Estimate of Winter Crop Surpassed Expectations—Corn Scored Advance.

CHICAGO, Dec. 16 .- Surprise over government's enlarged estimate of 1-8c to 3-8c under last night. Corn finished 3-8c to 3-4c net higher, and oats with a gain of 3-8c to 5-8c. The outcome in provisions was unchanged to 5c lower.

Despite active buying for a group of strong commission houses, wheat suffered a material setback as soon as trading began. Gradually, however, prices hardened, a leaung expert saying the government had overestimated the yield at least 33,000,000 bushels. The bears were further checked by statements that eastern wheat stocks are six million bushels less than the total a year ago.

six million bushels less than the total a year ago.

Overgrowth in fall-sown fields southwest tended to make speculators cautious regarding chances of a sudden freeze. Some attention was also given to cable assertions that the prospective Argentine exportable surplus had shrunk to 74,000,000 bushels.

Expect Corn Scarcity.

Corn traders more than recovered from bearish sentiment, which at first threatened to rule the pit. The idea gained ground that a billion bushel reduction in the supply of feeding gained ground that a billion bushel reduction in the supply of feeding grain, compared with 12 months back, indicated a coming scarcity, despite heavy receipts at present.

Oats rallied by a big falling off in contract stocks here. Shorts were also worried because of the bulge in corn.

General generous receipts of hogs acted as a handicap on the provision market. Supporting orders came into play, tho, and averted any serious decline.

FRANCE OPPOSED TO NAVAL HOLIDAY

Such is Belief in Berlin-Rumored Churchill Visit Revived Topic.

FRONTIER PRESSURE

Germany Could Embarrass Neighbor by Augmenting Its Military Forces.

BERLIN, Dec. 16 .- (Can. Press.)about to visit Berlin. Official quarters declared that they had no information as to the object of Machurchill's visit, if it was to take place, but assumed that it would be merely a sightseeing trip of the same kind as that of Viscount Haldane in kind as that of Viscount Haldane in 1912.

The German newspapers took it for granted that Mr. Churchill was coming to France and Germany to discuss the question of a "naval holiday," and inferred that he would be faced with equally great difficulties in Paris as in Berlin, since, they pointed out, a reduction of Germany's naval expenditures would permit her to increase her pressure on France's land frontier. Those papers which may be considered as scarcely sympathizing with the advocates of a big navy, The Lokal Anzeiger and The Kreuz Zeitung, questioned the plan and also Mr. Churchill's good faith, while The Tageblatt, altho favoring a reduction of armaments, doubted whether Mr. Churchill would meet with success.

Emperor William, who is in Munich today, referred in a speech to the magnificent forces of Germany on land and sea, under whose protection the nation had developed and prospered.
