THE BALTIMORE GAZETTE, a leading Commercial Paper, is the successor of THE DAILY EXCHANGER, well known for the bold and fearless manner in which it opposed coercion, until its editors were imprisoned, and the paper itself suppressed. THE GAZETTE holds to the opinions of THE EXCHANGER. Its reputation is larger, its influence wider. It is an independent paper, representing fairly and openly the views of the people of Maryland. It is a first class Commercial Paper, its reports being specially and completely prepared by a most experienced and eminent reporter.

As compared with other city papers of the same size, it has the largest circulation in Maryland and the Southern States; has decidedly the largest advertising patronage, and is the Best Advertising Medium.
