

SPANISH INFLUENZA

How to protect yourself against it and check an attack. . . .

Keep the alimentary tract clean and healthy by taking every morning a glassful of which insures, without griping or nauseating, the regular and normal action of the bowels—thus providing the best protection against disease.

"RIGA"

PURGATIVE WATER

CROSSED EYES

CAN BE CURED!

I have cured hundreds of cases, and all without pain, chloroform, and in nearly every case, in one visit to my office. Write to MISS R. KNORR, 97 Joseph Street, Kitchener, Ont., one of my recent patients. Ask her about my skill. (Enclose stamp for reply.) If you need my services, call or write. Only an overnight trip from Ontario.

DR. F. O. CARTER
Eye, Ear, Nose, Throat
23 Years on State Street
120 S. State St., CHICAGO, ILL.
Hours 9 to 6

Robert's

Is a scientific remedy in which the powerful curative properties of Cod Liver Oil and Tar are combined. The mucous effect of the oil having been removed, the extractable principles remain to build up strength and energy, the irritation set up by Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis and other affections of the respiratory organs. Try it, for it does stop coughs.

Does stop coughs

Cuticura Soap

Complexions Are Healthy

Sweet Milk—Sour Milk—Buttermilk or Water

Use any of these when baking with

EGG-O Baking Powder

It gives you a wider choice of ingredients for cakes and pastry, yet assures you of positive success in your baking.

Egg-O is absolutely pure and efficient. And double acting, that is, its first action occurs in the mixing bowl when cold water or milk in its various forms is added. Allowing the dough to stand for 15 or 20 minutes will give better results. When you put your baking in the oven, Egg-O will continue to rise until your cakes are properly baked.

Buying Egg-O in the larger tins is most economical for family use.

Egg-O Baking Powder Co. Limited
Hamilton, Canada

NOTHING is further from the truth than the statement that Canadians cannot get a good cup of coffee. The standard Canadian blend is better than the average American blend, but is usually spoiled in the making. Just pour furiously boiling water on it and let it stand for ten minutes. Don't boil it.

Our coffees are the choicest of the world's plantations. They are blended by experts, roasted to perfection, and then cut by the most modern coffee-cutting appliances. The result is that matchless quality for which Rideau Hall Coffee remains unequalled.

Rideau Hall Coffee

STEEL-CUT Coffee STEEL-CUT
GORMAN, ECKERT & CO., LIMITED.
LONDON AND WINNIPEG.

RAILWAY EMPLOYEES WILL SUBMIT A NEW SCHEDULE OF WAGES

Clerks, Freight Handlers and Other Workers Are Involved.

MONTREAL, Feb. 16.—The general committee representing the freight handlers and other members of the Canadian Brotherhood of Railway Employees closed a conference here on Saturday, and according to an official statement handed to the press agreed upon revised schedules and wages which will be submitted to the Canadian railway association when it meets in these matters for the railroad in the Dominion.

The following resolution was also passed: "That the general committee representing the clerks, freight handlers, etc., on the eastern lines of the Canadian National Railway, and the Canadian Brotherhood of Railway Employees, demand that the grand officers and organizers of the Canadian Brotherhood of Railway Employees cease their activity to amalgamate the Canadian Brotherhood of Railway Employees with the International Brotherhood of Railway Clerks, Freight Handlers and Express Employees and the international brotherhood discontinues its present methods and drop its avowed stand to place schedule of rules on the Canadian railways less favorable to the Canadian Brotherhood than the schedule of rules now in effect."

LONDON CONDUCTOR SERIOUSLY BURNED IN RIDGEWAY WRECK

G. and Trunk Passenger Train in Collision At Ridgeway.

RIDGEWAY, Ont., Feb. 16.—The Grand Trunk passenger train which was due to arrive here at 1 o'clock today collided with a freight train, and a member of the crew was injured. John Stewart, a brakeman, sustained a broken leg; Adam Stevenson of Stratford, a fireman, was badly scalded, and John Coningham of London, conductor, was seriously burned.

The engine, mail coach and smoker were completely demolished.

The Value of Charcoal

Few People Know How Useful It Is In Preserving Health and Beauty.

Nearly everybody knows that charcoal is the safest and most efficient disinfectant and purifier in nature, but few realize its value when taken into the human system for the same cleansing purpose.

Charcoal is a remedy that the more you take of it the better; it is not a drug at all, but simply absorbs the gases and impurities always present in the stomach and intestines and carries them out of the system.

Charcoal sweetens the breath after smoking, and after eating onions and other odorous vegetables.

Charcoal effectively cleans and improves the complexion, it whitens the teeth and further acts as a natural and eminently safe cathartic.

It absorbs the injurious gases which collect in the stomach and bowels; it disinfects the mouth and throat from the poison of catarrh.

All druggists sell charcoal in one form or another, but probably the best charcoal and the most for the money is in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges; they are composed of the finest powdered willow charcoal, and other healthful ingredients in tablet form or rather in the form of large, pleasant tasting lozenges, the charcoal being mixed with honey.

The daily use of these lozenges will soon lead to a much-improved condition of the general health, better complexion, sweeter breath and purer blood, and the beauty of it is that no possible harm can result from their continued use, but on the contrary, a great benefit.

A Buffalo physician in speaking of the benefits of charcoal says: "I advise Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges to all patients suffering from gas in stomach and bowels, and to those with the complexion and purify the breath, mouth and throat; I also believe the liver is greatly benefited by their daily use; they cost but twenty-five cents a box at drug stores, and although in some sense a patent preparation, yet I believe it is more and better charcoal in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges than in any of the ordinary charcoal tablets."

23k-y

Has Not Forgotten.

"The Netherlands Government surely has not forgotten that the police and the personal actions of the men required for judgment by the powers have cost the lives of approximately 10,000 men, murdered in their prime, and have been responsible for the mutilation or shattering of three times as many, the laying waste to and the destruction of millions of square miles of territory in countries formerly peaceful, peaceful and happy, and the piling up of war debts running in billions, the victims being men who have defended their freedom and incidentally that of Holland."

"The economic and social existence of all these nations has been thrown into confusion, and they are now jeopardized by famine and want—the terrible results of that war of which William I was the author."

"The Allies cannot conceal their surprise in finding in the Dutch reply no single word of disapproval of the crimes committed by the German army, nor any hint of their social position."

"Holland, whose history tells of long struggles for liberty, who has suffered so grievously through disregard for justice, could not place herself by such a narrow conception of her duties outside of the comity of nations. A duty which none can avoid for national reasons, however weighty they may be, is to unite in order to mete out exemplary punishment to responsible persons of the war and endeavor to revive conceptions of humanity and solidarity in the German nation which is still unconvinced of the falsity of the tenets of its Government, which professes to have the rights of man and success in crime."

"Not National Standpoint."

"It was from this point of view and not exclusively from a national standpoint that the powers requested the Government of the Netherlands to hand over the German nation which is still unconvinced of the falsity of the tenets of its Government, which professes to have the rights of man and success in crime."

"The powers desire to remind the Government of the Netherlands that it should persist in its attitude of detachment towards the presence of the imperial family on its territory so close to Germany it would assume direct responsibility both for sheltering them from the claims of justice and for the propaganda which is so dangerous to Europe and the whole world."

"It is indisputable that the presence of the ex-emperor under ineffectual supervision a few kilometers distant from the German frontier where he continues the centre of active and increasing intrigue, constitutes for the powers, who have made superhuman sacrifices to destroy this mortal danger, a menace which they cannot be called upon to ignore. The rights they possess in virtue of the most express principles of the law of nations entitle them to demand that the powers take such measures as are required for their own security."

"Painful Impression."

"The powers cannot conceal the painful impression made upon them by the refusal of the Dutch Government to hand over the German nation which is still unconvinced of the falsity of the tenets of its Government, which professes to have the rights of man and success in crime."

"The powers desire to remind the Government of the Netherlands that it should persist in its attitude of detachment towards the presence of the imperial family on its territory so close to Germany it would assume direct responsibility both for sheltering them from the claims of justice and for the propaganda which is so dangerous to Europe and the whole world."

"It is indisputable that the presence of the ex-emperor under ineffectual supervision a few kilometers distant from the German frontier where he continues the centre of active and increasing intrigue, constitutes for the powers, who have made superhuman sacrifices to destroy this mortal danger, a menace which they cannot be called upon to ignore. The rights they possess in virtue of the most express principles of the law of nations entitle them to demand that the powers take such measures as are required for their own security."

"Painful Impression."

"The powers cannot conceal the painful impression made upon them by the refusal of the Dutch Government to hand over the German nation which is still unconvinced of the falsity of the tenets of its Government, which professes to have the rights of man and success in crime."

"The powers desire to remind the Government of the Netherlands that it should persist in its attitude of detachment towards the presence of the imperial family on its territory so close to Germany it would assume direct responsibility both for sheltering them from the claims of justice and for the propaganda which is so dangerous to Europe and the whole world."

"It is indisputable that the presence of the ex-emperor under ineffectual supervision a few kilometers distant from the German frontier where he continues the centre of active and increasing intrigue, constitutes for the powers, who have made superhuman sacrifices to destroy this mortal danger, a menace which they cannot be called upon to ignore. The rights they possess in virtue of the most express principles of the law of nations entitle them to demand that the powers take such measures as are required for their own security."

"Painful Impression."

"The powers cannot conceal the painful impression made upon them by the refusal of the Dutch Government to hand over the German nation which is still unconvinced of the falsity of the tenets of its Government, which professes to have the rights of man and success in crime."

"The powers desire to remind the Government of the Netherlands that it should persist in its attitude of detachment towards the presence of the imperial family on its territory so close to Germany it would assume direct responsibility both for sheltering them from the claims of justice and for the propaganda which is so dangerous to Europe and the whole world."

"It is indisputable that the presence of the ex-emperor under ineffectual supervision a few kilometers distant from the German frontier where he continues the centre of active and increasing intrigue, constitutes for the powers, who have made superhuman sacrifices to destroy this mortal danger, a menace which they cannot be called upon to ignore. The rights they possess in virtue of the most express principles of the law of nations entitle them to demand that the powers take such measures as are required for their own security."

"Painful Impression."

"The powers cannot conceal the painful impression made upon them by the refusal of the Dutch Government to hand over the German nation which is still unconvinced of the falsity of the tenets of its Government, which professes to have the rights of man and success in crime."

"The powers desire to remind the Government of the Netherlands that it should persist in its attitude of detachment towards the presence of the imperial family on its territory so close to Germany it would assume direct responsibility both for sheltering them from the claims of justice and for the propaganda which is so dangerous to Europe and the whole world."

"It is indisputable that the presence of the ex-emperor under ineffectual supervision a few kilometers distant from the German frontier where he continues the centre of active and increasing intrigue, constitutes for the powers, who have made superhuman sacrifices to destroy this mortal danger, a menace which they cannot be called upon to ignore. The rights they possess in virtue of the most express principles of the law of nations entitle them to demand that the powers take such measures as are required for their own security."

"Painful Impression."

"The powers cannot conceal the painful impression made upon them by the refusal of the Dutch Government to hand over the German nation which is still unconvinced of the falsity of the tenets of its Government, which professes to have the rights of man and success in crime."

"The powers desire to remind the Government of the Netherlands that it should persist in its attitude of detachment towards the presence of the imperial family on its territory so close to Germany it would assume direct responsibility both for sheltering them from the claims of justice and for the propaganda which is so dangerous to Europe and the whole world."

"It is indisputable that the presence of the ex-emperor under ineffectual supervision a few kilometers distant from the German frontier where he continues the centre of active and increasing intrigue, constitutes for the powers, who have made superhuman sacrifices to destroy this mortal danger, a menace which they cannot be called upon to ignore. The rights they possess in virtue of the most express principles of the law of nations entitle them to demand that the powers take such measures as are required for their own security."

"Painful Impression."

"The powers cannot conceal the painful impression made upon them by the refusal of the Dutch Government to hand over the German nation which is still unconvinced of the falsity of the tenets of its Government, which professes to have the rights of man and success in crime."

"The powers desire to remind the Government of the Netherlands that it should persist in its attitude of detachment towards the presence of the imperial family on its territory so close to Germany it would assume direct responsibility both for sheltering them from the claims of justice and for the propaganda which is so dangerous to Europe and the whole world."

"It is indisputable that the presence of the ex-emperor under ineffectual supervision a few kilometers distant from the German frontier where he continues the centre of active and increasing intrigue, constitutes for the powers, who have made superhuman sacrifices to destroy this mortal danger, a menace which they cannot be called upon to ignore. The rights they possess in virtue of the most express principles of the law of nations entitle them to demand that the powers take such measures as are required for their own security."

"Painful Impression."

"The powers cannot conceal the painful impression made upon them by the refusal of the Dutch Government to hand over the German nation which is still unconvinced of the falsity of the tenets of its Government, which professes to have the rights of man and success in crime."

"The powers desire to remind the Government of the Netherlands that it should persist in its attitude of detachment towards the presence of the imperial family on its territory so close to Germany it would assume direct responsibility both for sheltering them from the claims of justice and for the propaganda which is so dangerous to Europe and the whole world."

"It is indisputable that the presence of the ex-emperor under ineffectual supervision a few kilometers distant from the German frontier where he continues the centre of active and increasing intrigue, constitutes for the powers, who have made superhuman sacrifices to destroy this mortal danger, a menace which they cannot be called upon to ignore. The rights they possess in virtue of the most express principles of the law of nations entitle them to demand that the powers take such measures as are required for their own security."

"Painful Impression."

"The powers cannot conceal the painful impression made upon them by the refusal of the Dutch Government to hand over the German nation which is still unconvinced of the falsity of the tenets of its Government, which professes to have the rights of man and success in crime."

"The powers desire to remind the Government of the Netherlands that it should persist in its attitude of detachment towards the presence of the imperial family on its territory so close to Germany it would assume direct responsibility both for sheltering them from the claims of justice and for the propaganda which is so dangerous to Europe and the whole world."

"It is indisputable that the presence of the ex-emperor under ineffectual supervision a few kilometers distant from the German frontier where he continues the centre of active and increasing intrigue, constitutes for the powers, who have made superhuman sacrifices to destroy this mortal danger, a menace which they cannot be called upon to ignore. The rights they possess in virtue of the most express principles of the law of nations entitle them to demand that the powers take such measures as are required for their own security."

"Painful Impression."

"The powers cannot conceal the painful impression made upon them by the refusal of the Dutch Government to hand over the German nation which is still unconvinced of the falsity of the tenets of its Government, which professes to have the rights of man and success in crime."

"The powers desire to remind the Government of the Netherlands that it should persist in its attitude of detachment towards the presence of the imperial family on its territory so close to Germany it would assume direct responsibility both for sheltering them from the claims of justice and for the propaganda which is so dangerous to Europe and the whole world."

"It is indisputable that the presence of the ex-emperor under ineffectual supervision a few kilometers distant from the German frontier where he continues the centre of active and increasing intrigue, constitutes for the powers, who have made superhuman sacrifices to destroy this mortal danger, a menace which they cannot be called upon to ignore. The rights they possess in virtue of the most express principles of the law of nations entitle them to demand that the powers take such measures as are required for their own security."

"Painful Impression."

"The powers cannot conceal the painful impression made upon them by the refusal of the Dutch Government to hand over the German nation which is still unconvinced of the falsity of the tenets of its Government, which professes to have the rights of man and success in crime."

HOLLAND IS URGED TO RECONSIDER DECISION NOT TO SURRENDER COUNT HOHENZOLLERN

Allies Renew Request in Latest Note to Netherlands Government.

INTERESTS OF PEACE.

Will Allow Germany To Try Her Own Criminals and Watch Results.

London, Feb. 16.—(By the Associated Press).—Following is the text of the note sent by the allied powers to Holland regarding the extradition of the former German emperor:

"The immense sacrifices made in the war entitle them to ask the Netherlands to reconsider its refusal, based on the weighty but entirely personal considerations of a state which held aloof from the war and cannot perhaps appreciate quite accurately all the duties and dangers of the present hour."

"The obligations of the powers to the question concerned, as well as the very grave political effects arising from the acquiescence of a state which held aloof from the war and cannot perhaps appreciate quite accurately all the duties and dangers of the present hour."

"The powers do not ask the queen's Government to depart from its traditional policy, but to consider that the nature of the request—which does not, in their opinion, depend solely, or even mainly, on Dutch municipal law—has not been adequately appreciated."

"No question of prestige is at stake and the powers pay as much heed to the conscientious demands of a state with limited interest as to the mature decisions of great powers, but cannot wait for the creation of a world tribunal competent to examine international crimes before bringing to trial the responsible author of the catastrophe of the great war."

"It is precisely this contemplated trial which would prepare the way for such a tribunal and demonstrate the unanimity of the nations of the world. The powers wish to point out that the Hague Convention of 1907, which provides for the trial of international crimes, is not a mere formality, but a state of development sufficient to allow any application to it, or to a tribunal of any kind created by it, meeting with that prompt satisfaction which is surely essential."

"Duty of Punishing."

"It does not appear to consider that it shares with other civilized nations the duty of securing the punishment of crimes against justice and the principles of humanity—crimes for which William of Hohenzollern undeniably bears a heavy responsibility."

"The note of January 15 was sent in the name of the Allies, 25 in number, who were signatories to the treaty of peace and the collective mandates of a majority of the civil nations of the world. It is impossible to disregard the collective force of this request which is the expression not only of the feeling of indignation of the victims but of the demand for justice made by the conscience of humanity as a whole."

"Has Not Forgotten."

"The Netherlands Government surely has not forgotten that the police and the personal actions of the men required for judgment by the powers have cost the lives of approximately 10,000 men, murdered in their prime, and have been responsible for the mutilation or shattering of three times as many, the laying waste to and the destruction of millions of square miles of territory in countries formerly peaceful, peaceful and happy, and the piling up of war debts running in billions, the victims being men who have defended their freedom and incidentally that of Holland."

"The economic and social existence of all these nations has been thrown into confusion, and they are now jeopardized by famine and want—the terrible results of that war of which William I was the author."

"The Allies cannot conceal their surprise in finding in the Dutch reply no single word of disapproval of the crimes committed by the German army, nor any hint of their social position."

"Holland, whose history tells of long struggles for liberty, who has suffered so grievously through disregard for justice, could not place herself by such a narrow conception of her duties outside of the comity of nations. A duty which none can avoid for national reasons, however weighty they may be, is to unite in order to mete out exemplary punishment to responsible persons of the war and endeavor to revive conceptions of humanity and solidarity in the German nation which is still unconvinced of the falsity of the tenets of its Government, which professes to have the rights of man and success in crime."

"Not National Standpoint."

"It was from this point of view and not exclusively from a national standpoint that the powers requested the Government of the Netherlands to hand over the German nation which is still unconvinced of the falsity of the tenets of its Government, which professes to have the rights of man and success in crime."

"The powers desire to remind the Government of the Netherlands that it should persist in its attitude of detachment towards the presence of the imperial family on its territory so close to Germany it would assume direct responsibility both for sheltering them from the claims of justice and for the propaganda which is so dangerous to Europe and the whole world."

"It is indisputable that the presence of the ex-emperor under ineffectual supervision a few kilometers distant from the German frontier where he continues the centre of active and increasing intrigue, constitutes for the powers, who have made superhuman sacrifices to destroy this mortal danger, a menace which they cannot be called upon to ignore. The rights they possess in virtue of the most express principles of the law of nations entitle them to demand that the powers take such measures as are required for their own security."

"Painful Impression."

"The powers cannot conceal the painful impression made upon them by the refusal of the Dutch Government to hand over the German nation which is still unconvinced of the falsity of the tenets of its Government, which professes to have the rights of man and success in crime."

"The powers desire to remind the Government of the Netherlands that it should persist in its attitude of detachment towards the presence of the imperial family on its territory so close to Germany it would assume direct responsibility both for sheltering them from the claims of justice and for the propaganda which is so dangerous to Europe and the whole world."

"It is indisputable that the presence of the ex-emperor under ineffectual supervision a few kilometers distant from the German frontier where he continues the centre of active and increasing intrigue, constitutes for the powers, who have made superhuman sacrifices to destroy this mortal danger, a menace which they cannot be called upon to ignore. The rights they possess in virtue of the most express principles of the law of nations entitle them to demand that the powers take such measures as are required for their own security."

"Painful Impression."

position to give those assurance which the safety of Europe so imperatively demands."

ALLIES WILL PERMIT GERMANY TO TRY HER OWN WAR CRIMINALS

LONDON, Feb. 16.—The Allied reply to the note of January 25, proposing an alternative to extradition that persons accused by the Allies be tried at Leipzig, states that Germany's proposal for such trial at Leipzig is compatible with article 228 of the peace treaty. The Allies, the note says, will abstain from intervention in the procedure of that court.

After stating that the Allies have carefully considered the German note of January 25, the note says: "In the first place, that Germany declares herself unable to carry out the obligations imposed on her by article 228 to 230, which she signed. They require that she should exercise the power to employ in such measure and form as they may judge suitable the right accorded to them in this event by the treaty."

"Before Leipzig Court."

"The Allies, the note says, are prepared to open before the court at Leipzig, penal proceedings without delay, surrounded by the most complete guarantees and not affected by the application of all judgments, procedure or previous decision of German civil or military tribunals before the supreme court at Leipzig against all Germans whose extradition the Allies and associated powers have the intention to demand."

"The prosecution which the German Government itself proposes immediately to institute in this manner is compatible with article 228 of the peace treaty and is expressly provided for at the end of its first paragraph."

"Faithful to the letter and spirit of the treaty, the Allies will abstain from intervention in any way in the procedure of the prosecution, and they solve the right to decide by the results as to the good faith of Germany, the recognition of which the Allies, in the pursuance of truth and justice have decided to entrust to a mixed international commission the task of collecting evidence."

"Unable to Arrest."

"They will see whether the German Government, who have declared themselves unable to arrest the accused on the above list to deliver them for trial to the Allies, are actually determined to 'hide them themselves.'"

"At the same time the Allies, in the pursuance of truth and justice have decided to entrust to a mixed international commission the task of collecting evidence."

"Don't Wait to Be Bilious"

Keep well. Whenever your appetite begins to flag, or a sour stomach and a coated tongue warn you, take CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS and the trouble will cease.

Good for man, woman and child. For your health's sake stick to this old, tried and true remedy. Purely vegetable.

Small Pill—Small Dose—Small Price

DR. CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS, Nature's nerve and blood tonic for Biliousness, Rheumatism, Nervousness, Sleeplessness and Female Weakness.

Genuine must bear signature Wm. Carter

Cashier

Winged Wheel WATCH CASES

Many good watch movements are spoiled by inferior cases. A "Cashier" extra quality gold filled case will protect the mechanism from dust and weather and prolong its life. Thirty-five years' experience have produced the "Cashier", in which beauty and utility are combined. There is a "Cashier" for every movement.

THE AMERICAN WATCH CASE CO. Largest Makers of Watch Cases in the British Empire

FEW FOLKS HAVE GREY HAIR NOW

Druggist Says Ladies Are Using Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Hair that loses its color and lustre, when it fades, turns grey, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful. Nowdays we get this famous mixture improved by the addition of other ingredients by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the grey hair disappears; but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is that besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.

WATCH THE BIG 4

Stomach-Kidneys-Heart-Liver

Keep the vital organs healthy by regularly taking the world's standard remedy for kidney, liver, bladder and uric acid troubles—

GOLD MEDAL HARLEN OIL CAPSULES

The National Remedy of Holland for centuries and endorsed by Queen Wilhelmina. At all druggists, 30c. a box. Look for the same Gold Medal on every ing, publishing and communicating to Germany details of the charges brought against each of those whose guilt shall have been established by their investigations.

"Finally the Allies would formally emphasize that procedure before a jurisdiction such as is proposed can in no way annul the provisions of articles 228 to 230 of the treaty."

"The powers reserve to themselves the right to decide whether the proposed procedure by Germany which according to her would assure to the accused all guarantees of justice, does not, in effect, bring about their escape from the just punishment of their crimes. In this event, the Allies would exercise their rights to their full extent by submitting the cases to their own tribunals."

SENATOR IS ILL.

MONTREAL, Feb. 16.—Senator Smeaton White, president of the Gazette Printing Company, is ill at his home with a bad cold.

Keep your eye on this Brand

The one Tea that never disappoints the most critical tastes.

"SALADA"

on a Sealed Packet is Your Safeguard.

Yes, it's Fry's

THE battle of business has succeeded the battle of armies. FRY'S COCOA is the greatest of all strength makers for men who must work hard—just as it was for our soldiers and sailors who had to fight hard.

FRY'S exclusive process makes this Cocoa extremely soluble, delicious in flavor and very easy to digest.

"Nothing will do but FRY'S"

Teeth Do Not Stain

It is Film that Clouds Their Whiteness