

- A.54. Well I phoned you that I was at the Adjutant's office and stated I had lost my wallet and that it required my presence to try to clear up the matter.
- Q.55. Do you remember asking me a question that morning?
- A.55. Yes sir.
- Q.56. What was the question?
- A.56. If you had seen my wallet.
- Q.57. Did you ask anybody else the same question that morning?
- A.57. Yes.
- Q.58. Who?
- A.58. My room-mate.
- Q.59. And that is --?
- A.59. Lieut. George H. Murray.
- Q.60. That was approximately what time?
- A.60. I asked him about it after I reported down to the company after ten o'clock.

RE-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR

- Q.61. Mr. Wood you stated in answer to a question of the Defending Officer that you had counted your money about supper time on the 16th December 43?
- A.61. That's correct sir.
- Q.62. And your testimony as to the contents in bills is based on your count made then?
- A.62. That's right sir. I changed some money at the time and that is why I remember.
- Q.63. Did you spend any money in the course of the evening?
- A.63. No sir.

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT

- Q.64. How long had Pte. Lilley been your batman prior to this morning?
- A.64. Approximately about three weeks sir, I believe.
- Q.65. About three weeks?
- A.65. Yes sir.
- Q.66. Who customarily changes the bed linen on your beds?
- A.66. The batmen do sir.
- Q.67. That is part of their duties is it?
- A.67. Yes sir.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY
TO COMPLY WITH R.P. 83 (B).

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS.
