LOCAL NEWS

NEW MEMBERS. At a meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Club Mackenzie, which was held last evening, five members were added to the roll, which is now at the highest mark in the history of the organization. The auxiliary is looking forward to a busy season. Plans for the winter were discussed.

SEAMEN'S INSTITUTE. The ladies' auxiliary of the Seamen's Institute hope their friends will remember the harvest tea in the Seamen's Institute tomorrow. The following ladies will be in charge, Mrs. Schibahn, Mrs. Seymour, Mrs. McKee, Mrs. Graham, Mrs. Fletcher, Mrs. Dearness, Mrs. Rutherford, Mrs. Leitch, Mrs. Keefe, Mrs. Watt, Mrs. McLean, Mrs. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Murdoch, Mrs. Kaplan, Miss Lynch, Miss Comben, and Miss McNichol.

A PRESENTATION. George F. Menzies, who retired from the management of the White Catering Co., Ltd., on the change of ownership, received a very pleasant surprise on Saturday evening. At closing time he was greeted by a gathering of the entire staff and on their behalf George H. Thompson, the chef, expressed the deep regret they felt at the severing of their relations and assured him that, in leaving, he carried with him their best wishes. Their sentiments were also expressed in a more lasting way by the presentation of a very handsome gold mounted silk umbrella, bearing his initials in monogram on the handle. Mr. Menzies acknowledged the gift with deep feeling. He had been completely surprised by this evidence of the good will of those with whom he had been associated.

ST. MARY'S HARVEST SUPPER. The ladies having charge of the harvest supper in St. Mary's church school room tomorrow evening have practically finished the work of decorating and arranging for the event which is expected to prove decidedly attractive. The supper tables will be attended by the following ladies—Mesdames Wallace, McLaughlin, Selridge, S. H. Givan, W. R. Irving, F. L. Foley, L. Ekebrecht, H. B. Coleman, P. Simpson, J. Knowles, F. Osborne, Leonard, Crilly, Finney, Ellison, J. Lane, and N. Lane, and Misses Wilson, E. Mann, Ekebrecht, Foley, M. Mann, Brundage, Garnett, W. Raymond, F. Coleman, H. Coleman, M. Sullivan, M. Lane, Mrs. Mann, Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Farnham. In the serving room will be: Mrs. R. Dose and Misses Donohoe and Patten. While the tea and coffee will be attended to by Mesdames E. Barton, E. V. Wetmore, and R. J. Sullivan, Mrs. E. Wright, Mrs. H. J. Barton, and Mrs. Raymond will have charge of the tea cream and candy booth. A pleasing programme of musical and literary numbers will be given after the supper.

STORE BROKEN INTO. Moncton Police Seek Leger's Corner Burglars—Hockey Plans. Moncton, N. B., Nov. 13 (Special)—The store of Simon Leblanc, of Leger's Corner, was broken into last night and a large quantity of merchandise stolen. The window through which the thieves effected entrance was taken out and found on the ground near by. There are indications that a team was used in hauling away the goods. The Moncton police are working on the case.

Plans for a good hockey league for the maritime provinces this season have finally taken definite shape. A meeting is called for Friday night in Lunenburg. So far as present plans go, Halifax will enter two teams, New Glasgow one, Stellarton one, and Moncton one. It is hoped to include Amherst.

TODAY'S POLICE COURT

William Hanley, charged with being drunk and also with attempting to enter J. Royden Thomson's house in Germain street, yesterday, appeared before Judge Ritchie in the police court this morning and after the evidence of Policeman Marshall, who made the arrest, was taken, was remanded to jail. Hanley pleaded guilty to being drunk, but not guilty to the attempt to enter charge.

It appears that he had been hanging around the house the first part of the week and was bothering people. Yesterday afternoon, it is charged, that he tried to force his way into the house. The police were telephoned for and he was later arrested. The case will be brought up again either tomorrow or Friday.

William Oram and John Armstrong were each fined $8 or thirty days in jail, on the charge of drunkenness, while Kenneth Forbes and William Rankine got off with $4 fines for like offences. Mary Watts, was remanded to jail on a like charge.

The case against Robert Tucker, charged with being the proprietor of a house of ill repute in St. John's street, and Kate Barrington and Mary Hanson, charged with being inmates, was resumed today. Policeman Marshall and Acting Sergeant Rose, told of the reputation of the house and of the people. The charge of stealing a watch from Olaf Lund, which was also made against the Hanson women, will probably not be pressed. All three were further remanded to jail.

John Glynn and Alexander Watson pleaded guilty to going beyond the stand allotted for coaches at the Union Depot on Sunday last. William Givan and Murray Northrup were also reported, but they did not appear. Phillip Troskey, a young Jewish lad, was also reported, but he said that he was not a huckster. Glynn and Watson were each fined $2 but the fines were allowed to stand.

WEDDING BELLS RINGING TODAY

Three Marriages Solemnized in City This Morning—Two in S. Peter's Church

A wedding of much popular interest was solemnized this morning in St. Peter's church, North End, when two favorite young people, Clement T. Murphy, son of Michael Murphy, and Miss Mary C. McNamara, daughter of Mrs. A. McNamara, were united in marriage with solemn nuptial mass by Rev. E. Holland, C.S.S.R., assisted by Rev. J. H. Borgmann, C.S.S.R., as deacon and Rev. F. O'Regan, C.S.S.R., as sub-deacon. John McNamara, brother of the bride, gave her in marriage. She wore a lovely costume of cream with satin and pearl trimmings, and wore a very becoming white beaver hat with ostrich plumes, and carried a white prayer-book. Her sister, Miss Gertrude, as bridesmaid, was gowned in a neat suit of blue with a pretty hat of the same shade, and also carried a white prayer-book. Joseph Dryden supported the groom.

Following the ceremony, a tempting wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride, 469 Chesley street, at which those present were the immediate relatives and close friends of the bride and groom. They were very popular with a wide circle of friends and they were the recipients of many handsome and valuable wedding remembrances of silverware, cut-glass, and other costly gifts, among which were a magnificent vase and parlor cabinet from the fellow employees of the groom in the N. B. Telephone Co., where Mr. Murphy is a valued member of the office staff. A beautiful diamond brooch was the groom's present to the bride, while the bridesmaid received from him a valuable gold bracelet and the groomsmen a pretty scarf-pin. Mr. and Mrs. Murphy will make their home at 282 Main street. Their friends in North End and the city as well will wish them all prosperity and happiness.

Another interesting wedding ceremony was performed this morning in St. Peter's church, when Joseph E. Danaber and Miss Margaret E. Prince were united in marriage by Rev. A. J. Daley, C.S.S.R. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. John Gibbons. They have the best wishes of many friends in their married life. Miss Prince was charmingly gowned in white cologne over white with Irish point lace and pearl trimmings. She wore a black picture hat with willow plumes. The bridesmaid, Mrs. Gibbons, was also attired in white and wore a large black hat.

A nuptial breakfast at the home of the bride, 174 Adelaide street, followed the ceremony, and Mr. and Mrs. Danaber, left on a honeymoon trip to Boston and New York and other places in the United States. They were well remembered by their friends with presents of cut glass, silverware and other useful souvenirs, among which were a handsome clock from the groom's fellow employees with A. Gilmore, and a beautifully embroidered linen spread from the bride's friends. The department of Macaulay Bros. & Co., where the bride was employed. Her associates there on Monday evening called on her and gave her a pleasant surprise by presenting to her a shower of novelties. Mr. and Mrs. Danaber will board until spring, when they will start house-keeping.

In Lenten's Baptist church this morning a pretty wedding was solemnized by the pastor, Rev. W. Camp, when he officiated at the marriage of Robert John McAfee, a well known farmer of Red Head, and Miss Dorothy L. Price, of Belle Lake Creek. The bride, who was prettily attired in a traveling suit of blue broadcloth, with a hat to correspond, and wore a Persian lace and veil, was given in marriage by Dr. H. B. Fritz. Immediately after the wedding, which was performed at six o'clock, Mr. and Mrs. McAfee boarded the Boston train for a honeymoon trip to Boston, New York, and other cities in the states, returning via an upper Canadian route. They will make their home at Red Head.

THE CLARK CASE THIS AFTERNOON

Consultation With His Counsel, G. W. Fowler in Court This Morning

The preliminary hearing in the case of the Bank of New Brunswick vs. Harry B. Clark, was begun in the police court this afternoon at half past two o'clock. It was expected that the court room would be crowded, as many calls were made this morning to find out what time the hearing would start. Clark was brought into court this morning at eleven o'clock in order to consult with his counsel, G. W. Fowler, K. C., of Sussex, who arrived in the city this morning. The prisoner's father and mother also arrived in town today and had a consultation with their son in the jail. The father was also present when lawyer and client were together in the police court. Clark looked pale, the meeting with his parents evidently having affected him.

FIRST FREIGHT HERE

C. P. R. Receives Grain and Other Products—Rush Soon

The first of the western freight for shipment from Sand Point during the winter port season has arrived at West St. John. The arrivals include quantities of grain and other products. There is now on hand at Montreal more freight than the remaining stowagers there can carry away and it is expected that the officials will commence immediately to divert the shipments to this port.

Everything is ready in Carleton for the opening of the season, as far as the Canadian Pacific Railway can make ready, and business will start with a rush in a very short time. SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHERS. The Church of England Sunday School Teachers' Association met in the school room of St. James' church last night. Rev. G. A. Kulbring presided, and there was a good attendance. A very interesting paper on the Light and Shadow of a Teacher's Life, was read by Miss Barlow and was well received. A general discussion followed.
