

THE DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC INFORMATION

This department, which was under the President of the Privy Council, had two branches, of which one issued the Official Record, sent Canadian news to soldiers at the front through the Canadian Daily Record, and issued information to newspapers. The other branch, which had charge of lectures, pamphlets and moving picture films, worked in close touch with the Repatriation Committee.

