A Standard Book for all Lovers of Cricket.

CRICKET SCORES, NOTES, ETC.: FROM 1730—1773.

Compiled by H. T. WAGHORN.

Crown 8vo, Cloth, 6s. net; by post 6s. 4d.

Written as reported in the different newspapers. To which are added two poems, with remarks, published in 1773, on Kent v. Surrey, also Rules of the Game when betting was permitted.

In this little volume a number of interesting facts about the great national game of Cricket are for the first time gathered together. As far as the author knows, these facts, which are the result of a long series of researches at the British Museum, in the books and newspapers of the last century, are, almost without exception, collected and published for the first time.
