"We had a contract with one pape", the Toronto World, I think it was, and I think it was at 6c a line, and they demanded 25c a line, which we refused to pay. This was done by the advertising manager. The fact that we advertising manager. The fact that we refused to pay that 25c may possibly explain why this commission is here. The criticism commenced the day afterwards. I was fortunately not responsible for the matter, but I have been bearing the brunt of it ever since. Mr. Shepley: "Perhaps 25c a line would not have been too much then?" Senator Cox took the humorous view of the badinage and laughed heartily with the rest of those present.

"You find that sort of a publication essential?" asked Mr. Shepley.

"I think it is," admitted Mr. Cox.

Smallpeice rang me up and expressed surprise that I had not called on him. I said that as I had not heard from him I assumed he had decided to accept the matter at contract rates, as all of the other papers had done. He again urged the 10c rate, but I refused to consider it, and he then made me an offer of 8c per line. This I also refused, telling him that there was no more reason why we should pay 8c more reason why we should pay 8c than 10c. Finally and reluctantly he agreed to publish the matter at the greed to publish the matter at the agreed to publish the matter at the agreed to publish the matter at the agreed to publish the that The World would publish the that The world wo

Senator Cox took a chair in the witness-box for the first time, but he would arise occasionally to make replies.
Sometimes he speaks in a very low tone and it is difficult to follow him. Shepley resumed the proceedings by producing an agreement between Mr. Cox and Messrs. Ames and Bradshaw re Imperial Life, dated Jan. 2. 1902, which recited that the Central Canada L. & S. Co. had 5850 shares of the capital stock of the Imperial Company, 45 per cent, paid up, and that the pur-

Rochester, N.Y., June 4. Coroner Killip to-night handed down a ver-envelope and returned it to the Canada Life.

The regular contract of the Canada Life with The World did not cover the insertion of such a report as was submitted. It was for an average rate of 6c a line, covering display and reading matter, but I did not consider that the special Michigan report could be inserted. There was no mention of 8c or 10c, and when I discovered that the higher rate was conditional or our inserting an editorial notice, I declined to take it at all:

The Standard also insists on the soundness of Canadian and Australian products and asks whether the most zealous Cobdenite would wish the people to eat tuberculosis beef and cholerasmitten hogs in the sacred name of free trade.

Incidentally, the dressed beef revelations seem destined to provoke an enquiry into the conditions of British food preparations. Dr. Cooper, Liberal member of parliament for Bermondsey, in a letter to The Daily Mail, says: "Let us not forget, while throwing stones at the Americans, that we our selves live in glass houses.
