Home Truths.

HOME TRUTHS. By Rev. J. C. RYLE, B. A., Rector of Helmingham, England.

16mo., pp. 292. Muslin..... $0 33

Seldom has a book been issued from the English press more vigorous with mental and moral vitality. It pretends to nothing recondite, though it treats often of subtle subjects; but it is pregnant with pithy thought, and there is a naturalness, an aptness, a freshness and fulness in its thoughts that render it, altogether, a most sterling and effective volume. Its fervid earnestness, though without protentious rhetoric, becomes an infectious eloquence that aways the reader's mind and heart irresistibly, and bears him along from page to page as by a sort of fascination. Its subjects are not only illustrated, and often in the happiest manner, but they are urged and enforced, and reiterated, and pressed irresistibly home, with a manner so simple, so full of persuasion and entreaty, so tenderly sincere and solicitous, so increasingly emphatic as you pass from paragraph to paragraph, that the reader can hardly fail to feel the moral spell of the book.—Editor's Preface.

Asbury's Journal.

JOURNAL OF REV. FRANCIS ASBURY, Bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church. 3 vols.

12mo., pp. 524, 492, 502. Price..... $3 00

Mr. Asbury's Journals extend from the meeting of the Conference held in Bristol, England, August 7, 1771, when he received his appointment from Mr. Wesley as a missionary to America, to December 7, 1815, within a few months of his death, a period of forty-four years.

The Journals have long been out of print. The edition now offered is far better than the old one: the dates have been carefully collated and rectified, and a careful index to the three volumes is given at the end. In these volumes will be found the beginnings (almost) of the history of Methodism in America; and, as such, their value is incalculable to the Church. But as a record of apostolic zeal and fidelity, of a spirit of self-sacrifice rivalling that of the saints and martyrs of the early Church, of an industry which no toils could weary, of a patience which no privations could exhaust, it is full of interest to every minister of the gospel, and to every Christian.

History of the Inquisition.

THE BRAND OF DOMINIC: OR, INQUISITION AT ROME "Supreme and Universal." By Rev. WILLIAM H. RULE. With five Engravings.

12mo., pp. 392. Muslin..... $0 75

This small volume should be in the hands of every one who takes an interest in the Papal question.—Church of England Quarterly Review.

We cannot know too much of that horrible and Satanic institution, of which this valuable little work treats, and treats so ably.—Evangelical Christian.
