The Acting Speaker (Mr. Laniel): I declare the amendment to the amendment lost.

Mr. MacInnis: On a point of order, Mr. Speaker the Secretary of State for External Affairs (Mr. Sharp) continues to abuse the voting procedure in this House by walking in and out of the chamber.

Some hon. Members: Hear, hear!

Mr. MacInnis: Mr. Speaker, the rules are quite clear on this. No member, including the Secretary of State for External Affairs—

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Laniel): Order, please. The Chair is quite aware of the point raised by the hon. member for Cape Breton-East Richmond (Mr. MacInnis) but I must bring to his attention that in the opinion of the Chair nobody came into the chamber while the vote was being taken.

Some hon. Members: Hear, hear!

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Laniel): This gives the Chair a good opportunity to bring to the attention of hon. members that the rule provides that no one should enter the chamber while a vote is being taken, but this rule does not prevent hon. members from coming in between votes.

Mr. MacInnis: Mr. Speaker—

• (10:10 p.m.)

Some hon. Members: Sit down.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Laniel): Order, please. Does the hon. member wish to express a further opinion?

An hon. Member: I hope so.

[The Acting Speaker (Mr. Laniel).]

Some hon. Members: Oh, oh!

Mr. MacInnis: Yes, Mr. Speaker, if the bums and idiots will be quiet now.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Laniel): Order, please. The Chair has another responsibility, which is to maintain and ensure decorum in this House. The Chair would appreciate it if the hon. member would make his point clearly.

Mr. MacInnis: Mr. Speaker, that is exactly the case: Your Honour has to look after the decorum of the House and when a member walks in, no matter whether he holds office in the cabinet or not, he is violating the rules of the House.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Laniel): I must remind the hon. member that the decision has been made on that point. If the hon. member does not mind, the House will carry on with the voting.

The question is on the amendment to the main motion.

The House divided on the amendment (Mr. Mazankowski) which was negated on the following division:
