"THIS CHILD WILL LEAD ME" SAID CARDINAL

Mgr. Gibbons Makes Lone Journey Afoot to Grave of Bishop Van De Vyver

Richmond, Va., Oct. 21.—(Canadian Press)—Hand in hand with an 18-year-old boy, Cardinal Gibbons, forsaking his vestments for the frock coat and silk hat of private life, walked the mile from the Sacred Heart Cathedral yesterday to Mount Calvary cemetery, where Bishop Van De Vyver was buried. The aged cardinal stepped aside after celebrating the high requiem mass in the cathedral and in a side room removed his vestments. Father Bowler, the vicar general of the diocese, and Father McGri, the chancellor, saw him going quietly out of a poster door and found him just as he and the lad had agreed to go to the cemetery on foot.

They entreated him to take the carriage awaiting him. They said the thousands of people within and without the church would be distressed to see their venerable cardinal afoot. The cardinal smiled. "My heart is heavy," he said, "and I need the exercise. This child will lead me," and they walked away hand in hand, leaving the priests and by-standers in perplexity.

ST. JOHN MEN HOME, TALK OF THE WORLD BASEBALL GAMES

Blame Snodgrass for the Spiking of Baker—The Latter's Home Run—Hundreds of Hats Lost in Excitement

Tommy Reynolds, a popular Royal Hotel clerk, arrived home this morning from New York where he had been attending the championship series between the Philadelphia Athletics and the New York Giants. John Snodgrass also returned home today. Both were greatly pleased with the games they saw and praised the playing of the Athletics. They were at Tuesday's eleven inning game and saw the play in which Baker was injured by Snodgrass' spikes.

Both say that Snodgrass was entirely at fault and that the crowd roared and hissed him. He deliberately jumped at Baker, they say, and wore one of his legs quite badly. "The most exciting play of the whole game," said Mr. Reynolds, was when Baker walked the ball for a home run in the ninth inning, making the score tie. Nearly everyone in the grand stands roared and cheered the third baseman as he rounded around the circuit. Hats were thrown in the air, and after the game you could see hundreds of people leaving the grounds without their hats, having thrown them away in their excitement.

"From then on to the end of the game the excitement was intense, and every goal play was loudly cheered. The Athletics seemed to be the favorites and they were given a great ovation when they won the night long the Philadelphia and New York roared merry in the metropolis. The Athletics left for home almost immediately after the game. Coombs seemed to be a great favorite with the fans, and he was loudly cheered for his good work. The police had a great time looking after ticket scalpers and there were many of them arrested. Hours before the gates were opened the streets were blocked with people waiting to secure tickets, and some of them remained in line all night long.

"We saw many St. John people in Boston and New York, including Chief Kerr, Harry Ervin, S. P. Gerow, and W. Sterling."

"If I had it to do," quoth Hon. Thomas, "it would not have been as it is, but Mr. Borden has surrounded himself with some, at least, very good men. I can sympathize with him."

A SMOKER. Supporters of the local government will hold a smoker at Mayall's on the Loch Leonard Road on Wednesday evening next.

NO CAUSE TO WORRY

EARL GREY CONTINUES BOOSTER FOR CANADA

Address in Liverpool Yesterday—May Want to Come Back For Winter Visit

(Canadian Press) Liverpool, Oct. 21.—Earl Grey, continues to be a booster for Canada. Arriving here yesterday, he was tendered an official reception, and told his hearers that it was impossible to be too sanguine as to the future development of Canada.

"I am glad to be back in England after seven eventful years," he said. "They have been seven happy years in the land of open sunshine, and although glad to be back among those who are carrying practically single handed, the whole burden of the British Empire. I confess I was sorry to leave the dominion. As to the Canadian climate, I can only say I thoroughly enjoyed it, whether in summer or winter, and I am not sure that before the present winter is over, I shall not wish to be in Canada again."

Earl Grey agreed that the Canadian census returns did not show, as had been too hastily assumed in some quarters, that Canada had had a set back. The increase in population was a substantial one.

GREAT GROWTH OF THE MEMBERSHIP

Y. M. C. A. Has Increased From 41 to Nearly 800 in Three Years—A Word as to The Work

The Young Men's Christian Association has entered actively upon its fourth season in the new building. From a membership of forty-one three years ago the membership has grown until it is now between 750 and 800. This season's work, open with new enthusiasm, and there is every indication that this will be the best season yet.

The association stands for the development of the whole man and the various agencies aid men in the symmetrical development along the lines of their social, physical, and mental sides. The association membership is open to any young man of good moral character, and all denominations are now represented.

Along the social side greater interest is being taken than ever before. The reception and game rooms are being very largely patronized and the cheerful open fire is very attractive on chilly evenings. The old game of ping pong has this year been under the able direction of the late national S. S. lessons is being conducted by Rev. R. P. McKim on Saturday afternoons. A special class for Sunday school teachers of the city is being conducted by Rev. R. P. McKim on Saturday afternoons. Socials will be held during the evening of each week by W. M. Kingston who is considered one of the best Bible class teachers in the city. Group Bible classes will also be held during the week for any young men who desire to enter under the able direction of Lesing Bandlow who has recently come to the city, and who has had large experience in physical training in other associations.

Mr. Bandlow's engagement has already been justified by the manner in which he has taken hold of his class work and he is fast becoming a favorite of the men and boys. Gymnasium classes are being held for business men in the afternoon, young men over eighteen, and intermediate from fourteen to eighteen in the evenings, and for school boys in three groups in the afternoon and on Saturday mornings. Special attention will be given this season to swimming instruction, and special physical and medical examination will be given free to all members.

The boys' department this year is under the supervision of A. R. Pixley who has had special training for this work and who is a graduate of the Y. M. C. A. training school in Springfield, Mass. Elaborate plans have been made for the various departments of the work for boys and every attention will be given to the boys from thirteen to eighteen. A membership contest in the boys' department is on. The prize is a trip to Digby. There are also basket ball, trolley ball and football leagues in operation.

FIGHTING IN THREE PLACES IS REPORTED

Martial Law Has Been Declared in Several Cities in China

(Canadian Press) London, Oct. 21.—Special despatches received here from Shanghai report that there is fighting at Hankow, Han Yang and Tschang. Martial law was declared in all three cities, but the rebels were able to maintain only partial order. At Hankow several looters were shot. At Han Yang both rioting and looting were indulged in. According to the despatches the last reports arriving at Shanghai say that the rebels have thrown formidable earthworks on the hill of Han Yang. A majority of the natives of Shanghai, as well as many foreigners, sympathize with the rebels and the despatches say that when a placard announcing an imperial victory at Hankow was posted at a native newspaper office, the Chinese broke the windows in the building. A cablegram from KiuKiang sent by a correspondent who witnessed Thursday's fighting, says the casualties there were slight, but that immense fires were started by burning shells.

A despatch from Peking says that Yuan Shi Kai's preparations to put down the rebellion are almost complete. He has called many of his trusted officials to his aid, and has already mobilized all the Yang Tse provinces and is sending brigades to form cordons in Hu-Hu and Szech Chen provinces to prevent a possible scattering of the rebels.

According to these despatches, continual messages received from Tokio speak of fervent Japanese military and naval activity. This fact causes great anxiety to Londoners.

Two north end men, Henry Wheaton, and Hartley Flewelling, were boarding with Mr. Taylor at the time, while on a hunting trip in that vicinity.
