QUESTIONS PASSED AS ORDERS FOR RETURNS

Mr. D. M. Collenette (Parliamentary Secretary to President of the Privy Council): Madam Speaker, if questions Nos. 557 and 687 could be made orders for returns, those returns would be tabled immediately.

Madam Speaker: The questions enumerated by the hon. parliamentary secretary have been answered. Is it the pleasure of the House that questions Nos. 557 and 687 be deemed to have been made orders for returns?

Some hon. Members: Agreed.

Mr. Collenette: Madam Speaker, I ask that the remaining questions be allowed to stand.

Madam Speaker: Shall the remaining questions be allowed to stand?

Some hon. Members: Agreed.

[English]

Mr. Cossitt: Madam Speaker, I rise on a point of order. I note that Hansard of yesterday, Wednesday, makes no mention at page 2509 of the usual notices of motions for the production of papers. As one who was at a meeting of a parliamentary committee at the time I do not know whether this was an error on the part of Hansard in failing to include the item as usual on a Wednesday or whether it was an error on the part of the government in not introducing the usual notices of motions for the production of papers, or asking that they stand, as the case might be. I rise simply for clarification and to ask that, if there is an error in Hansard, it be corrected. Could the parliamentary secretary, or the Chair, enlighten those of us who were attending parliamentary committees yesterday as to what happened?

Mr. Collenette: Madam Speaker, as sometimes happens I had nothing to report under this particular part of Routine Proceedings. I did ask that other notices of motions for the production of papers stand.

While I am on my feet, might I say that the delay in responding to some of these notices of motions for the production of papers has been of concern to me. I have been looking into the matter and I hope to have a little more to report in subsequent weeks.

GOVERNMENT ORDERS

BANK ACT AND QUEBEC SAVINGS BANKS ACT

MEASURE TO EXTEND OPERATIONS UNTIL NOVEMBER 30, 1980

Hon. Pierre Bussières (for Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Finance) moved:

That Bill C-39, to amend the Bank Act and the Quebec Savings Banks Act, be read the second time and referred to the Standing Committee on Finance, Trade and Economic Affairs.

He said: Madam Speaker, I will be very brief in my comments. Every member of the House is very much aware of the purpose of this bill which seeks to amend section 6 of the Bank Act and of the Quebec Savings Banks Act to allow Canadian chartered banks to extend their operations by virtue of these two acts until November 30, 1980. Without this bill, banks would not have the legal power to continue their operations beyond next July 14.

It now seems obvious that Parliament will not adopt the government proposals contained in this bill before July 14,
