RECENT WEDDINGS

Coy-Edgcombe.

Fredericton, April 22—(Special)—A wedding of more than usual interest was solemnized at Christ Church Parish Church on Saturday afternoon, when Miss Frederica Edgcombe became the bride of Arthur Gordon Coy. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. F. Bate, rector of Fredericton. The wedding was attended by a few friends of the contracting parties. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederic B. Edgcombe of this city and the groom a son of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Coy, also of Fredericton. Both are prominent in social life. The groom served overseas with the heavy artillery of the C. E. F. for a long period and later was on the staff of the D. S. C. R. in this city. The young couple were attended by Miss Jean Vanhuskirk and O. Guy Hornsfield. The bride wore a blue tailored costume with grey hat and furs. The young couple left by C. P. R. Saturday evening for Montreal on their wedding tour.

McBeath-Stoyles.

Rev. F. H. Wenworth, pastor of the Baptist church in Quebec, recently united in marriage William John McBeath of Moncton, and Miss Emily C. Stoyles of Quebec. Mr. and Mrs. McBeath will reside in Moncton.

RECENT DEATHS

Mrs. John McGourty.

The death of Ellen Elizabeth, widow of John McGourty, occurred at her residence, 108 Union street, yesterday. She leaves one son, William J., of the C. N. R.; three daughters, Sister Mary Stanislau, of the Sisters of Charity at St. Vincent's Convent; Miss Ella Olivia and Miss Evelyn, of this city; one sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Barclay, and two brothers, John Gladnich, of Boston, and Jasper Gladnich, of Winnipeg. The funeral will take place on Tuesday morning from her late residence to the Cathedral.

M. V. Paddock.

A well-known and revered citizen passed to rest yesterday in the person of Morris V. Paddock, pharmacist, whose place of business was at the corner of Coburg and Union streets. The end came suddenly after a lingering convalescence from injuries sustained in an automobile accident last month. His condition became worse on Saturday and he breathed his last at 12.30 o'clock yesterday noon. He is survived by his wife, The late Mr. Paddock was a chemist of considerable note and had held the responsible position of provincial analyst for several years. He has given important evidence in many cases, including more than one murder trial. He was instrumental also in assisting to round up the opium dealers in this city. Besides being an officer in the provincial branch of the Canadian Pharmaceutical Association, and being greatly respected by his fellow pharmacists, the late Mr. Paddock enjoyed the friendship and respect of a large circle of friends. He was art director of the local Art Club since its organization in 1908, and had identified himself prominently with the affairs of that society. He was an art connoisseur of more than average ability and selected many of the paintings now in the possession of the Art Club. He was director of the art exhibit at the exhibitions of 1912 and 1914. His splendid library on art subjects was the admiration of his fellow enthusiasts. In addition to his art affiliations, the late Mr. Paddock found time to devote to the welfare of his church and was for many years trustee of the Mission church, where his timely advice around the council board will be missed. He was a quiet, gentle Christian gentleman, beloved by all who knew him, and his loss will be mourned by all sections of the community.

Sterling L. Stockton.

Petticoe, April 22—(Special)—The death of Sterling L. Stockton occurred this morning at 10 o'clock at his home here at the age of sixty-three. Mr. Stockton was a successful merchant in Petticoe for the last twenty-five years and was the senior member of the firm of S. L. Stockton & Sons. He was a member of the Methodist church and a staunch Liberal. He will be greatly missed in the community and was very highly regarded by all who knew him. He is survived by his wife and three children, Lee V. and Miss Ceta M., of Petticoe, and Miss Eva, of New York city; three brothers, A. T. Stockton, of Cornhill; Harry L., of Petticoe, and Charles R., of Somerville (Mass.), and four sisters, Mrs. H. G. Kennedy, Oakland (Me.); Mrs. W. H. Mass, of Weymouth (Mass.); Mrs. A. S. Parkin, of Petticoe, and Mrs. J. W. Stockton, of Calgary.

Charles A. Thorne.

In the death of Charles A. Thorne yesterday at his residence, 74 Durham street, the city loses an aged citizen, who was held in high esteem by a large number of friends and relatives. He was born in Queens county and was of Loyalist descent. He was very well known along the water front, having been a competent stevedore for many years. He is survived by his wife, one son, Robert A. Thorne, of Weymouth; four daughters, Mrs. Edward Stevens, of Grand Bay; Mrs. Louis Watson, Mrs. Leonard Byles and Mrs. Isaac Patterson, all of this city. He also leaves fourteen grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren. The funeral will be held on Tuesday afternoon from his late residence to Cedar Hill cemetery. Service will be at 2 o'clock.

Miss Jane Moffitt.

Fredericton, April 22—(Special)—Miss Jane Moffitt, died yesterday morning. She had been a resident of Fredericton for many years. Two nieces, Margaret Edgar of Perth and Myrtle Moffitt of Fredericton and one nephew, John Edgar of Kingsclear, survive.

Mrs. Mary Kirk.

The death occurred on Saturday of Mrs. Mary Kirk, at Fredericton. She is survived by two sons, four daughters, one brother and two sisters.

Frederick C. Milledge.

The death occurred at Hazel Ridge on April 12 of F. C. Milledge, formerly of this city. He is survived by his wife, three daughters, four brothers and two sisters.

FUNERALS

The funeral of Francis Williamson Smith took place yesterday afternoon from his late residence, 78 Somerset street. The service was conducted at the house by Rev. W. H. Spencer and the choir of St. Matthew's church attended the service. The interment took place in Greenwood cemetery, where the Ma-sone funeral service was conducted by the Worshipful Master of New Brunswick lodge.

The funeral of Benjamin Stevens took place from his late residence, Pleasant Point, yesterday afternoon at St. Rose's church, where the service was conducted by Rev. C. O. C. The service was largely attended and the interment was made in the Holy Cross cemetery.

LOCAL NEWS

The organist of St. John's (Stone) church, James F. Browne, gave a greatly enjoyed organ recital at the close of the evening service in the church last night and had a large and appreciative audience. The chief number in the programme was Arthur Somerrell's symphony, "Killed in Action."

The C. S. E. T. annual tests were undertaken by four Taxis groups on the N. B. C. A. F. on Saturday evening. Following a meeting which was addressed by L. A. Buckley, national Boys' Work secretary. The tests consisted of the high jump, the standing broad jump, the three-boy and five-boy potato races.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Anderson will celebrate today their fortieth wedding anniversary in their home at St. Martin's. It is anticipated that there will be a large number of visitors calling upon them to offer congratulations. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson are enjoying fairly good health and are looking forward to taking a three months' automobile trip with their chauffeur this summer through Nova Scotia and New Brunswick.

LORENZ PRAISES AMERICA.

Surgeon Says He Went There in Gratitude and is Satisfied.

Have, April 24—"I went to America solely for the purpose of expressing my gratitude of the Austrians and Viennese for the relief work of the Americans in Austria. I feel my end has been accomplished." Dr. Lorenz, the Austrian surgeon, made this statement on his arrival from New York. He had nothing but praise for his American colleagues in the medical world and attributed certain "disagreeable incidents" not to "professional but to political feeling."

TACKS STREWN IN PAWTUCKET VALLEY

Providence, R. I., April 23—The close of the thirteenth week of the Rhode Island and textile strike found all the mill centres quiet. At Crompton, the Pawtucket Valley, discovery has been made of large quantities of inch long tacks strewn about the highways, apparently for the purpose of disabling the mounts of the cavalrymen of the National Guard that are on strike duty there. The military authorities are making a rigid investigation.

OIL STRIKE REPORTED.

Vera Cruz, April 24.—Oil has been struck near San Cristobal, in the southern part of the state, where gas was recently reported discovered, says a message received here. Many persons are leaving for the region in the belief that an extensive field is about to be developed.
