

Also, it undersigned representations contracts in Chile for telecommunication projects marketed by the following companies; Microelectronic and Satellite Technology Management, Inc. (STM).

(c) Entel Internacional S.A.

Its objective is to provide assistance and development of systems in the national and international level in anything related to telecommunications and informatics (computers). Also, in the organization and administration of companies and human resources, the provision of financial consulting services and the development of general projects in this area.

It was formed on September 12th of 1989 with a capital of 10 million pesos which is totally paid and subscribed. Main Shareholders are:

Entel Chile	:	90% of shares
Entel Investments S.A.	:	10% of shares

The company in this period has signed up as official consultant in the Consultants Registry of the International Development Bank and World Bank and in the corresponding International Telecommunications Union and United Nations Program for Development, being now able to participate in any consulting project financed by these organisation.

(d) Entel Servicio de Datos S.A. (Entel Data Bank Services)

This company provides all types of telecommunications and computer information, data transmission, distribution and representation of the necessary equipment and elements to provide these services.