A SUCCESSFUL CONDUCTOR.

Alcohol. The question of, "What is the cause success of Virmoan Bry-r is, that they remove, and the patient recovery are the great bleed ving principle, s perfect igorator of the system. history of the world has compounded possessing ities of VINEGAR BITTERS of every disease man is of every disease men is a gentle Purgative as joy good health, let take these Bitters ions, and remain long icir bones are not depoison or other means sted beyond repair. ands proclaim VINBOAT inderful Invigorant the inking system.

tent, and Intermit rivers throughout the cially those of the Mis-inflammations, Indolent reurial Affections, Old I the Skin, Sore Eyes, as in all other constitu-LKER'S VINEGAR BEFFE and Chronic dose of WALKER

es, Spots, Pimples, Pms. cles, Ringwerms, Scale rysipelas, Itch, Scurs, he Skin, Humors and in of whatever name or otlier Worms, lurk-

The St. Andrews Standard.

Published by A. W. Smith.)

E VARIIS SUMENDAM EST OPTIMUM .- Cic.

($2.50 per Annum in Advance

No. 27.

Saint Andrews, New Brunswick, July 4, 1877.

Vol. 44.

POETRY.

MY LOVE AND I.

I find it sweet to think of her, Who seldom thinks perchance of me For many lovers find her fair.

I find it sweet to think of her. For thought by day brings dreams by night, Or shadow my supreme delight.

I find it sweet to think of her, And of her words I found so sweet. And like a charm to full my care, My lips their music still repeat.

I find it sweet to thinksof her, Whose gracious praises makes me strong, To win the crown that poets wear, Whose love and passion speak in song

I find it sweet to think of her, And, through the ashen autumn days, A sense a peace prevades the air,

I find it sweet to think of her, And though my heart may haply break The pain were sweet for her sweet sake.

I find it sweet to think of her, Who sometimes thinks, perchance Though many lovers find her fair, And many rivers seek the sea. -J. B. Eastwood, in Tinsley's Magazin

"The Past behind Christ with us.

Behind! the throbs of pain and passion In front! the Mansions gleaming light, -Behind, the world, its pomp and fashion, In front, the Angels robed in white.

Christ with us, standing by our side, The past, we loave behind. Though earthly joys, may from us glide, The mansions we shall find.

The past behind, its sins and sorrows. We lay them all at Jesus feet. Bright looms the everlasting morrew, Christ with us makes our life complete. St. Andrews.

A NOVEL ADVENTURE.

ers of a moose which was swimming the lake. The moose was making for a small he pointed out that if Lord Do Mauley island, when they put two guides into one of would study a map on the scale of the Ordtheir boats. Thus they managed to reach the opposite side of the island just as he entered deserts and mountain chains covering vast the water. Catching the swimmer they tethered him by the painter to the boat and sig. nalled the others, when the whole fleet was som up and in tow. The moose made desperate efforts to land, but by skilful rowing they kept him on the course, and at smart speed Derby's speeches at the banquet of the he towed the boats five miles to the foot of the Merchant Taylors' Company, the Time lake. Here he got on his feet, and after an remarks that Lord Sallsbury did well in hour of ineffectual effort to bring him to a landing place, the rope was cut and he made the Lest time on record for the mountains. The moose law saved the noble fellows life. - Lowis-

SWEET HOME-There no place like that the road to India is in danger. Be Lome," quoted a Rockland man, the other cause if Russia could spend ton millions the evening paper. But it was not long be ulative future construct a railway to the fore two of the boys got into a big fight head of the inlet. The same simple proover a game of checkers and were both cess would speedily test the value of the effectually warmed with a spars the girls assumption that the Russians are on the began an animated jawing over the respec- high road to the Suez Canal because they tive morits of their beaus, and were sent to are in Armenia. It is inexpressibly satisbed, while the Rockland man in indeavor- factory to find here that the Government ing to seperate the dog and cat in a san in the words of Lord Sailsbury, don't mis pulnary conflict, was severely scantched by take panic for real danger, or phantoms the feline, and then scolded by has wife for for realities. Lord Derby who paid a deupsetting a flowerpot in the melec. He served compliment to the "admirable ar now spends his evenings down street.

ly embraced her, saying, "My dear, if you'd BRITISH INTERESTS. The Times observes that on Monday the subject of "British Interests" was discussed n three remarkable Ministerial speeches. from the progress of Rassia in Asia, which people of England are advised in the ac. and it is much to be hoped that they may and women and children were struggling s peculiarly interesting just now, and cepted phraseology, to be calm, expectant; succeed in adding this rare and interesting in the water. On the crest of a precipitous which the events in Armenia promises to ready to defend their interests and honour, make still more important by-and-by, and "to shut the stable door when the steed Athenorum. There are two ways of treating her adrance, and both were admirably represented in the House of Lords on Monday night; which does not defend British interests A letter from Des Moines, Iowa, to the lady never faltered. ed in the House of Lords on Monday night.

The one is to pay extravagant compliments to the power, the perseverance, the ly spoke the truth. Whether the Indian of a large number of conductors on the large full speed, and reaching the shore, spurred for horse into the boiling surf. There Machiavellian subtley, and that all but Secretary by his two speeches has increased the confidence of his own party in his "Spatters" have been employed for some splendid pluck she dashed through them satance periody with which Russia is pressing forward to the gates of India; the other method is to study their Asiatic conquests with perfect calmness as a series of the conductors of the will be dearer than The letter mentions no names. The following them and reached the boat, to which the affrighted women and children were clinging. quests with perfect calanness as a series partly of interesting geographical facts, and partly of such political changes as have happened in Europe within the last dozen verra. The temper of basis was lozen years. The temper of panic was designed or not, while they stimulate Rus- an officer of the law appeared and arrested boat. She plunged into the breakers again designed or not, while they stimulate has an omeer of the law appeared as a special familiar by Lord Sailsbury. We are all familiar be standard observes:—Rassia, as and chain, which was seized and taken those who remained on the wreck, the beautiful family has been in the special plant. The Standard observes:—Rassia, as and chain, which was seized and taken those who remained on the wreck, the beautiful family house. with the visions of imporial doom which Lord Sailsbury reminds us, is still a long-from him. He was escorted to his house, Lord De Mauley stated as laboriously as it way off from the Indian frontier, although they had never been heard of before—is is true she has lessened the distance conis is true she has lessened the distance con-Peter the great had his eye en India, and siderably of late years. Whatever her were taken. He was next asked if he left word in his fabalous will that his peothe deserts of Turkestan. In obedience to designs are unworthy of the notice of the an affirmative answer. An eastern bank his decree, they have been annexing countries as large as France. Even the present no practical good in this perpetual refer- bonds would be furnished $99,000, if necespeacful Emperor has conquered Turkestan, ence to them in connection with the pressury, as that was the amount deposited to Khokand, and Khiva. He is also planting enter to them in connection with the present there. The railroad official railways to connect his European dominions with the farthest point of his Asiatic when the time comes for doing so. Mean-opened his eyes, and smiled over the bon while it is sufficient that our stritude is one anza he had struck in the company's favor. conquests. Let him only make a line of while it is summent that our returned is one. This settled, it was next the conductor's rails from the south of the Caspian Sea to Herat, and his power will be brought to a place which has been called the "Key of solution and the set of the Caspian Sea to Asia and the people of India, that we are turn. A lawyer was called in, who politerally and the people of the set is not a second to the second to t place which has been called the "Key of us in this direction. India." Let him improve the navigation of the Oxus, and he will be "within a fort-point to our eastern frontier.

Referring to Lord Sailsbury's and Lord advising his audience, when they hear that british interests are niready menaced to cross examine the retailer of the panic would quickly dispose of the 'suppositio.

night's march" of our Eastern Empire. have a Consal in Kasngar, Lord Sansbury before he went into the employ of the com. whereupon they bolted. Mr. Birking then What then does Lord De Mauley propose a Consul wherever their is legitimate need pany; the United States Government bonds remarked: 'Stop a moment; I want to to do? To annex Afghanistan or occupy and sphere for the regular business of such they not declare war? Not at all. He an official; but we cannot secure "the ter-wife, as proceeds of her share in an estate to comply with the request. Mr. Barkins are official; but we cannot secure "the ter-wife, as proceeds of her share in an estate to comply with the request. Mr. Barkins are official; but we cannot secure "the ter-wife, as proceeds of her share in an estate to comply with the request. Mr. Barkins are official; but we cannot secure "the ter-wife, as proceeds of her share in an estate to comply with the request. Mr. Barkins are official; but we cannot secure "the ter-wife, as proceeds of her share in an estate to comply with the request." wants to send a Consul to some town in ritorial interests of British India," in ford as heir; as also was the money in bank, was so indignant that he fired several shots pounds a year. We shall be able to keep our minds easy. The Secretary of India control in a spirit of expiral common sense.

De Mauley's sense by sending men to Central Asia to keep their eyes upon the description of the common sense.

De Mauley's sense by sending men to Central Asia to keep their eyes upon the description would be to return that which they had valied upon to stop, but so anxious were stolen, and with it $49,000, and no further they to avoid conversation with him that eventually the selection would be sense to be a considerable por-Rangely had rare entertainment. Their heats were coming out from Cupsuptuc Lake, when the could not help thinking that a great camb to the attorney's terms. Your cor. coming out from Cupsuptue Lake, when if e could not help thinking that a great ish India, will not exactly come, like an came to the attorney's terms. Your cor. tion of their plunder. deal of apprehension was caused by the old border foray, suddenly in the midnight respondent has seen the aforesaid diamond across popular use of maps on a small scale, but hour, "by shrick and candle light." We pin; and a train man, who runs out of the nance Sarvey in England, he would find out Lord De Mauley's watch on the tower. wore that pin and carried that watch. The Morning Post says:-It may, and spaces lay between the furthest point of we trust will be that British as well Turkthe Russian conquests and the nearest!

THE GRANDFATHER OF BOOKS .- The trustees of the British Museum are in rational when be did the deed, and deserved catechising his young parishioners before A few questions asked by the light of a map treaty for the purchase of the copy of the the usual punishment for murder. He the congregation, when he put the usual largest book in the world. Towards the was acquitted nevertheless, on the plea of first question to a steat girl whose father evening, after he had removed his coat and steeling, and if we could send no fleet to ing Emperor of China appointed an Im- he was kept eight years, declaring all the No reply. The question being repeated; perial commission to reprint in one vast time that it was the duty of the state to the girl replied, "Nane o' yer fun Mr. hang him or set him free. He was next Minister; ye ken my name weel encuch. importance in every branch of literature. taken to the Westfield prison, where he D'ye no say when yo come to our house on In the beginning of the fellowing century, served an additional eighteen years, and a night, "Bet, bring me some ale?" The the commissioners completed their labors, and were able to lay before the Emperor a very palpable proof of their dilligence, in the shape of a compilation consisting of 6,109 volumes, entitled "Kin ting koo kin too shoo tseih ching," or "An Illustrated Imperial Collection of Ancient and Modern Literature." guments" of his colleague, and who point-Only a small edition was printed off in edly declared that he agreed with everythe first instance, and before long the were you going to do with the milk?" "I "O, heavens, save my wife!" shouled a thing they contained, struck a truly ration greater part of the copper types which man whose wife had fallen overtoard in the almost in saying that the greatest of all had been cast for the undertaking were Hudson River recently. They succeeded British interests is the interest of peace, purloined by untrustworthy offici 1, and in rescuing her. And her husband tender Coming immediately after the presentation the remainder were melted down and cointernment, while wat head of all real Pritish originally printed, and it is believed that every time.

interests, will not pour out the bland and only a comparatively few remain extant. the treasures of this country in defence of The Trustees of the British Musem having night-mares or chimeras.

The bravest girl in Australia is Grace Vernon Bussell. The steamer Georget's bury, the Daily Telegraph says that the tered into negotiations for its purchase, a small but had been capsized in the surf has been stolen." Lord Sailsbury asserted in dignified language that any Ministry shall be able to stand on guard in good city, informs me he ran with that conduc. time, and take care of ourselves even with- tor twenty-one years ago, and he then ish interests are perfectly secure behind | The Hartford (our ant relates the strange now petitions to be removed to an insane parson looked daggers. A boy five years of age having stolen a can of milk, his mother took him to task with moral suasion and wound up her dis course by exclaiming, "What in the world

Curious Metaphysical Problem.

insanity, but the prisoner indignantly re

was going to steal a dog to drink it." An Indiana girl at Vassar College writes to her parents: "This is the most stylish of Count Schouvaloff's letter, these speech- ed into cash. Accidents by fire and by hairpin of a boarding school that I ever I een drowned, what should I have done? es will give intense satisfaction to the violence having considerably reduced the tumbled to. I can eat four times a day if el vessel it reemed utterly impossible boat; but she clung to the sadle and brought the women and children to land. drowned half-naked folks she had left on took the horse, gallope I that night through the woods to the shore, taking ten, milk, sngar, and floor for the destitute people; and the next day the rescued were brought to Mr. Brockman's house and cared for. The anxiety and excitement proved fatal to Mrs. Prockman, who took a severe cold, and died eventually of brain fever. Grace Vernon Bussell still lives.

In reference to the speech of Land Sails. ly been offered for sale at Pekin, have en- was wrecked off the west coast, near Perth;

Mr. Charles Birking of Newark must have mond pin they had illegally taken had been a passion, for conversation. When the The Daily News remarks :- We are to worn by the conductor over twenty years; burglars enfered his sleeping room the have a Consul in Kashgar, Lord Sailsbury the watch had been carried by him years other night, they saw him setting up in bed, De Mauley's sense by sending men to Cen. The best thing the company could do at the fugitives, that they might be pre-long since, for a ride with a young lady, and desiring to blind the eyes of his housekeeper respecting his errand, very politely informed his little son that he could go too. 'No, I guess not," answered the small man in roundabout . "Why, yes, wash the Ottoman armies at present; but it is ease of William Clarke. Twenty-six years father. "Shan't do it," replied the urchin. your face and come along," persisted the none the less humiliating and alarming to ago, he was engaged to be married, but his "Why didn't you go?" questioned the lady reflect that a thin line of Ottoman soldiers girl went back on him and was about to in charge, after the father had left, "he forms the only barrier in the present crisis marry another fellow. To prevent that wished it, I think." Didn't either," rebetween our interests and the Muscovite Clarko killed her. On his trial for torted the boy, "he said in the bedroom" murder, his council setsup the plea of he'd give me ten cents if I'd stay at home.

A Scotch minister was once busy close of the seventeenth century the reign- insanity, and was remanded to jail, where kept a public house: "What is your name?" where he still remains. Since he cannot congregation, forgetting the sacredness of induce the authorities to execute him, he the place, were in a broad grin, and the

A lover in Paterson, N. J., being very affectionate and not a little drunk, carried off the handkerehief of his mother-in-law, supposing it to be that of his dearest dear. Unfortunately, the old hady had her money which made its abstraction a somewhat mportant largeny. The poor man pleaded re, liquor, and restitution, and th told him to go and be more careful next

The long sighted merchant who has I min't going to let you carry the pocket whole country by showing that the Gov number of copies of the imperial edition I want to, and get a fair back at the hash plenty of time to wander in the cow pasvasted no money in advertising, now has tures looking for greens.

-