Whatever Sothern and Marlowe might ever produce, it can be surmised that not roles will ever prove more popular to all classes of theatregoers than those of Komeo and Juliet; in which the illustrious stars will be seen at the Royal Alexandra during the week of May, 30. In these two characters they are again, seen in the romantic, poetic portrayals in which their admirers like them so well, in fact it was in roles of this kind in which they won their first recognition, when Sothern as the impetuous here of the romantic dramas, and Miss Marlowe in, her delineation of the lovable Shaksperian hertoine, won their enormous colorie of admirers. It is a matter of great satisfaction to students of the drama to anticipate seeing a performance of Romeo and Juliet in which the two leading players are so ideally fitted thru youth, charm of appearance and dramatic love peem, should take on new splendor and the roles become in a manner visualized to present day audiences.

Miss St. John Wileman, to whom other speakers gave a large measure of credit for the initial steps in organization, said that, while there was a utilitarien aspect to a utilitarian aspect to it, under-lying the movement was the desire to promote empire building. There were thousands of young women who were wasting their lives in Britain for whom could be found pleasant and useful work in Canada as domestics. "The Pentecostal Blessings."

LONDON, Eng., May 15.—Albert Memorial Hall, recognized as the largest modern auditorium in the world, was crowded to-day to hear Pastor Russell of Brookly. Tabernacle, New York, on "Pentecostal Blessings." Many of the most prominent stalls and boxes are owned by the nobility, many of whom occupied them, while others, unable to attend, graciously granted permission for their occupancy by others; but hundreds were turned away. The meeting was held under the auspices of the International Bible Students' Association. The speaker said:

International Bible Students Association. The speaker said:

It is appropriate that on this day, celebrated and recognized as the anniversary of Pentecost, we should consider the import, and have well in mind what we celebrate. I therefore take as my text, the words of St. Peter explanatory of the occasion: "This is that which was spoken by the Prophet Joel: And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out My spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall have the vision which your ancients dreamed of; and on my servants and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days My spirit, and they shall proclaim." more than four thousand years. Why was this? We answer that God has his own times and seasons for the various features of His work. (Matthew xi, 11). Why could not John and others of the prophets preceding him, enter in and enjoy this gospel favor? We answer, in the language of St. Paul, "God having provided some better things for us, that they without us should not be made perfect" (He-brews xi. 40). Our Creator has great gifts to dispense to our race thru the Redeemer, and it is for Him to determine the times and the seasons for the dispensing of these blessings, and to whom they shall go. According to the divine arrangement, the Redeemer had first to die as man's Ransom-Price, before any of the race could come back into full relationship with the Creator. It is true that by faith Abraham and others of the past did enjoy certain of God's favors, and much of His fellowship, but none could be received into canceled. Then they could be accepted in Christ on the terms which the Father had appointed.

Those very disciples who received the blessing in the upper room on Pen-tecost, had forsaken sin, had become Jesus' disciples, had made full consc-cration of all their earthly hopes and nterests, had been accepted by the Lord Jesus, and He had put His spirit upon them, enabling them to do many nighty works in His name. However, it was one thing to do mighty works thru His spirit, or power, and another matter to possess that spirit inherently-to act directly as agents of divine harmony with this thought that we read that after our Lord breathed upon them the holy spirit, symbolically imparting His spirit, and commissioning them as His representatives to preach the gospel, He told them, nevertheless, to tarry at Jerusalem until they were endued with power—the holy spirit-until the Father should recognize them directly as His ministers and ambas-

St. Peter declares that the outpouring of the holy spirit upon the waiting helievers at Pentecost was mentioned by Joel the Prophet, but he does not say that all of the prophecy was fulfilled there and then. As a matter of fact, we know that the holy spirit was not then poured out on all flesh; it was poured out merely upon God's servants and hand-maidens. A careful inspection shows us that there are two parts to the prophecy—(I) All flesh and (2) God's servants and hand-maidens. The order of the blessing is also stated. It will come upon all flesh after those days, but upon the servants and hand-maidens in those days. The days mentioned evidently refer to this goospel age—from Pentecost to the second coming of Christ.

In this period, of now nearly nine—

A special program has been arranged, and Mrs. Chas Fitzsimmonis, who spent last winter in New York in charity work, will deliver an address on the wilte slave traffic. All women interested in this subject are invited to attend this meeting. Tea will be served at 5 o'clock.

W. C. T. U. District Meeting. The regular monthly meeting of Toronto District W.C.T.U. will be held at the present headquarters, 618 Only interested. So, 19, instead of the 26th, as matters in connection with the campaign for raising the required amount for the new building are to be completed. A social hour will be spent after 4.15 to which every member of all the unions in the city is invited.

We consider the new dispensation, the millennial age, shall have come to an end; after the new dispensation, the millennial age, shall have come. Only Jews received the Pentecostal blessings belonging to this gospel age, in which we are specially interested, and subsequently let us notice the blessings that God has promised shall come to all mankind. It is not sufficient that we say that a Pentecostal blessing came upon the followers of Jesus in the upper room anything that had been known in the world before! We want to know why it did not come sooner to God's people? We remember Abel, Enoch, Noah, Abraham, Moses, Daniel, the prophets; we recognize the fact that they were grand characters, and, as St. Paul said, "They had this testimony that they building are to be completed. A social hour will be spent after 4.15 to which every member of all the unions in the city is invited.

When the complete the penterestal age, shall have come to the blessings belonging to this gospel age, in which we are spectical with a different from the say of the say of the fellow that God has a tend that god has a tend to the Jewish nation. Then came the time for a similar privilege to be carried to the Gentiles, and the received in the reg work, and must believe and accept the same. "Neither is there salvation in any other; for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved" (Acts Iv.

> Thus it was that, in harmony with our Redeemer's promise, St. Peter used the "key" which introduced the Gen-titles to the Pentecostal blessings. As he used the first key on the Day of Pentecost in explaining to the multi-tudes of Jews the meaning of the Pentecostal blessings, and the privilege that they had of entering into the divine favor thereby, so, at this later date, the Lord instructed Cornelius to send for Peter, saying, "Send there-fore to Joppa, and call hither Simon, whose surname is Peter; he is lodging in the house of one Simon, a tanner by the seaside; who, when he cometh, shall speak unto thee" (Acts x, 32; xi, 14, 15). Thus were the two "keys" used by St. Peter, and thus were the doors of the gospel favor—the high-calling of joint-heirship with Jesus—thrown open, both to Jews and to Gentilles there faith in the precious bleed. tiles, thru faith in the precious blood The doors thus thrown open are not yet closed; but, as we sometimes sing, "That gate was left ajar for me."

I rejoice with you to-day, fellow-students of the word of God, that this great gift of God is still obtainable, that the time has not yet fully come when the door of opportunity to this high-calling must close. Close it will, so soon as the full number of the "elect" shall be completed. Thank God that another door will then open; the door of restitution to human perfection and to earthly life, grand beyond the power of description. But the blessed opportunity of this Pentecostal favor is still granted. As St. Peter declares in his epistle, "Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises; that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature" (II Peter i, 4). The door to this divine nature is the one that will soon shut, as our Redeemer illustrated in the parable of the "Wise and Foolish Virgins." When a sufficient number of "wise virgins" shall have entered to complete the brideclass, forthwith the door of opportunity to that station, to that class, to that honor, to the divine nature, will be closed, and the elect of God will be neither one more nor one less than the numbers originally foreordained. From the standpoint of divine justice, the apostles and believers were still under the sentence of death assinners at the time of our Lord's death, at the time of His resurrection, at the time of His ascension. Then He said to them, "It is expedient for you that I go away, for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you" (John xvi., 7). After the forty days, invisibly present with His disciples.
