

Ms. Dilys Buckley-Jones, born in Ottawa (Ontario), as High Commissioner to the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago.

Ms. Buckley-Jones [BA, Queen's University, 1965] joined the Department of External Affairs in September 1965. She has served abroad in New York, Lima, Copenhagen, Mexico and Hong Kong. In Ottawa, she has worked as Deputy Director of the Public Relations Division and Deputy Spokeswoman of the Press Office. Since 1987, she has been Chargé d'Affaires, a.i. in Guatemala. Ms. Buckley-Jones replaces Mr. Rodney Irwin.

-----

Mr. Martin Collacott, born in Vancouver (British Columbia), as Ambassador to the Syrian Arab Republic.

Mr. Collacott [BA (Philosophy), University of Toronto, 1955; MA (Philosophy), University of Toronto, 1959] joined the Department of External Affairs in 1966. He has served abroad in Saigon, Beijing, Lagos, Tokyo and as High Commissioner to Sri Lanka. In Ottawa, he has worked as Director of the Latin America Division and Director of the Security Division. Since September 1988, he has been Director General of the Security Services and Emergency Co-ordination Bureau. Mr. Collacott is married to Dinh Nguyet Tuyet and they have two sons. Mr. Collacott replaces Mr. Gary R. Harman.

-----

Mr. Paul Stewart Dingleline, born in Hamilton (Ontario), as Ambassador to the Islamic Republic of Iran.

Mr. Dingleline [BA, McMaster University, 1967; MBA, McMaster University, 1969] joined the Trade Commissioner Service in August 1970. In Ottawa, he has worked as Policy Advisor to the Assistant Deputy Minister, Trade Commissioner Service and International Marketing, Senior Departmental Assistant to the Minister of International Trade, Director of the Investment Development Division and Director of the Investment Promotion for Investment Canada. He has served abroad in Port of Spain, Tel Aviv, New Delhi and Hamburg. Since 1986, he has been Director of the Middle East Trade Development Division.

-----