Pastor Russell's Sermon

Text: "The Blessing of the Lord it Maketh Rich; and He Addeth No Sorrow Therewith." (Proverbs x, 22) -How Will Earthly Rights Be Applied? - Merit of Sacrifice Will Be Used Again in All the World.

Here the question arises, If no Jew but Jesus could keep the divine law perfectly, and if He could keep it only because He was not a member of Adam's race directly, and if only by keeping the divine law perfectly Jesus could be accounted worthy to be a sacrificer and be received to heavenly glory, how could any of the fallen race be acceptable? We read that "He was holy, harmless and undefiled, separate from sinners." Of Him again we read that In order to be thus holy, He sense that they would desire to do perfectly, but none could be found able to do perfectly, because all are sharers in inherited sin. This is a part of the "mystery" which gradually unfolds to those who have the hearing ear and the understanding heart and the eye of faith. The Lord's expense of the church will bless Israel under the provisions of their new (law) covenant.

Already indeed (by faith) has the blessing in proportion as the exceeding great and precious promises have been accepted; and if it will still furand the eye of faith. The Lord's exof the matter is this: when words were, "If any man would be my disciple let him take up his cross and follow me, and where I am there shall my disciple be." "Except a man forsake all that he hath he cannot be my disciple." "Unless a man love less faither, mother, children, and all less faither mother, children and all less faither mothers are less faither mothers. less father, mother, children and all

What God has been deing since Christ died for the world's sins the Scriptures term the "mystery of God." It has been a mystery to the world in general, and the Lord so intended it to be. No one can understand the macher of the holy spirit. To auch the Lord says, "To you it is given to know the mystery of all the kingdom of heaven, but to all outsiders these what we shall show, may neverthees be able to appreciate the matter to all mitted degree. This, God intends to the what we shall show, may neverthees be able to appreciate the matter to all mitted degree. This, God intends to the world a great members thereof from many rations. planation of the matter is this; when Jesus had sacrificed His earthly rights and had been received to spirit nature, and had the earthly rights at His command to give away, "He ascended upon high there to appear in His command to give away, "He ascended upon high there to appear in the presence of God for us." He appeared for, on whalf of, all who believe in Him and accept forgiveness of sins and make a consecration of their all to God's service. But Jesus did not accept as disciples those who merely believed and were justified by faith. He attached another condition, ramely, that they must sacrifice all they care truly His—"to the Jew first."
