

R. WHITE, 21st
company, killed.

JULIUS SIEVERT, 63rd Cumberland, wounded in the attack on General Cronje's laager, Feb. 27 (since dead).
F Co., R. C. R.

CORPORAL R. GOODFELLOW, 5th
Batt., Montreal, E Company, killed.

PRIVATE R. LINDSAY, Manchester Regiment, killed during the attack on Ladysmith January 6. Though serving in an English regiment the deceased soldier was a Canadian, and served three years at Stanley Barracks, Toronto, before going to England to join the Manchesters. The family of the deceased soldier lived in Bracondale, a suburb of Toronto.

THE LATE ZACHARY R. E. LEWIS, of Ottawa, D. Company, Royal Canadians; killed in action at Paardeberg, South Africa, in Canadian's assault on Cronje's laager, Feb. 18. Photo by Topley, Ottawa.

R. C. MOORE, R. C.
Reg., B Co.; died at dysentery.