UNITED STATES GOLF.

New Association Officers Nominated, the President by Acclamation.

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—Herbert Jaques of the Country Club, Brookline, has been nominated for president of the United States Golf Association, to succeed Daniel Chauncey. The nominating committee, made up of G. Herbert Windeler, Frederick S. James and Charles B. Macdonald, made practically a clean sweep of the old officers and executive committee, in submitting the following report yesterday:

President—Herbert Jaques, the Country Club, Brookline.

Vice-Presidents—Silas H. Strawn, Glen View Club, Chicago; Milton Dargan, Atlanta Athletic Club, Atlanta.

Secretary—Robert C. Watson, Garden City Golf Club, Garden City, N.J.

Treasurer—William Fellowes, Morgan, Baltusrol Golf Club, Baltusrol, N.J.

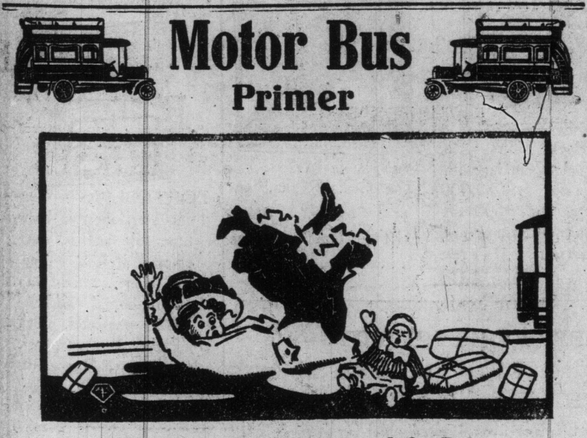
Other members of the executive committee: Jarvis Hunt, Chicago Golf Club, Wheaton, Ill.; C. T. Jaffray, Minikahda Golf Club, Minneapolis; Joseph S. Clark, Philadelphia Cricket Club, Philadelphia, and Arden M. Robbins, St. Andrew's Golf Club, Mount Hope, N.Y.

William Fellowes Morgan, the present secretary, has been named as treasurer in place of Samuel Y. Heebner of Philadelphia, who has held the office for the last ten years, while Robert C. Watson will take Mr. Morgan's place as secretary.

The executive committee will be made up of three men from the west, five men from the east and one from the south.

Old Tom McCune Scores Knockout.

PORT ARTHUR, Dec. 4.—In the eighth round of a scheduled fifteen-round bout, Referee Parsons gave the decision to Tom McCune of Detroit here last night, who proved his all-round superiority over Jack Pares of Iron River, Wis. The decision saved Pares from a knock-out, he having been floored twice in the same round. At the request of the Moral and Social Reform Association, the police watched the scrap, but did not interfere.



Motor Bus Primer

4th Lesson—The Woman and the Baby.

The woman is not an ac-ro-bat. O dear, no! She simply tried to get on the street car with one baby and ten bundles. The street car was in a hurry. It started when she had one foot on the step. Poor woman and poor baby. They would be glad to ride in the Mo-tor Bus.

The Motor Bus Company, Limited, will be incorporated for $2,000,000. Its immediate object is to provide efficient transportation service for Toronto. Shares now open for public subscription, par value $10 a share, payments extended over four years. For prospectus and further information apply to

SOCCER GAMES TO-DAY VARSITY V. S. ALL SAINTS

Important Event for Ontario Championship—Some League Fixtures.

Varsity athletic field will be the scene of a great struggle this afternoon, when All Saints and Varsity teams meet to decide who shall be the senior champions of Ontario. Varsity will present one of the strongest teams that ever represented the university. They will be strengthened by two or three men who played on the team that won the American intercollegiate championship; they also have on their line-up one or two men who played on the team that won the championship of the world at St. Louis. On the whole Varsity present a very strong team and will make the Saints go their limit to win. Saints will present the same line-up that has represented them all season and the followers of the east enders feel confident that the old gold and purple will keep up their good work. The game will be called at 2.30 sharp, with W. W. Woodward as referee. The teams will likely line-up as folloswv:

All Saints: Goal, Pointon; backs, Small, Rogers; halfbacks, Mara, Ambrose (capt.), Kingdon; forwards, Raven, Toole, Nelson, Cowan, Smith.

Varsity: Goal, Loucks; backs, Blackwood, Williamson or White; half-backs, Mustard, Murray, Carscallen; forwards, Robertson, Wicker, Strachan, Langford, Cameron.

There will be only two games in the Toronto League to-day, All Saints A v. Royal Hearts on the Don Flats at 2.30. W. Murchie, referee; All Saints B. v. Varsity at Sunlight Park at 2 o'clock, W. D. Hannah, referee.

The following members of All Saints B team are requested to be on hand at Sunlight Park at 2 o'clock this afternoon, rain or shine: Mantle, Currie, Sullivan, Wood, Monkmey, Kynock, Murray, Stringer, Bugg, Rice, Shields, Naughton and Astley.

The Toronto Football League has decided that if the Royal Hearts do not play to-day, as directed at the last meeting, the game will be counted against them and go to the All Saints.

The Shamrocks, having defaulted their game with the Royal Hearts on Saturday, the Hearts will practice on the west side of the Don Flats and will not play All Saints to-day on any account. (Signed) Manager of Royal Hearts.

Much interest is being taken in the Toronto and District intermediate section, Thistle and Don Valley, making a great run for first place. Thistles play Queens at 2 o'clock at the Pines this afternoon. Queens expect a much better team than last Saturday, as five men had to work. The Queens will be: Johnson, Neely, Williams, Rigby, Orr, Yenson, Shaw, Stamford, Elliot, Walker, Wheeler, Cann and G. Ready.

Indoor Ball To-Night.

Tht batteries for the exhibition game to-night in the Armories are as follows: First game, 48th v. Q.O.R.: Jones and Thom; Cook and Owens Umpires Bardgett and Cook.

Second game, Body Glards v. R.G.: G. Nicholls and Kent; Sharpley and J. Nicholson. Umpires, O'Brien and Spain.

The following Queen's Own players are requested to turn out at 8 o'clock sharp for the game with G Company of the Highlanders: H. Taylor, Ike Owens, W. Walsh, W. Cadman, Beemer, Cook, Downing, Murton, McWhirter, Edgar, Williams, Strathdee, Muntz, A. Cadman.

Newton, Varsity Captain.

John Newton, centre half-back, hailing from Sarnia, now in his third year at S. P. S., was yesterday elected captain of the champion Varsity Football Club.
