MICHIGAN TOT 'ADOPTS' MARY AND DOUGLAS Good Growth Is Reported in

Screen Stars Attract Many Admirers in Journey Across Continent.

came to town this morning and created more excitement than would have n occasioned by a visit from royalty.

"Here, come back, Doug," she cried. n't our baby, you know. All the way from California the kiddies had adopted Doug and Mary. Doug reluctantly surrendered the tiny bit of pink and white humanity to its mother and released his wife. and rejoined his wife.

Mary Gladys Smith Pickford Moore
More lovely

Fairbanks never looked more lovely and apparently she is extremely happy. and apparently she is extremely happy.

She smiled affectionately into the faces of the half dozen little girls clinging autograph, for a handshake, for a kiss been improved by being held several country in a pair of hot little hands.

Mary bent down and kissed the old were centre of a throng of whooping, adand Doug are on their way to New York. They are willing to talk about anything except the divorce proceedings in Nevada. This subject was adroitly dodged. The baby they adopted and held pos-

YOUTHS' ROMANCE IS RUDELY SHATTERED

Boy 15, Girl 12 "Wed" by Own Improvised Ceremony.

Pueblo, Col. June 2.-The romance o John Martizez, 15, and Margaret Rinz, 12. has been rudely shattered and the ution by juvenile court authorities, following discovery of the young couple living as man and wife in a tumbledown shack on the outskirts of this , failed to appear at school and a thortuted by police, who were given pictures of the missing pair. As Patrolman Johnson passed an old frame house, he recognized as Miss Rinz the girl who was puttering in the garden.

"Where is Joe Martinez?" the officer asked.

"Why, my husband is out looking for work," was the laconic reply.
Martinez was found later and a quizzing by police disclosed that the couple were spending their "honeymoon" in the deserted shanty, after young Marti-nez had "performed a marriage ceremony" for them.

Martinez said he and the girl intended to be married in a legal manner, but he was told that because of their age they could not obtain a marriage

"Then we went through a marriage ceremony of our own," said the youth.
"I pledged myself to be Margaret's husnd for all time and to love, honor and protect her. Margaret made a similar pledge to me, and we thought that was enough, as this is our business and neither the police nor anyone else and neither the police nor anyone else has a right to butt in."
But Chief of Police Day thought otherwise and returned the girl to her parents, holding Martinez for further investigation

PAINFULLY INJURED. WOODSTOCK, June 1.—As a result of jumping from a buggy when a horse driven by her husband tried to bolt, Mrs. Andrew McDonaid, 12th line, East Zorra, suffered a broken leg and badly sprained ankle. Mr. and Mrs. McDonaid were driving into Woodstock, when something on the road frightened the horse, and at the same time terrified Mrs. McDonald so that she jumped.

Never Mind

age disagrees, use

ings best.

note results.

What Others Say

If your usual table bever-

POSTUM

You know your own feel-

It's a fact that tea and coffee disagree with some people.

If they disagree with you, why not try another table drink.

Buy a package of Postum from your grocer, try it ten days, and

INSTANT

CROP PROSPECTS IN

ummary of reports made by agricultural representatives to the Ontario department of agriculture: Good growth has been made in field and orchard during the week, although Chicago, June 2.—Doug and Mary rain was greatly desired as reports Fence Opposite Foundry In ing a start.
Some fall wheat is being plowed up As the train came to a stop Doug alighted with something pink and white in his arms. It was a remarkably pretty baby.

The description of drilled in with other spring grain, but as a rule the fields are well up to the average for promise. Clover is not in as good condition.

Dretty baby.

Meanwhile a half dozen little girls were clinging to Mary's hands and refused to let go. She looked a bit worled, nor was she reassured when her laughing husband disappeared along the runway.

Clover is not in as good condition, at its regular meeting tonight transacted much routine business and accepted the report of a special committation of the time of the runway.

Clover is not in as good condition, at its regular meeting tonight transacted much routine business and accepted the report of a special committation of the time of the runway. owing to the scarcity of fodders. Orchards have been generous in whole better than ordinary, although some growers are anxious as to the set of fruit as bees are scarce this year, owing to winter losses. Essex says that there is a good showing of sugar beets, which are now being thinned, and also states that about per cent of the corn crop is already planted, with prospects of a big yield. Sweet clover is still attracting consid-"Indeed, I wish they were mine," she said. "Somebody on the train asked me if the children were mine, and it gave me a regular heartache when I had to say no."

erable attention. Grey states that some farmers have a larger acreage in this year than of any other crop.

Live stock are now gaining in flesh on the grass, and milk production is into the grass, and milk production is into the grass. By this time an army of mothers at from $150 to $200 in Peterboro.

Eight states that a larger numb regal calves than usual have been ttograph, for a handshake, for a kiss a word. She dealt out many of and Peterboro reports that about 800 calves for yeal have been shipped reough and handed Mary a rather sad cently from three stations, and probably wilted bunch of roses that had not as many more from other points in that "Are they for me, dear?" asked Mary. a cwt. Brood sows are said to have de"Yes, they're all for you. I love you creased considerably in numbers. About offered on the Napanee market of face, and it will be some time, last Friday at from $14 to $16 a pair, safe to say, before that kiss is Huron reports sales of small pigs at from $10 to $12 a pair, while Frontenac at horse of a throng of whooping, ad-Draft horses are reported to be selling talk in Carleton at prices ranging from $135 tities of wool are being marketed co-operatively this year. Victoria reports

SOLDIER WEDS TWIN, CAN'T PICK BRIDE

Marries Another.

Young Martinez and the Rinz girl Eller, who fought in France, filed suit supply in the superior court yesterday for April 10, 1919, and three weeks later sailed for home on a troopship, expect ng to send for her. Last August Eller was hurt in an accident and went to hospital for six months. His supposed ride arrived from Liverpool in Septemer and made her home for about month, he says, with his parents at 424 Cole street. Then Eller says she became infatu ated with his friend, Charles Guacasco, and together they came to the hospitatand told Eller they were going to be married that Mrs. Eller wasn't really his wife at all, but his sister-in-law.

The twin he had married died, he was told, and the woman he believed to be his wife showed to him a picture of the twin sisters together and dered him to pick out the one he had married. Later she and Guacasco ran away to New Orleans and are living there as man and wife, he says.

DIED IN CALIFORNIA.

CAYUGA, June 1.—News of the death of Robert Hannah, at Haywell, Cal., very suddenly, was received in Cayuga on Saturday. Deceased young man was very well and favorably known in Cayuga, near which town his parents, David and Mrs. Hannah, resided, until they moved a few years are to New hey moved a few years ago to New York State. He was married in Cali-

BICYCLE RIDER MUST

City Council Makes Regulation Toronto, June 2.—The following is a On "Safety First" Principle.

MAY SUE CITY

East End of City To Remain.

ada Iron Foundry be not interfere with, as if the fence were removed the orchards have been generous in material used by the company would be exposed and would not add to the the whole better than ordinary, al-

The manager of the company was willing to remove the fence and get off the street if the council so desired. Mr. James, a property owner in the vicinity, thought the council was mak ing a mistake in not giving the full width of the road at this point the ame improvement as that REGULATE TRAFFIC. A bylaw was passed regulating traffic in the city. Among the clauses is a prohibition forbidding a bicycle rider carrying any person on the machine except himself. Tractors, traction engines and heavy trucks are barred from the improved streets.

No. 3 committee asked to be allowed the platform made up by these to reconsider the resolution passed at its last meeting, to limit the use of the phone at the fire department after 10 o'clock p.m. to calls only for a fire or ambulance. The request was granted.

The secretary of the B. and T.
Society reported that eighteen families had been relieved during May, at a cost of $136.21.

The Children's Aid Society of London, in a letter to the council, stated that a lad named Thomas H. Flint had been committed to the Victoria Industrial School on November 12, 1919, but it had been discovered since that St. resident before going to London, Given

WILL SUE CITY.

Mrs. Margaret Scott, through her solicitor, C. St. Clair Leitch, advised council that she would be compelled to sue the council for damages on account of injuries received at the corner of William and Stanley streets in November last, unless a settlement Given to No. 1 com-wrote asking for a reduction of his taxes. Mr. Young is a discharged soldier, physically unfit. Given to No. 1 Nobility Chocolate Company asked for permission to build a pit under their siding. Referred to a special committee with power.

The board of education made a request upon the council to have the west end market declared a children's playground. Given to No. 4 committee Jones appealed to the council for the board of works will have the

HAS BEEN ADJOURNED

More Evidence To Be Heard in Kilmer vs. Penhale Friday.

ST. THOMAS, June 1.-The action Kilmer against Silas Penhale, over the lease of a farm near Mapleton, was finished today, as to the evidence com-ing from both parties and the hearing was further adjourned until Friday for the arguments of counsel. The greater part of the day was taken up with the examination of the plaintiff, Mr. Penhale.

THE KING'S BIRTDHAY.

That the king's birthday, June 3, may be given proper recognition by the staff at the postoffice the letter-car-riers will only make one delivery. The lobby will be open only from 8 to 11, and all mails for dispatch close at noon. The death Call, street letter boxes will be cleared in ayuna man own in the morning.

All the other Government and public offices will be closed during the day. HAS HAND CRUSHED.

When working on a machine in the shops of the St. Thomas cabinets to-day Walter Burrell had his hand sprained ankle. Mr. and Mrs. McDonald were driving into Woodstock, when something on the road frightened the horse, and at the same time terrified by his wife, a young son and daughter; three sisters, three brothers and his parents. The sisters are Mrs. B. Crabb of Elba. N. Y., and Mrs. Grant Herod and Mrs. R. A. Lindsay of Cayuga. Cameron, the youngest son, lives with his parents at Corfu, N. Y.; and Walter Burrell had his hand slightly crushed and a couple of his fingers badly injured. He was removed to the first aid station at the works and given surgical treatment. DEATH OF MISS WINTENBURG.

Miss Joseph Wintenberg passed away today at the residence of her sister, Mrs. J. D. Lamont, Elm street, that the station at the works and given surgical treatment. DEATH OF MISS WINTENBURG.

Miss Joseph Wintenberg passed away today at the residence of her sister, Mrs. J. D. Lamont, Elm street, James, died in action during the great war. survived by her father, Frank Wintenberg, Elm street; sisters, Mrs. Lamont and Mrs. Frank Whitfield, St. Thomas; Frank and Walter of Detroit, and William of the department of the interior, Ottawa, are brothers. The interment will be in New Dundee Cemetery, Wednesday.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

Cemetery, Wednesday.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

A call has been extended by the Christian Church at Mapleton to H. F. Franks, Toronto.

Major R. M. Luton, son of Governor Luton, has resigned his place as medical superintendent of the Fredericton military hospital, and will return to St. Thomes.

M. Penhale, Wellington street, has sold his residence on that avenue to D. Mac. Nish, Southwold.

The local fish warden was in Port Bruce and other lake shore centres during the week, looking into some complaints that there had been a violation of the law.

Miss Erie V. Amoss of Corinth, and Miss Hazel Bennett, Straffordville, have been selected by the East Elgin inspectorate in the itinerary planned by the Government through North Ontario by the Government through North Ontario in August. Delegates are being appointed from the other provincial inspectorates.

THORNDALE

THORNDALE, June 1.—Dr. J. R. Armstrong, formerly of Thorndale, has left for New York, where he will take a course in eye, ear, nose and throat. A banquet will be tendered the members of the Women's Institute on Friday afternoon in Harding's Hall. The Government delegate will be present and address the meeting.

SEVEN NURSES GRAUDATE.

KITCHENER, Jone 1.—The following young nurses in training at the Kitchener and Waterloo Hospital received their diplomas at the graduation exercises here this evening: Helen C. Ewart, Anna Belle Hamilton, Agnes MacLean, Mary M. Orr, Erma E. Pfiffer, Edith Wittmack and Florence A. Wolfe, AMENDMENT ELIMINATED. AMENDMENT ELIMINATED. Washington, June 2.—President Wilson today signed a joint resolution eliminating from the agricultural appropriation bill the Comer amendment affecting cotton futures grades which, through a clerical error, was included in the original measure, signed yester-day.

ONTARIO ARE GOOD NOT CARRY PASSENGER DEFEATED BY 26 OF A MAJORITY; IN RAILWAY CITY FARMER PARTIES JOIN LIBERALS IN EFFORT TO ENFORCE REVISION land. Thompson (Weyburn), Thom (Hastings), Thompson (Yukon), Tol-mie, Tremain, Tudhope, Tweedie, Whidden, White (Sir Thomas), Wiglington). Clements, Cockshutt, Cooper las (Strathcona), Douglas (Cape Breton), Drayton (Sir Henry), Elkin, Finley, Foster (Sir George), Foster (York), Fraser, Fripp, Fulton, Glass, Green, Griesbach, Guthrie, Halladay, Harold, Harrison, Hartt, Hay, Henders, Hughes 94, as recorded by the clerk. Mackie of Edmonton rose and stated that he of Edmonton rose and stated that he had voted in error for the amendment. The list of pairs as supplied by the (Sir Sam), Keefer, Lalor, Lang, Logchief whips was: gie, Long, Mackie (Renfrew), MacLean (York), McCurdy, McGibbon, McIntosh, McIsaac, McLeod, McQuarrie, Opposition. Lean (York), McCurdy, McGibbon, Mc-Intosh, McIsaac, McLeod, McQuarrie, Martin, Meighen, Merner, Mewburn, Middlebra, Morphy, Mowat, Munson, H. H. MacLean. Sinclair (F. Hocken. Pedlow. J. H. Sinclair. Middlebro, Morphy, Mowas Myers, Nesbitt, Nicholson Mowat, Munson. R. J. Manion.

Dr. J. W. Edwards W. A. Buchanan. Thos. Wallace. J. A. Maharg.

which are before the country at the present time.

Sheard, Sifton, Simpson, Smith, Spinney, Stacey, Steele, Stevens, Stewart (Hamilton), Stewart (Lanark), Sutherment side. LIBERAL LEADER IN BRILLIANT ADDRESS CALLS FOR ELECTION

Nicholson (Algoma), Paul, Peck, Porter, Redman, Reid (Grenville), Rich-

on, Rowell, Scott, Sexsmith, Shaw,

ISpecial to The Advertiser.]

Ottawa, June 1.—Hon. William Lyon Mackenzie King, new leader of the Liberal party, brought his followers to their feet cheering this afternoon when he amounced his absolute and complete difference to the politic and complete difference to the politic manufacture of the Advertiser.]

Is a special to The Advertiser.]

Ottawa, June 1.—Hon. William Lyon Mackenzie King, new leader of the Liberal party, brought his followers to their feet cheering this afternoon when he amounced his absolute and complete difference to the politic and the party of the amount of form of the Farmers' Party and a copy of the platform of the Independent Labor Party, and honorable gentlemen opposite have drawn attention to differences between the Liberals and the Farmers and the Labor men. There is Common Ground.

"Well, sir, there are differences to which the gentlemen can point, but I can tell my honorable friends opposite can tell my honorable for creater has no policy to propose other than can tell my honorable friends opposite this, which is a fact of far greater this, which is a fact of a common significance, that there is a common significance. has no policy to propose other than safeguarding and protecting privileges should at least give the people an opground of unity upon which the memportunity to say whether or not they bers of those parties can stand. You will find in the Farmers' platform, in the Labor platform and in the Liberal platform the common demand for a platform the common demand for a platform the the duties on the necessities of life. You will find in all three platforms a demand that the duties platforms a demand that the duties should be taken off the instruments of should be taken off the instruments of production, so that great production production, so that great production and the problems of the day."

Condems Government.

"So, Mr. Speaker," said Mr. King, "while we can compliment the minister."

standing needs of the country today, and on these great fundamental needs we are united.

"Let me address a word to my honorable friends of the Farmers' party and my honorable friends of the working-men's party, and let me address the same word to the people throughout this country:

A Word To People.

"Take note of the things that you have ln common, and observe the tactics of the enemy, which are apparent. We have seen privilege his country:

A Word To People.

"Take note of the things that you have in common, and observe the tactics of the enemy, which are apparent. We have seen privilege protected in every speech that has been uttered from the other side in the course of this debate. We have seen honorable gentlemen opposite seek to point to the differences that exist between men of common thought and common feeling in other respects. What do these tactics signify? They are just an endeavor to keep the host in opposition divided. Honorable gentlemen opposite argue among themselves: "We keep the privileged interests protected so long as men of thought and feeling who are united on certain common ground can be kept apart from one another and prevented from uniting in a common effort to gain a common end."

and phenomenal and a common end."

Barbed Wire Entanglements.

"These are the barbed wire entanglements by which the party of privilege would seek to keep separated men of liberal thought and feeling in this country, and to keep them from uniting on the ground which they have in common. The honorable minister of the interior (Mr. Meighen) said that the purpose of the Liberal resolution was to unite these different groups. Let me tell my honorable friend that if that was its purpose there could not have been a worthier one than to seek to give expression, in one voice, to what are the sentiments of three great elements. What is the object of the honorable gentlemen opposite? It is to keep the progressive hosts who oppose them disunited. "Word has gone out from their headquarters urging the necessity for this action, and also the need for filling the war chest with gold. There are announcements already of a fund for propaganda purposes that is to be run up into millions of dollars. Mention has been made for filling the war chest with good a fund for propaganda purposes that is to be run up into millions of dollars. Mention has been made in the press of such a fund for such purposes, and the government in power purposes to hold on for a couple of years in order to give this insidious propaganda ample opportunity to do its work. Think and Feel Alike.

"I say, therefore, to all men who think and feel alike on the great questions which affect the well-being of the Canadian people, and who reprobate the conditions for which the Government are responsible, to take note of the tactics of honorable gentlemen may call themselves, whether it be Liberal, Grit, Reformer, Liberal-Unionist, themselves, whether it be Liberal, Grit, Reformer, Liberal-Unionist, Farmer or Labor representatives, if they think and feel alike as men who are interested in the welfare of the great mass of men and women in this country they should stand together where it is possible for them to do so and fight the great issue that faces them to a conclusive victory. conclusive victory.

There is no Deception,
"My honorable friend (Mr. Meighen)

Winter Ills Leave

the System Weak Grippe, influenza and other winter epidemics always leave the organs of the body in a weakened condition. The kidneys, especially, are forced to work harder to throw off the after effects of these diseases.

harder to throw off the after effects of these diseases.

To do this work properly they require the assistance of medicinal herbs. Dr. Clement's Juniper Pills are scientifically prepared to stimulate the kidneys in their work, to cure all aliments of these organs and to prevent further disorders.

Price, 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50. At all druggists or by mall prepaid. The Clement Medicine Co., Limited, Woodstock, Ontario.

gard to the professed desire of hon. gentlemen opposite for economy, some statement from the minister of finance to the effect that the Government had devised machinery, whereby the people throughout the country who have failed to pay the income tax in the last year or two would be obliged to make good their failures of the past. We all know that the income tax has not been collected as fully and as carefully as it should have been. Last summer, at the convention which the Liberal party held in this city, a resolution was passed which was brought to the attention of the Government—a resolution condemning the Government for the nonemorement of the income tax law."

the Great War Veterans' Association had issued a call to the veterans to hold mass meetings and demand the resignation of the Government, which left war to make year in the burden of taxation. Yet, said Mr. King, this Government had said it proposed to hold on to office for another two years.

Read Memorandum.

Mr. King read from a memorandum prepared by the board of inland revenue of Great Britain to show that if the British Government made a levy of 25 per cent on war wealth, the sum of one thousand million pounds would be realized. And, in Canada, people who Was Heavier Burden.

Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, in op-ening his address, paid high tribute to the minister of finance for the honesty with which the financial condition of the country had been made clear. more, Wilson (Wentworth), Wilson ton's professions were in the right disaskatoon).—Total 120.

The official vote was given as 120 to a Government which had its own to a Government which had its own to be clerk. Mr. King said that Sir Henry particular policy on taxation. It was a debatable point if the proposed taxes really placed the burden on those who were best able to bear it.

For Sake of Office.

The Government was holding office for the sake of office, said Mr. King. It had promised the electors to hold office only for the period of the war. "When was such a promise made?" demanded Sir Robert Borden. "I did not hear the prime minister's election speeches and I cannot quote chapter and verse," answered Mr. election speeches and I cannot quote chapter and verse," answered Mr. King. "But I do know that the people understood from his election speeches and those of his supporters that the coalition was solely for the purpose of carrying on the war, and that when that purpose was accomplished the members of the coalition would revert to their former principles and would give the people of this country an opportunity of electing a Government to the problem of the high cost of living. "Certainly not, government will make some contribution towards its solution. Instead of reducing the cost of living. "Certainly not, government to some contribution towards its solution. Instead of reducing the cost of living. "To an invisible tariff, the Government has added to it and made it more difficult for the people to live."

To an invisible tariff, the Government has added a visible tariff on a multi-ude of items.

Proposals made in the budget would encourage in large part the manufac-Messrs. Wallace, Kemp, Ames and Helpburn were absent from the govern-

Mr. King declared that an expenditure of $121,000,000 made by the Government during the war was at present unaccounted for, and the auditor-general himself had been unable to find out where the money went. He charged also that the Government had used money voted for certain specific purposes for other purposes, and stated in this connection with money voted for military expenditures had been used to establish a press bureau. The Government itself had admitted that it did not call for tenders for large contracts as indicated by the information given hat on an expenditure of nearly $70 000,000 for Canada's merchant marine, not a single tender had been called for. The indifference of the Government to the jurisdiction of parliament in mat-

"So, Mr. Speaker," said Mr. King, "while we can compliment the minister dicated by its action in creating ( ture—increased it by over a million dollars a day, according to the last statement brought down. It has vastly increased the appointments, both temporary and permanent, to the civil service—increased them at the rate of 50 civil servants a day. It has left $\frac{50}{121.000.000} or more unaccounted for of public moneys which have been paid out. It has spent money for purposes for which it was not appropriated. It has spent public money on contracts for which it was not appropriated. It has spent public money on contracts without calling for tenders in accordance with the law of the country. It has given money in loans and credits to foreign countries on very doubtful security, and in a manner which will help its own friends rather than further than that expected a people's budget, and it got a profiteers'. Regarding the income tax, surely the thouse was justified in expecting that the Government would do something by way of compelling those who had evaded the tax in past years to pay up their arrears.

the tax in past years to pay up their arrears.

Mr. King declared that there had been little success in the collection of the income tax. The House and the country had reason to expect that when shown in many particulars a tendency to increase the expenditure, and to be indifferent to the necessity for retrenchment. That is one count which we have against the honorable gentlemen opposite.

this respect.
Omitted War Wealth. Omitted War Wealth.

There had been no reference in the budget to war wealth. The country had a right to some statement in this regard, but as far as Sir Henry Drayton's speech went the Government might not have known there was such a thing as war wealth.

Every day's delay made it increasingly difficult to tax any of these profits. Everyone knew that vast fortunes were being amassed during the war, while men were sacrificing their lives. These were fortunes built on the blood and sacrifice of others, and they should pay their share of the war debt.

R. B. Maxwell, Dominion president of what we most object to in his budget is that it protects privilege and profiteers instead of protecting the consumers of this country? We had expected at this time of all times a people's budget; we have instead a profiteer's budget; that is apparent when we come to analyze it. I say that for this reason—when we study this taxation we find that in practically everything that the minister has proposed there is increased burden upon the consumers, not of the higher or upper classes but of the middle or poorer classes; and there is on the other hand a careful protection and safeguarding of those who are in a position of privilege in this country. We had a right to expect, having rethe war, something should be con-tributed out of this source.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

"The budget," Mr. King declared, "is a budget to protect the profiteer. It is not a budget to protect the people of Canada." Wealth was primarily derived from the community. It was not therefore unreasonable to ask that part of the wealth created by the com-munity should be returned to the com-

The budget revealed the dovernment as having no policy for dealing with the high cost of living. "We do not the Government to solve the encourage in large part the manufac-ture of shoddy goods. Quality was quite as important as quantity, and no way probably could the poor man be worse than by giving him poor ing considered goes into Why were goods sent out of the country, Mr. King asked, not equally taxed? It was because the Government wished to help the manufacturer. There was no consideration for the

The Government had shown an ab-Was Needed Today.

Was Needed Today.

What was needed today was the taking of some of the duties off the necessaries of life which would lower the cost of living, and to take the duties off the implements of production which would also bring down the cost of living through increased production. The Government had done neither of these was the basic industries of the

It was the basic industries of the country, such as agriculture, lumbering, mining and fishing, which must be developed before any real progress or prosperity could come.

Mr. King went at length into the present-day trend of rural folk turning to the city. He would like to see any present-day trend of rural folk turning to the city. He would like to see an energetic policy of rural development and the building of thousands of small cottages on the farms, where men and women could take their families and secure work along agricultural lines. They needed also to conserve life. He knew that the Government had established absolute department but little lished a health department, but little had been done in this respect. He next quoted figures to show that tuberculosis was still rampant in Canada. The reason, said Mr. King, that he referred to health matters was that the Covernment was demanding increased.

Government was demanding increased production. This meant that increased labor was essential. Therefore every effort must be made to preserve human life, thus building up the population.

Little Export Business.

When the retional policy was intratain points, but to pay no credit to the unanimity of opinion on the main the unanimity of opinion on the main question of policy.

In submitting the Fielding amend-ment the Opposition was anxious to have the Government realize it was placing something which had been done

From the Atlantic to the Pacific, Mr. Fielding said, there was but one Liberal Read Memorandum.

Mr. King read from a memorandum prepared by the board of inland revenue of Great Britain to snow that if the British Government made a levy of 25 per cent on war wealth, the sum of one thousand million pounds would be realized. And, in Canada, people who had amassed great wealth out of the war should be required to pay at least of a percentage of their war fortune into the public treasury.

The Government had been ready to conscript human life. He did not ask that it should be equally ready to conscript wealth, but he did ask that where fortunes had been made out of the war, something should be contributed out of this source.

From the Atlantic to the Pacific, Mr. Fielding said, there was but one Liberal platform, which he had outlined. It was based on the tariff resolution passed at the national Liberal convention in August last. The Liberals stood for free food and freer trade. That had been the stand of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and the present party was determined to uphoid it. They would take up the flag where the old leader had laid it down when he died, and carry it on. The Government speakers sought to divide the Liberals and Progressives. Mr. King warned those on his side of the House to beware of the barbed wire entanglements the Government sought to throw about them.

The Government, Mr. King declared, was preparing an insidious campaign of propaganda, for which it already had

The Government, Mr. King ucceated, was preparing an insidious campaign of propaganda, for which it already had the funds. He urged those on his side to stand together in the fight against a common enemy. The Government to stand together in the ingit against a common enemy. The Government was unwilling to listen to the voice of the people as expressed in New Brunswick, Ontario, Prince Edward Island, Quebec and Saskatchewan. The Liberals. Labor and Farmers had many points in common, and it would be well for them to remember the common agreements in the face of the coming agreements in the face of the coming fight.

Mr. King was roundly applauded by Absolution members as he took his

KING'S PRINTER

of Mr. J. De L. Tache, king's printe to the position of joint parliamentar librarian was given official sanctio this morning, when an order-in-council was passed authorizing the transfer

NO MOVE REGARDING NEWSPRINT SUPPLY

OTTAWA, June 1.-J. R. Wilson, Saskatoon, asked in the House of Commons this afternoon if the Government had taken any action in the matter of supply of newsprint.

Sir Henry Drayton replied that committee of publishers last Octob reached an agreement with the print manufacturers, under which the mills agreed to a certain price, not as i matter of control, but of ordinary business. The agreement provided for a fixed price to the end of June, and for the supply of paper to the Canfor the supply of adian newspapers.

Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux asked if the hon. Rodolphe Lemieux asked if the hond the latter was to be promoted to be and the latter was to be promoted to be and the latter was to be promoted to be a latter was to be a latter was to be promoted to be a latter was to be a lat king's printer was to be promoted to the position of librarian, and the latter the position of librarian, and the latter official superannuated. A. D. Decelles, the official in question, had the respect of both French and English lovers of literature, and was still in vigorous health and able to carry on the work. Sir Robert Borden said Mr. Decelles had very creditable service to his record, and was to be superannuated. He was 76 years old. Mr. Tache had been promoted from king's printer to

BORDEN ADMITS INDEMNITY REQUEST

OTTAWA, June 1. — (Canadian Press.)—Speaking on the orders of the day in the House this afternoon, Sir Robert Borden said press statements had been called to his attention to the effect that members of the House had signed a round-robin asking for an increased indemnity, and that attendance of members in the House had been affected because of non-compliance on the part of the Government. So far as he was aware, Sir Robert added, no such round-robin existed. At any rate, Little Export Business.

When the national policy was introduced in 1878-79 Canada, said Mr. King, had little export business. Protection had been introduced by Sir John A. Macdonald to develop the home market and to nurture infant industries, but the industries had grown and developed until we found ourselves with a $500,000,000 merger in the country. There had been references to differences of opinion expressed on the Opposition side with reference to the fiscal question. It was an old trick to emphasize differences of view on cer-

Fuel Is Scarce!

Our best authorities tell us that the supply of Pennsylvania anthracite is rapidly diminishing and that Ontario must seek some means of solving this NUKOL is the pioneer company in Ontario to produce a satisfactory hard coal briquette, the purest form in which anthracite has ever been burned. Nukol has been used extensively and given the best results.

INVEST YOUR SAVINGS in this great co-operative industry, where you have security and a wide earning power. You are guaranteed 8 per cent on your investment.

DO NOT DELAY. Locate the Nukol representative in your town and secure a block of shares while you have the opportunity, or send your application to the London office.

Financial Underwriters, Limited 344 DUNDAS STREET. LONDON, ONT.

265 DUNDAS STREET

We had a right to expect, having re-

Protects Profiteers. "But, sir, looking further at the budget; looking at the resolutions which my hon friend had brought down, may I say, perfectly frankly to him that what we most object to in his budget

It's "Singing Throat" of Silver Grain Spruce Helps the Starr Produce Perfect Music.

The rich, round notes of famous singers, the wistful tones of master violinists, the everlasting classic or the light fantastic jazz or dance are perfectly rendered by the Starr Phonograph, with its marvelous "singing throat" and sound-box, made from silver grain spruce.

Stradivarius, master violin-maker, searched for years to find a perfect material for his famous violins. In silvergrain spruce he discovered the "music" wood of perfect sympathy; so vibrant, so sweetly sensitive, it delighted the

And so the "singing throat" of the Starr is carved from this self-same "music" wood of the centuries by the guiding hand of rich musical experience.

We invite you to hear the Starr in comparison with any other make of phonograph. We know what will happen, and are satisfied.

It Plays All Makes of Records Perfectly

Starr Company of Canada, Limited

PHONE 2364.

"There's a Reason" Canadian Postum Cereal Co. Ltd., Windsor, Ont.