

Queen St. W., $7000 Will buy store and dwelling in good business district on north side of street, side drive, good lot. Must be sold at once.
Apply H. H. WILLIAMS & CO.
25 Victoria Street, Toronto.

The Toronto World

$50.00 Per Foot
HIGH PARK BOULEVARD
First lot on Indian Road, 50x130. No others for sale on street under $5000.
Rare bargain. Apply
H. H. WILLIAMS & CO.
25 Victoria Street, Toronto.

PROBS: Easterly winds; fair; stationary; higher temperature.

FOURTEEN PAGES—FRIDAY MORNING APRIL 29 1910—FOURTEEN PAGES

30TH YEAR.

$300,000 Wanted by the Y.M.C.A.

$200,000 Is Already Subscribed

Two Weeks
to Raise $400,000

BUILDING CAMPAIGN LAUNCHED BUSINESS MEN GET BEHIND IT

C. D. Massey, J. C. Eaton and E. R. Wood Donate One-third the Total Amount Being Asked For—Committees
Are Organized.

WHY Y.M.C.A. MOVEMENT
DESERVES TORONTO'S AID

With one-third of the $600,000 already in sight, with three branch committees whose combined strength is four hundred and fifty men, with the most efficient team organization ever got together for such a purpose, the Young Men's Christian Association building fund campaign was formally launched at a banquet given at the King Edward Hotel last night, when over four hundred representative men sat down. It was an auspicious gathering, marked by enthusiasm, fervent and sincere, which augurs well for the success of the giant movement.

The opportunity is unparalleled for a city like Toronto. As told by George Warburton, general secretary, Toronto, with the present limited and antiquated facilities, leads the continent in proportion of membership. There was the chance to lead the continent in generosity and later in equipment, and by being foremost on this continent Toronto would become the premier city of the world in the domain of Young Men's Christian Association endeavor.

At the conclusion of his address, Mr.
Warburton announced the magnificent benefaction of $100,000 by Chester D.
Massey, on behalf of the Massey estate, $50,000 by E. R. Wood, and $50,000 by John C. Eaton, the enthusiasm of the evening reaching its climax upon this announcement. With this initial impetus, the hope of the entire organization resolved itself into confidence and renewed determination was manifested to carry the campaign to a successful consummation.

This being a campaign of work and not of oratory, the speaker's remarks occupied little over an hour. A number of addresses were given, but each was characterized by crispness and pithiness. All were eminently successful.

Mr. Eaton congratulated.
In the unavoidable absence of John C.
Eaton, the following resolution, moved by his honor, the Lieutenant-Governor and seconded by Alex. Laird, general manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, was passed:

"Your fellow citizens, met to consider the welfare of the boys and young men of Toronto, wish to convey their hearty assurances upon to all citizens and as fellow citizens, who have this great task in hand."

His honor, commented that the community had become accustomed to the benefactions of the Massey estate, which represented an accumulation of wealth that was being well used for the benefit of the community. E. R. Wood, he jocularly referred to as "one of those hard-headed business men who are probably regarded as financial sharks," adding, "but there must be a great deal of good in a man who forks out $50,000."

His honor, who was asked to preside by H. G. Wood, chairman of the executive committee, was given a most cordial reception.

He said he had had no hesitation in consenting to be present, although he hadn't expected to be called upon to speak.

"It is a rather pleasing transition from horse show to this meeting," he commented, amid laughter.

He had not been active in promoting Y. M. C. A. work in Hamilton or Toronto, but had been a member of the former since it was founded. No institution had made greater progress than the Y. M. C. A. Some years ago there were only a few associations battling to do the work. It was a hopeful sign that laymen were now coming forward to promote the activity of such associations. It was becoming fashionable and he was not coming forward to promote the activity of such associations. It was becoming fashionable and he was not

Continued on Page 2, Column 2.

THE FIRST DONATIONS.

The Massey Estate, thru C. D. Massey, $100,000 $75,000 of which goes towards a fund to erect a building for the University Y.M.C.A.
E. R. Wood, chairman of the citizens' committee, 50,000
J. C. Eaton, 50,000
All conditional on the remaining $400,000 being raised.

C. D. MASSEY, one of the foremost of Canada's financial men, and the vice-president and managing director of the Central Canada Loan & Savings Co. He is also prominent in various other large financial, insurance and business enterprises.

E. R. WOOD is one of the foremost of Canada's financial men, and the
vice-president and managing director
of the Central Canada Loan & Savings Co. He is also prominent in
various other large financial, insurance and business enterprises.

DOMINION COAL STRIKE ENDED AT LAST

HALIFAX, April 28.—(Special.)—

Nearly five thousand miners, members of the United Mine Workers of America, who have been on strike in Cape Breton collieries for the past ten months, voted to return to work tonight. The strike is the longest in the history of Cape Breton and the news that the men had decided to return to work was received with relief and pleasure by the thousands in the collieries.

The arrangements were reached at a meeting of the men held about three o'clock this afternoon at the offices of the mine workers, at which representatives from all the locals were present, besides those of the officials of the United Mine Workers, who are still in Cape Breton.

A prominent labor man stated tonight that a reason why the United Mine Workers were anxious to get out of the fight here was that they were now entering upon a strike in Frank B. Co., and he felt that they needed their capital to assist in fighting the operators in British Columbia.

It is known that the international officials have been opposed by the local officials of the United Mine Workers, who were desirous, it appears, that the men should remain out until they were granted unconditional recognition.

The indications are that one of the busiest summers in the history of the coal company will be experienced and the business men generally are among the most grateful that the trouble is at an end at last.

AYLESWORTH REPLIES TO GLOBE'S CRITICISM

Release of Skill and King a "Lawyer's Question"—Had Approval of Earl Grey.

OTTAWA, April 28.—(Special.)—A.
C. Boyce, West Algoma, in the common to-night asked Hon. A. A. Aylesworth, minister of justice, if he had any statement to make regarding the criticisms regarding his release of Skill and King, imprisoned for selling obscene books.

"If I made a mistake," replied Mr.
Aylesworth, "it was an error not to release them. I have the satisfaction of knowing that it received the approval of his excellency, and I cannot refrain from saying that I value in a matter of this kind, at all events, the approval of his excellency, the present governor-general of this country far and away before the approval of the editor of The Toronto Globe."

DOMINION COAL STRIKE ENDED AT LAST

FOURTY-SEVEN YEARS OF PUBLIC SERVICE

Sir Richard Cartwright Guest of Honor at Ottawa Banquet.

OTTAWA, April 28.—(Special.)—Sir Richard Cartwright, minister of trade and commerce, and government leader in the senate, was a guest of honor tonight at a banquet at the parliamentary restaurant, which was attended by both Liberal and Conservative members of the upper house.

The function was arranged as a special tribute to Sir Richard's 47 years of public service. In the course of a short speech, Sir Richard, in his usual vigorous style, ran over the political and social events which he has witnessed since he first became a member of parliament in the early sixties.

He said that he saw in the growth and development of English-speaking Canada in this continent, in Great Britain and elsewhere, an opportunity for the creation of an alliance of Anglo-Saxons which would dominate the world and give an assurance of peace which would result in the disarmament of great powers which at the present time were preparing to cut each other's throats.

PERSECUTING AYLESWORTH.
"All this row against Hon. Mr. Aylesworth," said a prominent Liberal member of parliament, "is organized persecution, growing out of his rational attitude toward the Miller Bill.
Rev. J. A. Macdonald and Rev. J. G.
Shearer, the godfathers of the bill, are after Aylesworth's scalp. The persecution is led by these two divines does not make it less devoted."

Awarded $3500 for Alienation.
MONTREAL, April 28.—(Special.)— Some time ago one Laurie sued Dr.
Parke of Quebec for $50,000, the charge being that the former had alienated Mrs. Laurie's affections from her husband. To-day Chief Justice Langelle granted plaintiff $3500. Laurie obtained a divorce at Ottawa a few weeks since.

Good Outlook for Western Crops.
WINNIPEG, April 28.—The Canadian Pacific Railway has just issued their sixth crop bulletin, which shows that satisfactory progress with seeding has been made during the past week. In Manitoba, 81 per cent. of wheat has been sown. In Saskatchewan 80 per cent., and in Alberta 72 per cent. At a number of points wheat seeding is practically completed. In Alberta the weather has been very warm and dry, and rain would be beneficial at a number of places.

LAURIER'S WESTERN TRIP.
OTTAWA, April 28.—The western Liberal members to-day were in conference with Chief Whip Pardee, on the subject of Sir Wilfrid Laurier's visit to the west.
The premier will be accompanied by Messrs. Fielding and Graham, and open the campaign at Fort William in May.
The party will go as far as Prince Rupert.

HINT AT TAKE-OFF FOR POLITICAL INFLUENCE

Witness in Alberta Railway Scandal Enquiry Offered to Guess at the Identity of the Parties Who Were to Share in $544,000 of Stock.

WINNIPEG, April 28.—(Special.)— W. A. Faulkner, a witness whose evidence is badly wanted by the Alberta railway investigating commission, failed to appear to-day.

One letter, supposed to be from Faulkner to Ross Sutherland, dated Feb. 21, 1907, says that efforts had been made to interest certain people in the project, and that suggestions were practically assured. Premier Rutherford and Hon. W. H. Cushing were to take up the matter of cash subsidy from the Dominion Government. On account of some political questions, it was necessary for the executives to deal secretly with the syndicate, and in order also to secure proper interest in the road, it was found necessary to arrange indirectly that those directly interested in securing the support of the government should get a portion of the $544,000 which J. K. Cornwall testified he was to receive, if he succeeded in getting the guarantee and cash subsidy.

Emerson, testifying today, said he had at one time thought that Hon. C.
W. Cross was interested with Cornwall in the Athabasca railway project, but must have been mistaken. He could not explain where he got this idea.

Faulkner's Strange Companion.
He said that last Friday night he saw Faulkner last. Faulkner was accompanied by a man of financial substance, and they sought three times to get into the building where the new General Hospital building
was.

He represented Park as being Liberal organizer for Alberta and as wanting to buy shares in the syndicate, saying that Park was a man of financial substance. Faulkner brought three
times to get into the building where
the new General Hospital building
was.

He represented Park as being Liberal organizer for Alberta and as want-
ing to buy shares in the syndicate, saying that Park was a man of financial substance. Faulkner brought three
times to get into the building where
the new General Hospital building
was.

He represented Park as being Liberal organizer for Alberta and as want-
ing to buy shares in the syndicate, saying that Park was a man of financial substance. Faulkner brought three
times to get into the building where
the new General Hospital building
was.

He represented Park as being Liberal organizer for Alberta and as want-
ing to buy shares in the syndicate, saying that Park was a man of financial substance. Faulkner brought three
times to get into the building where
the new General Hospital building
was.

He represented Park as being Liberal organizer for Alberta and as want-
ing to buy shares in the syndicate, saying that Park was a man of financial substance. Faulkner brought three
times to get into the building where
the new General Hospital building
was.

He represented Park as being Liberal organizer for Alberta and as want-
ing to buy shares in the syndicate, saying that Park was a man of financial substance. Faulkner brought three
times to get into the building where
the new General Hospital building
was.

He represented Park as being Liberal organizer for Alberta and as want-
ing to buy shares in the syndicate, saying that Park was a man of financial substance. Faulkner brought three
times to get into the building where
the new General Hospital building
was.

He represented Park as being Liberal organizer for Alberta and as want-
ing to buy shares in the syndicate, saying that Park was a man of financial substance. Faulkner brought three
times to get into the building where
the new General Hospital building
was.

He represented Park as being Liberal organizer for Alberta and as want-
ing to buy shares in the syndicate, saying that Park was a man of financial substance. Faulkner brought three
times to get into the building where
the new General Hospital building
was.

He represented Park as being Liberal organizer for Alberta and as want-
ing to buy shares in the syndicate, saying that Park was a man of financial substance. Faulkner brought three
times to get into the building where
the new General Hospital building
was.

He represented Park as being Liberal organizer for Alberta and as want-
ing to buy shares in the syndicate, saying that Park was a man of financial substance. Faulkner brought three
times to get into the building where
the new General Hospital building
was.

He represented Park as being Liberal organizer for Alberta and as want-
ing to buy shares in the syndicate, saying that Park was a man of financial substance. Faulkner brought three
times to get into the building where
the new General Hospital building
was.

COL. DAVIDSON DEAD AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Was One of Toronto's Most Prominent Citizens, and Leader in Military Circles—Organized 48th Highlanders.

Military men Canada over will regret to learn of the death of Lt.-Col.
John I. Davidson, which occurred late last night, at his residence, 158 St.
George-street. He had undergone an operation for cancer two months ago and had been confined to his home since.

The burial on Saturday will be accompanied by full military honors from the Toronto garrison. The regiments will assemble at the armory at 2 p.m., and will attend service at St.
Andrew's Church, King-street, at 2.30 p.m., and at 3 p.m. the funeral will leave for Mount Pleasant. The 48th Highlanders will furnish the firing party and the 9th Field Battery the gun carriage.

John Irvine Davidson was perhaps the most beloved officer in the Toronto garrison, and in all other circles, in which he moved he had endeared himself by his kind and genial manners and traits of character. In business life there is none can say a harsh word of him. He was of large build and striking appearance, and carried himself with military erectness and bearing.

Born at Warrle, Aberdeenshire, Scotland, Nov. 17, 1854, the son of a physician, he was educated in Aberdeen.
After a short period in London he came to Canada and engaged in business. He was a member of the 48th Highlanders, and was a member of the present firm of Davidson & Hay.

As a militiaman he was known thruout Canada. He was an earnest interest in military service.

He began as a private in the 12th Aberdeenshire Volunteers, serving 2 1/2 years, he then served as a private for one and one-half years in the London Scottish; one year in the Uxbridge Yeomanry, and six years as lieutenant and captain in the 1st Royal Grenadiers. He held a Royal School of Infantry first-class certificate.

He took a most prominent part in organizing the 48th Highlanders of this city, and was its first commanding officer, he being confirmed in the command of the newly-organized regiment March 25, 1892.

The regiment adopted the Davidson tartan and the Davidson crest, and his identity with the regiment will live thru the time to come. When he retired in 1898 he was made honorary colonel. He was later brigadier of the 16th Toronto Infantry Brigade, resigning in 1907. He commanded forces in several of the military tactical engagements held around Toronto, and always earned the warm approval of the judges for his military knowledge.

Mr. Davidson was president of the board of trade 1890-91, and was director of the Home Bank and Union Trust Co. He was a past manager of the St. Andrew's Church, of which he was a most faithful attendant. He was also past president of the St. Andrew's Society, which he joined in 1874; Sons of Scotland and Caledonian Societies. He was also a member of the Military Institute and Toronto Club.

Mr. Davidson leaves a widow, two

THE LATE LT. COL. DAVIDSON.

daughters and one son. The daughters are the wives of Major Harold Rickford of this city and Major Home of the 6th Dragoon Guards, Bloemfontein, South Africa. The son, Robert, is a student at Upper Canada College.
The widow is the daughter of the late Robert Hay, M.P. of Quebec and Hay, and is a sister of Mrs. John Kay of this city and Mrs. James Turnbull, wife of the manager of the Bank of Hamilton.

Shot Friend and Attempted Suicide.
PORT ARTHUR, April 28.—(Special.)— Supposed to be suffering from hallucinations caused by an old wound received at the Battle of Magersfontein in South Africa, Robert Murdoch, a former member of the Black Watch Regiment, shot and wounded George Bessant at Silver Mountain Tuesday last. Next morning he endeavored to commit suicide on the platform of Silver Mountain Station.

LORDS PASS FINANCE BILL

LONDON, April 28.—In a quiet session lasting two and a-half hours this evening, the house of lords without division passed the final stages of the finance bill, which now awaits only the royal assent. There were a few peepers in the gallery and a small attendance of peers.

Lord Lansdowne, leader of the opposition, denounced the government's capitulation to the Irish members as an act worthy of Morocco or Somalland.

Mr. Lennox concluded by moving that a royal commission be appointed.
He asked that the leader of the opposition should have the right to nominate the minority of the commission and the right to nominate one or two of the council who should be engaged on the ground.

Hon. George P. Graham said the only thing accomplished by moving the resolution was to make it difficult for this country. He had never listened to a more unfair presentation of a case during his public career, and it should never have been made unless Mr. Lennox was prepared to face the issue by a direct charge.

The suggestion by Mr. Lennox that he intended the intention of the G. T. P. to divert trade to Providence, R. I., he was inclined to ridicule. The road was designed to use Canadian ports at both ends. It was the opposition who had tried to get the country to accept an alternative scheme which would have diverted trade to American ports. It was a question of the government and the people of Canada, and not of the carrying trade of the United States rather than to build up American ports.

Instead of persistently knocking this railway, it would be better for Canadians to pull together and assert themselves, and not say that we could not compete with American ports.
Will Use St. John.
Mr. Crosby of Halifax interrupted.

Continued on Page 9, Column 3.

A RETROSPECT.

April 29, 1776: Benjamin Franklin, Chase, Carroll and Rev. John Carroll arrived at Montreal, the Rev. Mr. Carroll by congress to induce Canadians to rebel against Great Britain.

April 29, 1817: Mr. Bagot, for Great Britain, and Mr. Rush, for the United States, made an agreement for their respective governments that each nation should maintain on Lake Ontario one vessel, not exceeding 100 tons burden, and armed with an 18-pound cannon; on the upper lakes two vessels, not exceeding the like burden each, and armed with like force, and on the waters of Lake Champlain one vessel, not exceeding like burden, and armed with like force.

THREE BUT NOT OF A KIND.
Peary-An al-laster.
Shackleton-An Almoester.
Dr. Cook-A Never-near.

Answer for the Wedding.
A silk hat is almost more than required for wear at the horse show, and after that it will answer for the June weddings. There is a crowd of the boys hitching up this year. It is always that way when the country is prosperous. The Dineen Company are sole Canadian agents for the best there is in good silk hats. Store open every evening.

GRANDPA LAURIER: It was a bad bow-wow for snarling at Grandpa's own boy like that.