VICTORIA SQUARE A SAD MIS-NOMER, IT NEEDS ATTENTION

Public Dump, Nothing More or Less, in the Heart of a Residential Section

In answer to queries on the subject it may be said that "Victoria Square" is in Indiantown, a large plot of ground bordered on one side by the Alexandra School building and on each of the three other sides by homes of respectable residents and taxpayers of the city, and in the way of further explanation, it might be said that the spot in question is generally the playground of scores of little children attending the school or living in the vicinity.

No, it is not exactly a breathing place recommended by physicians, neither is it a trying place on moonlight nights after a warm sun has performed its work on the substances collected about, and it could hardly be called a place of beauty nor an attractive spot for a mid-day rest or an afternoon stroll which are usually features of a public square or park grounds. In short, it is neither more or less, despite the high-sounding but empty title, "Victoria Square" than a public dumping ground.

The place has been an eyesore to the residents for many years, but each succeeding year, despite aldermanic promises, etc., has witnessed nothing in the way of removal of the objectionable features, and still a certain interest to those who have a superfluous quantity of decayed fruit, vegetable matter, the output of back-yard kitchens, and other things as are generally employed in decorating the playgrounds of little children, or the beauty spot of a residential neighborhood.

Oh, yes, there are signs, "No Dump," in evidence, but these only add to the satisfaction experienced by the grocer's boy in thinking he has over-reached somebody when he manages to deposit a load of stale or decayed matter in the so-called "Victoria Square."

The signs have been the only ornamentation placed there by the city for a couple of years or more, and those of them which are not buried in a bed of waste material have become more or less of a joke to those who have spent money and time in building homes in the vicinity and who are trying to improve their appearance. The people of the vicinity feel strongly that it is time to act, that there should certainly be something done to remove this menace to the health and have established a place which shall be worthy of the name "Victoria Square" now applied to a public dump. The place would hardly appeal to present citizens as a desirable one to show their friends and relatives who are coming for "Old-time Nova Scotia" as an emblem of the progress which has marked the city, or a feature of attractiveness or beauty. Even a little grassed night work would.

CRYING NEED FOR A LOCAL SANITARIUM

An Instance Which Shows The Reason For Strong Agitation—Delegation to Municipal Council

Several citizens, including ladies, who are personally familiar with conditions, have called up the Times urging that the agitation in favor of a local sanitarium be kept up and made more general and determined until action is taken by the authorities.

Here is a typical case—A woman who living in a wretched home is a victim of tuberculosis. She and two children sleep in one bed at night, and the husband works at night, sleeps in the same bed in the day-time. There is no home to which the woman could be taken, there is apparently no authority which could remove the children. That such conditions exist, said one lady to the Times, is a disgrace to the city. And there are other cases quite as bad. A strong delegation will wait upon the municipal council next week and plead for the removal of this disgrace.

Two boys moved and seconded a vote of thanks to the Women's Canadian Club, coupled with a request that the series of addresses be resumed in the autumn. MR. PINDER'S RAILWAY.

Frederickton Mail—The Tories in the legislature nearly threw a fit when the old government guaranteed the bonds of the International Railway, a high class road running from Campbellton to St. Leonard's a distance of 88.000 miles. The present administration has guaranteed the bonds of Mr. Pinder's little railway to the extent of $10,000 a mile and were compelled to confess in the legislature last session in reply to opposition questions that they had no information as to the cost per mile or character of the rails being used. As a sound business man the administration the Pender government is certainly a wonder.
