THE UPPER CANADA LAW JOURNAL for July, Maclear & Co., Toronto. $4 a year.—To this useful pub leation the public are indebted for the only reliable law intelligence. For instances after all the Toronto newspacers have given a garbled account of the legal proceedings in the case of Moses R. Cannulaga, out comes the Law Journal and speaks the truth, viz. that the Court of Appeal has ordered a new Trul, the pulsoner remaining in contract. Math. Math. 3, 1855. THE UPPER CANADA LAW JOURNAL. Toronto: Maclear & Co .- The July number of this valuable journal has reached us. As it is the only publication of the kind in the Province, it ought to have an extensive circulation, and should be in the hands of all business as well as professional men. The price of subscription is four dollars a year in advance.—Spectator, May 7, 1859.

Upper Canada Law Journal.—This highly interesting and useful journal for June has been received. It contains a vast amount of information. The articles on "The work of Legislation," "Law Reforms of the Sessi in," "Historical Sketch of the Constitution Laws and Legal Tribunals of Canada," are well worthy of a careful persual. This work should be found in the office of every increhant and trader in the Province, being in our opinion, of quite as much use to the merchant as the lawyer.—Hamilton Specials. This is a most excellent publication. The present number contains very able original articles on the following topics—The work of Legislation, "Consolidation of the laws of Upper Carula," and 'Law Reforms of the Session—iteneral Review (continued, The reports of important cases tried in the LocalCourts, are full and very interesting. Altogether this magazine is conducted with much ability, and it rightly deserves to be widely patronized.—Thorald Guzette—June 9, 1858.

The Uron Carnon Law Journal of May is full of is interesting articles—instructive alike to the profession and the general public. The editorials as usual, evince the signid knowledge and legal experience of the writers under whose in magazinent the journal is now published.—and the opening one, on the 'Power of a Colonial Parlament to imprison for Contempt,' embra es an amount of interesting record from opinions of high authorities, upon which the author is led to conclude that the power to commit for contempt cannot justly be exercised by the Provincial Parlament. The other torms and articles are—Remaineration to Winterses. nigh authornies, upon when the author bleed conduded that the power to cannil for contempt cannot justly be exercised by the Provincial Parliament. The other principal articles are—'Remaineration to Witnesses in Criminal Cases,' "Law Ref rins of the Sessi n—teneral Review,' "University of Toronto—Law Esculty," "Historical Sketch of the Constitution, Laws and legal Tribunals of Canada," &c. An original essay on the latter subject is to be commenced in the next issue, and continued monthly till completed, and it is promised that the aim of the writer will be to narrate—not to discuss. Illy materials are, we are informed, the best that can be had, consisting of several French and English, manuscripts now out of print. To this may be added all the information that can be from Edds. Arrete, and Ordonances of the French Government and of the Province of Quebec together with the Ordonances and acts of Varilament of the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada. No pains are to be spared, either in research or compilation, that can be made tributary to the object of the writer. The period embraced will be nearly three centuries—that is, from the set lement of Canada by the French to the press it day. This is a subject so fruitful in details of a most interesting character, that if the promises referred to are carried out—(as we have every reason to expect they will, from the deservedly high reputation of the editors)—the Law Diamend will considerably increase its popularity as a reliable record.—Oximit May, 1415, 1358.

The Upper Annala Lain Journal for January, has been received. As usual, its contents are exceedingly valuable.—Kingston Whig.

This is a very useful monthly, containing reports of important law causes, and general information connected with the administration of justice in Upper Canada. Although more particularly intended for the profession, jet every man of business may learn much from it that may be of real advantage to him. It has hitherto been published in Barrie, but will henceforth be in Toronto. We replea to see that Robert A. Harrison, Esq., B C. L, is to be connected with the journal. He is a young gentleman that has already highly distinguished biniself in his profession, and with literary talents of no ordinary kind, he will prove to be of great advantage to the Law Journal.—He hampton Tomes. vantage to the Law Journal .- Brampton Times.

We are pleased to notice that this able monthly is, for the future, to be edited and published in Toronto, and that Robert A. Harrison. Exp. R.L. is become a joint Editor. His accession to the editorials all must prove to the profession to whom he is now so well known as the author of so many works in general use, no small gaid. With Mr. Harrison is associated W. D. Ardach, Esq., who has for some time been favorably known as an Editor of the Journal. Notwithstanding the public caution of the Journal in Barrie, it has under the management of the Hon. James Patton acquired a very wide and extended circulation. Now that it is to be published in Toronto, it is reasonable to expect that its circulation will be increased. It is a paper which should be in the hands of every Judge, Lawyer. Coroner, Magistrate, Clerk, and Bailiff in Upper Canada. We hope, however, that the conductors will see fit to widen the list of their exchanges and so increase the circle of their usefulness. It is a great missake to suppose that Judges, Lawyers, Division Court Clerks, or Bailiff are the sole persons interested in the administration of justice. The public at large have a deep interest in, and feel a lively sympathy with the sentiments of a writer who propounds measures of law reform calculated to advance the public good. No discussion however well attended upon subjects of legal interest, can be satisfactorily carried on by the lay press.

For such information the more proper and more product course is to turn to the cultums of a newspaper conducted by men whose while lives and training peculiarly beint them for the expression of sound views. Somewhere it has been said that to know a people thoroughly, it is necessary to study their laws—to ascertain how life and property are prote ted. This ably conducted Journal tells us how the laws enacted by government are administered in Upper Canada. It tells us—what every body knows—that law is expensive, and it adds that cheap justice is a curse, the expense of the law being the price of literty. Both assertions are certainly truisms, yet a litigious and quarretsome spirit is not in aritally the result of that combativeness which belongs to such men as those who, under any chromospanes, and at whetever cost, will men as these who, under any circumstances, and at whatever cost, will assert their rights. It is not our burpose to review the Journal, but to praise it, seeing that praise is deserved. The articles are well written, the rep at sof cases are interesting, and lie general information is such, that the Journal ought not only to be read, but studied by the members of the bar, the magistracy, the learned professions generally, and by the merchant.

The Law Journal is beautifully printed on excellent paper, and, in deed, equals in its typographical apppearance, the legal record published in the metropolis of the United Kingdom. We have to return our thanks to the conductors (or publishers, we do not know which,) of this valuable publication for the present January number, together with an ample index for, and list of cases reported and cited in the second volume of these reports for the year 1856.

The ability with which this highly important and useful periodical is conducted by W. D. Ardigh and Robert A Harrison, B. C. Le, Esquires, Barristers at Law, reflects the greatest credit upon these gentlemen, and shows that the esteen in which they are held by their professional concretes and the public, is deservedly merited and nothing more than they are entitled to. We have much pleasure in earnestly recommer ding the members of the box for this section of the Province to support the Lipter Canada Law Journal, by their subscriptions.—taking legic to assure them that it is well worthy of it, and that they will find it a valuable sequicition to their libraries as a legal work of reference and high authority. It is printed and published by Messra, Macker, Thomas & Co., of his King Street East, Toronto, and the typographical portion is very creditable to that firm.—Queber Mercury.

In its first number of the fourth volume this interesting and valuable In its first number of the fourth volume this Interesting and valuable publication comes to us highly improved in appearance with a much wider range of editorial matter than formerly. The Journal has entered upon a broader career of utility, grappling with the higher branches of law, and lending the strength of a full, fresh intelligence, to the conderation of some very grave wants in our civil cade. The necessity of an equable and efficient "Bankruptey I. w" is discussed in an able article, instinct with a stute and profound thought, coupled with much clear, subtracted discrimination. subtle, legal discrimination.

It is the intention of the Proprietors to institute in the pages of the Journal a "Magistrate" Manual: "—provided that that hady meet the project in the proper spi it, and contribute an adequate subscription is to warrant the undertaking. To prosecute the contemplation, could not fail to be productive of incalcuable advantage, as well to the community as to the Magistracy. This Journal which is published monthly, appears this week much improved in size, appearance and matter. It was formerly published in Barrie, but has for some numbers back been published in Toronto, and has acquired aid in the editorial staff by the addition of Mr. Harrison, has acquired aid in the editorial stall by the addition of Mr. Harrison, who is well known in the protession from his numerous publications on legal subjects. Under the management of Mr. Ardagh and Mr. Harrison, thus Journal promises fair to become an important publication, not merely to the legal pr. fession, but to other important classes of the community, as particular attention is given to Municipal affairs, County Courts; and Division Courts; Maxistrates' duties also receive a considerable share of consideration. It will contain original treatises and essays on low rubinets, written expressly for the Course. able share of consideration. It will contain original treatises and essays on law subjects, written expressly for the Journal, besides reports from the Superior Courts of Common Law and the Court of Chancery. Proper selections will also be made from English periodicals. To the profession the reports from Chambers of decisions under the Common Law Procedure Acts, and the general practice, are of particular interest. These the Journal supplies, being formerly reported by Mr. F. Moore Benson, and latterly by Mr. C. E. English, M. A. We would advise all municipal officers, Division Courts officers, Magistrates, and particularly the profession, to patronize this publication, as it cannot be sustained without their aid. The subscription is only $4 a-year in advance.—
