire, When Medical Inspector Baud oin, one of the directors at the war office, who accompanied him, reminded the venerable sister, and beginer to des. cend and eachange a few words with him. In a few minutes the Superioress ninably decended the stairs, in spite of her 85 years; and in the assembled staff of officers and students the General said; 'Allow me, madame, to thauk you here, on behalf of the army, for the de. votion and disinferestedness of which your Sisters gave daily proof in nursing tention of the Waz authorities to expel such an outrage.

THE ORIGIN OF BILLIARDS political were that inventor, mys a good authority, by station broken, about the middle of the 16th century there was one William Korn a pawel roker, who during wet weather was in the habit of taking down the three balls, and with the yard measure. pushing them, billard fashion, from the counter into the stalls. In time the idea of a board with side pockets suggested itself. A black letter MS says: ,Master William Kew did make one boards whereby a game is played with three balls and all the young men mere greatly recreated therest, chiefly the young elergymen from St. Pawles, hence one of ye. strokes was named a Canon having been by one of ye same olergymen invented. This game is now known by ye name of billiard, because William or Bill did the first playe with his yard measure. The stick is now called a kew or kue.' It is easy to comprehend how 'bill yard' has been modernized into billiard, and the transformation of 'kew' or 'kue' into one is aqually apparent-

WHERLY CONFESSION AND PLEN-ARY INDULGENCES

On November twenty:third .eighteen seventy.eight it was decided by the Sacred Congregation of Indulgences that when two or more Plenary Indulgences, each requiring confession as one of the conditions, are to be gained during one week, one confession (per singular hebdomadas or by special adult infra duas hebdomadas will suffice and per singular hebdomodas was interpreted to be during every period of seven days n the month.

By a recent degree of the same Sac red Congregation , Feb. twenty fifth. eighteen hundred and eighty-six, it has now been declared that when the faith, ful men in the habit of going to confess ion every week, and on a fixed day of the week, or where the Indult is granted every fortnight, they fulfill the requisite condition whenever confession is made obligatory for the gaining of an Indul.

The most useful as well as the most breeds of dogs in the British Island the Scotch colle, or shepard's dog, of which there are two well-marked varie. ties, the mugheshiell said the smoothsdinned, equally intelligent, Both are very hardy dogs, capable of any amount of work, Though the collie is a valuable dog for any purpose, yet as a sheep and cattle dog he is the best known. His prayelicing sagnative and reselingers to not be White from noting at his later was slight est nod makes him the fittest dog in the world for the farmer. A good collie can do almost anything with a flock of sheep The collie is no less valuable as a cattle dog, While quietly feeding on the graz ings of their native glens cattle are easily herded, and almost any dog is good enough for anything that has to be done. It is when herds of cattle callected at the different local markets, tresh from native wilds, have to be day after day and night after night kept together, as they are being slowly driven to the markets, that the Scotchman great and active considers the long-endnring collie of pure strain as an indispensible servant. Night and day in days together and be the weather as it may, the collie is close in charge, constantly on alert often hungry, and often too, without the companionship of his master. Often the dog is left in charge of the drove all by himself, either by night day, wet and cold and hungry but vigilant and faithful always, Those who know best consider the Scotch collie of pure strain, wether rough or smooth, as
