

Miramichi and the North Shore, etc.

BAZAAR AND BASKET SOCIAL.—The members of St. Thomas Roman Catholic church, Redbank, propose holding a bazaar and basket social on August 16th, next.

EXCURSIONS.—About four hundred excursionists came by the Canada Eastern Railway from Fredericton on Tuesday to attend the Orange celebration at Moncton.

BOOK-BINDING.—Persons having magazines, or other periodicals to bind, old books to be rebound, or any similar work, can have their orders attended to at the ADVANCE office, where information as to styles, prices, etc., may be obtained.

HOME AGAIN.—The Chatham, Napan, and Riverview companies of the 72nd Battalion, who were in camp at Sussex performing annual drill, returned home on Saturday. The band, which is composed of men of No. 2 company exclusively, enlivened the town with excellent music on the arrival of the train.

PUBLIC AND EXCURSION.—Attention is directed to the annual picnic and excursion given by St. Peter's Church, Bartibog, which is announced in another column by the managing committee. The affairs with which these churches are always managed, the attractions of the place where they are held and the popularity of Rev. Father Morrissey, ensure a large patronage.

INTERESTING EVENT.—The sale of needles and fancy articles by the young ladies of the Children of Light Chapter, Guild of St. Mary and St. Paul in St. Mary's chapel grounds on Thursday next, will be an interesting and attractive event. The fair and industries young members of the Guild Chapter deserve the general patronage of the public.

A GREAT EXCURSION AND PICNIC.—That of St. Luke's Church, Chatham—is to take place on Wednesday, 27th inst., at Dacktown, some particulars of which are in our advertising columns. The arrangements that are being made warrant the promise of the committee that this will be the most enjoyable affair of the kind that has yet been held on the line of the Canada Eastern Railway.

PERSONAL.—Hon. Mr. Tweedie went to Bathurst on Tuesday morning to attend court, then to Moncton.

Dr. W. Murray of Brookville, accompanied by his daughter, is visiting Miramichi and is heartily welcomed by his many friends.

Mr. McAllister, Esq., M. P., received a public welcome home at Campbellton on Saturday, after his protracted parliamentary duties at Ottawa.

The many Miramichi friends of Mr. J. M. Davidson, of the Bank of Montreal, Hamilton, are glad to welcome him home on a summer vacation.

The Advocate says:—"Mr. J. H. Deveraux, of Aspen, Colorado, who spent last week fishing as the big hole, Seville, had most excellent sport there, capturing a number of fish."

Mr. Murray MacLennan of St. John is fishing at Tabernaue.

Mr. Stephen M. Weld of Boston is at Camp Adams.

Hon. J. B. Snowball returned from Ottawa yesterday.

Mr. Frank H. Robinson of Fredericton, was at the Adams House on Sunday. He left for Albert County on Monday.

The Dairying Interest.—Mr. Hubbard, dairy commissioner, who is lecturing in the different parishes of the County under the auspices of the provincial government, was at Napan on Saturday night, when preliminary steps were taken for the formation of a Dairying Association. A committee was appointed to ascertain the feeling of the farmers of the district generally in reference to the proposed organization and another meeting is soon to be held to receive their report.

On Monday evening an excellent meeting was held at Bay du Vin, which was presided over by Mr. J. B. Williston and well attended.

A similar meeting was held at Nelson on Tuesday evening in the public hall.

Last evening Mr. Hubbard spoke at Whiteville, Tuesday night. He will be at Redbank, tomorrow at Tabernaue, on Saturday at Millerton, Monday at Blackville, Tuesday at Dacktown and Wednesday at Boistown. The meetings in each place begin at 8 p. m.

Prohibitory Alliance.—A meeting of Northumberland Prohibitory Alliance, which body excludes the representatives of the ADVANCE from its meetings, was held in Chatham last Wednesday. Owing to its course towards this paper we are not in a position to give a report of the proceedings.

Another Victim of Scott Act Rum.—Another victim to the illegal sale of liquor in this vicinity, has been hurried to the grave, which makes the third that is known of within a year. We wonder whether the alleged trader would have made any difference in this unfortunate seaman getting drunk and thereby losing his life. It appears that a party of seven men, belonging to the Algoma, including at Sergeant's mill wharf, were over to Newcastle on Wednesday evening and returned to the other side in the ferry boat, Mr. Russell objecting to those who were apparently drunk being carried on board unless they were carried on the shore.

The three men were carried on to the shore and an effort was made to secure them without effect, and then they were left. On a subsequent trip, the last one, Mr. Russell endeavored to arouse the one man still lying on the shore, but without success. The man, John Blackwell by name, must have been carried on board, as he was there just before that, and walked down the slip into the water, where the body was discovered at low water on the following day.

An inquest was held on Thursday, July 7th before Dr. Demond, coroner, and the jury, who decided, and the following verdict rendered:—

That the said man, John Blackwell, was drowned while under the influence of liquor, and that said John Blackwell had no marks of violence on his body.—Advocate.

A Former Chatham Pastor on the War Path.—At the conclusion of his sermon in the Carleton Methodist church, Sunday evening, Rev. J. S. Crisp said it was the last time he would address them as their pastor; it was perhaps necessary that he should say a few words, although he did not know that he could say anything of interest from that side by their pastors during the past twenty-five years. After some further references to former ministers, Mr. Crisp touched upon the troubles which have recently occurred in the church. A few people, he said, were responsible for all that had happened and no matter how much the minister was liked by the congregation as a whole, he had to go because of these people. Continuing Rev. Mr. Crisp said they had made the life of the minister's wife a veritable hell on earth and that there were some members of the congregation who if exchanged for conscripts from Dorchester penitentiary the church would get the best of the bargain.—St. John Globe, 11th.

Scott Act.—DEAR SIR.—Allow me through your columns, to say a few words in reference to a letter which appeared in a recent number of your paper over the signature of W. S. Brown.

Mr. Brown says:—"We have certainly given it (the C. T. A.) a fair trial, and it has proved a humbug, and worse than a humbug." Such words coming from one who is so well known to be an embodiment of wisdom, and an intellectual giant, cannot but have their weight. Had Mr. Brown remained silent, the subject of repeal, the temperance people might have hoped for victory; but since the ex-inspector, a renowned orator, and one who has been brought to the feet of the people, is coming forth and entering into the campaign, in behalf of the repeal, with the fierceness of a lion robbed of his whelps, of course the temperance people must give up as beaten.

I have read many an article which has unmasked the writer, but never did I read one which more clearly revealed the fact that the writer had sunk so far beneath the level of the nation as to become a disgrace to civilized humanity.

Mr. Brown, when inspector did not give the C. T. A. is the County of Northumberland, and a fair trial. When he says this, it is a statement about a thing of which he is ignorant. To the credit of Mr. Brown be it said that in some places he did give it a fair trial, and in many other places, he did not. In Rogersville, for instance, he gave it a fair trial, which resulted in closing the rumshops; but he did not give it a fair trial in the towns, and in many other places, where the county did not have a chance to prove the law. Mr. Brown's argument, to the time of his dismissal was that the "temperance people" would not assist him in carrying out the law, but in his letter, he found many who gave him the needed help to enable him to give it a fair trial. I would like to ask Mr. Brown how many such persons he has met since he has been dismissed? He can only say, that it is a pity Mr. Brown did not resign his position when he found the Scott Act to be a failure, and thus preserve his good name.

"Not only, says he, is the Scott Act a 'failure' but a 'curse'." More especially, I suppose, he feels it has been a curse to him, because he has had to forsake the path of virtue, and to cease to walk in his integrity. But if current reports, and statements of rumblers, be true, this law has been a blessing to the north, by the way, both of which have been made before many witnesses. We can only say, that it is a pity Mr. Brown did not resign his position when he found the Scott Act to be a failure, and thus preserve his good name.

"Not only, says he, is the Scott Act a 'failure' but a 'curse'." More especially, I suppose, he feels it has been a curse to him, because he has had to forsake the path of virtue, and to cease to walk in his integrity. But if current reports, and statements of rumblers, be true, this law has been a blessing to the north, by the way, both of which have been made before many witnesses. We can only say, that it is a pity Mr. Brown did not resign his position when he found the Scott Act to be a failure, and thus preserve his good name.

"Not only, says he, is the Scott Act a 'failure' but a 'curse'." More especially, I suppose, he feels it has been a curse to him, because he has had to forsake the path of virtue, and to cease to walk in his integrity. But if current reports, and statements of rumblers, be true, this law has been a blessing to the north, by the way, both of which have been made before many witnesses. We can only say, that it is a pity Mr. Brown did not resign his position when he found the Scott Act to be a failure, and thus preserve his good name.

"Not only, says he, is the Scott Act a 'failure' but a 'curse'." More especially, I suppose, he feels it has been a curse to him, because he has had to forsake the path of virtue, and to cease to walk in his integrity. But if current reports, and statements of rumblers, be true, this law has been a blessing to the north, by the way, both of which have been made before many witnesses. We can only say, that it is a pity Mr. Brown did not resign his position when he found the Scott Act to be a failure, and thus preserve his good name.

"Not only, says he, is the Scott Act a 'failure' but a 'curse'." More especially, I suppose, he feels it has been a curse to him, because he has had to forsake the path of virtue, and to cease to walk in his integrity. But if current reports, and statements of rumblers, be true, this law has been a blessing to the north, by the way, both of which have been made before many witnesses. We can only say, that it is a pity Mr. Brown did not resign his position when he found the Scott Act to be a failure, and thus preserve his good name.

"Not only, says he, is the Scott Act a 'failure' but a 'curse'." More especially, I suppose, he feels it has been a curse to him, because he has had to forsake the path of virtue, and to cease to walk in his integrity. But if current reports, and statements of rumblers, be true, this law has been a blessing to the north, by the way, both of which have been made before many witnesses. We can only say, that it is a pity Mr. Brown did not resign his position when he found the Scott Act to be a failure, and thus preserve his good name.

"Not only, says he, is the Scott Act a 'failure' but a 'curse'." More especially, I suppose, he feels it has been a curse to him, because he has had to forsake the path of virtue, and to cease to walk in his integrity. But if current reports, and statements of rumblers, be true, this law has been a blessing to the north, by the way, both of which have been made before many witnesses. We can only say, that it is a pity Mr. Brown did not resign his position when he found the Scott Act to be a failure, and thus preserve his good name.

"Not only, says he, is the Scott Act a 'failure' but a 'curse'." More especially, I suppose, he feels it has been a curse to him, because he has had to forsake the path of virtue, and to cease to walk in his integrity. But if current reports, and statements of rumblers, be true, this law has been a blessing to the north, by the way, both of which have been made before many witnesses. We can only say, that it is a pity Mr. Brown did not resign his position when he found the Scott Act to be a failure, and thus preserve his good name.

"Not only, says he, is the Scott Act a 'failure' but a 'curse'." More especially, I suppose, he feels it has been a curse to him, because he has had to forsake the path of virtue, and to cease to walk in his integrity. But if current reports, and statements of rumblers, be true, this law has been a blessing to the north, by the way, both of which have been made before many witnesses. We can only say, that it is a pity Mr. Brown did not resign his position when he found the Scott Act to be a failure, and thus preserve his good name.

"Not only, says he, is the Scott Act a 'failure' but a 'curse'." More especially, I suppose, he feels it has been a curse to him, because he has had to forsake the path of virtue, and to cease to walk in his integrity. But if current reports, and statements of rumblers, be true, this law has been a blessing to the north, by the way, both of which have been made before many witnesses. We can only say, that it is a pity Mr. Brown did not resign his position when he found the Scott Act to be a failure, and thus preserve his good name.

"Not only, says he, is the Scott Act a 'failure' but a 'curse'." More especially, I suppose, he feels it has been a curse to him, because he has had to forsake the path of virtue, and to cease to walk in his integrity. But if current reports, and statements of rumblers, be true, this law has been a blessing to the north, by the way, both of which have been made before many witnesses. We can only say, that it is a pity Mr. Brown did not resign his position when he found the Scott Act to be a failure, and thus preserve his good name.

"Not only, says he, is the Scott Act a 'failure' but a 'curse'." More especially, I suppose, he feels it has been a curse to him, because he has had to forsake the path of virtue, and to cease to walk in his integrity. But if current reports, and statements of rumblers, be true, this law has been a blessing to the north, by the way, both of which have been made before many witnesses. We can only say, that it is a pity Mr. Brown did not resign his position when he found the Scott Act to be a failure, and thus preserve his good name.

"Not only, says he, is the Scott Act a 'failure' but a 'curse'." More especially, I suppose, he feels it has been a curse to him, because he has had to forsake the path of virtue, and to cease to walk in his integrity. But if current reports, and statements of rumblers, be true, this law has been a blessing to the north, by the way, both of which have been made before many witnesses. We can only say, that it is a pity Mr. Brown did not resign his position when he found the Scott Act to be a failure, and thus preserve his good name.

"Not only, says he, is the Scott Act a 'failure' but a 'curse'." More especially, I suppose, he feels it has been a curse to him, because he has had to forsake the path of virtue, and to cease to walk in his integrity. But if current reports, and statements of rumblers, be true, this law has been a blessing to the north, by the way, both of which have been made before many witnesses. We can only say, that it is a pity Mr. Brown did not resign his position when he found the Scott Act to be a failure, and thus preserve his good name.

"Not only, says he, is the Scott Act a 'failure' but a 'curse'." More especially, I suppose, he feels it has been a curse to him, because he has had to forsake the path of virtue, and to cease to walk in his integrity. But if current reports, and statements of rumblers, be true, this law has been a blessing to the north, by the way, both of which have been made before many witnesses. We can only say, that it is a pity Mr. Brown did not resign his position when he found the Scott Act to be a failure, and thus preserve his good name.

"Not only, says he, is the Scott Act a 'failure' but a 'curse'." More especially, I suppose, he feels it has been a curse to him, because he has had to forsake the path of virtue, and to cease to walk in his integrity. But if current reports, and statements of rumblers, be true, this law has been a blessing to the north, by the way, both of which have been made before many witnesses. We can only say, that it is a pity Mr. Brown did not resign his position when he found the Scott Act to be a failure, and thus preserve his good name.

"Not only, says he, is the Scott Act a 'failure' but a 'curse'." More especially, I suppose, he feels it has been a curse to him, because he has had to forsake the path of virtue, and to cease to walk in his integrity. But if current reports, and statements of rumblers, be true, this law has been a blessing to the north, by the way, both of which have been made before many witnesses. We can only say, that it is a pity Mr. Brown did not resign his position when he found the Scott Act to be a failure, and thus preserve his good name.

"Not only, says he, is the Scott Act a 'failure' but a 'curse'." More especially, I suppose, he feels it has been a curse to him, because he has had to forsake the path of virtue, and to cease to walk in his integrity. But if current reports, and statements of rumblers, be true, this law has been a blessing to the north, by the way, both of which have been made before many witnesses. We can only say, that it is a pity Mr. Brown did not resign his position when he found the Scott Act to be a failure, and thus preserve his good name.

"Not only, says he, is the Scott Act a 'failure' but a 'curse'." More especially, I suppose, he feels it has been a curse to him, because he has had to forsake the path of virtue, and to cease to walk in his integrity. But if current reports, and statements of rumblers, be true, this law has been a blessing to the north, by the way, both of which have been made before many witnesses. We can only say, that it is a pity Mr. Brown did not resign his position when he found the Scott Act to be a failure, and thus preserve his good name.

"Not only, says he, is the Scott Act a 'failure' but a 'curse'." More especially, I suppose, he feels it has been a curse to him, because he has had to forsake the path of virtue, and to cease to walk in his integrity. But if current reports, and statements of rumblers, be true, this law has been a blessing to the north, by the way, both of which have been made before many witnesses. We can only say, that it is a pity Mr. Brown did not resign his position when he found the Scott Act to be a failure, and thus preserve his good name.

"Not only, says he, is the Scott Act a 'failure' but a 'curse'." More especially, I suppose, he feels it has been a curse to him, because he has had to forsake the path of virtue, and to cease to walk in his integrity. But if current reports, and statements of rumblers, be true, this law has been a blessing to the north, by the way, both of which have been made before many witnesses. We can only say, that it is a pity Mr. Brown did not resign his position when he found the Scott Act to be a failure, and thus preserve his good name.

"Not only, says he, is the Scott Act a 'failure' but a 'curse'." More especially, I suppose, he feels it has been a curse to him, because he has had to forsake the path of virtue, and to cease to walk in his integrity. But if current reports, and statements of rumblers, be true, this law has been a blessing to the north, by the way, both of which have been made before many witnesses. We can only say, that it is a pity Mr. Brown did not resign his position when he found the Scott Act to be a failure, and thus preserve his good name.

"Not only, says he, is the Scott Act a 'failure' but a 'curse'." More especially, I suppose, he feels it has been a curse to him, because he has had to forsake the path of virtue, and to cease to walk in his integrity. But if current reports, and statements of rumblers, be true, this law has been a blessing to the north, by the way, both of which have been made before many witnesses. We can only say, that it is a pity Mr. Brown did not resign his position when he found the Scott Act to be a failure, and thus preserve his good name.

"Not only, says he, is the Scott Act a 'failure' but a 'curse'." More especially, I suppose, he feels it has been a curse to him, because he has had to forsake the path of virtue, and to cease to walk in his integrity. But if current reports, and statements of rumblers, be true, this law has been a blessing to the north, by the way, both of which have been made before many witnesses. We can only say, that it is a pity Mr. Brown did not resign his position when he found the Scott Act to be a failure, and thus preserve his good name.

"Not only, says he, is the Scott Act a 'failure' but a 'curse'." More especially, I suppose, he feels it has been a curse to him, because he has had to forsake the path of virtue, and to cease to walk in his integrity. But if current reports, and statements of rumblers, be true, this law has been a blessing to the north, by the way, both of which have been made before many witnesses. We can only say, that it is a pity Mr. Brown did not resign his position when he found the Scott Act to be a failure, and thus preserve his good name.

"Not only, says he, is the Scott Act a 'failure' but a 'curse'." More especially, I suppose, he feels it has been a curse to him, because he has had to forsake the path of virtue, and to cease to walk in his integrity. But if current reports, and statements of rumblers, be true, this law has been a blessing to the north, by the way, both of which have been made before many witnesses. We can only say, that it is a pity Mr. Brown did not resign his position when he found the Scott Act to be a failure, and thus preserve his good name.

"Not only, says he, is the Scott Act a 'failure' but a 'curse'." More especially, I suppose, he feels it has been a curse to him, because he has had to forsake the path of virtue, and to cease to walk in his integrity. But if current reports, and statements of rumblers, be true, this law has been a blessing to the north, by the way, both of which have been made before many witnesses. We can only say, that it is a pity Mr. Brown did not resign his position when he found the Scott Act to be a failure, and thus preserve his good name.

plication and such other information as I can in connection with the name.

I shall visit the various sections of the Province in as early a day as practicable and trust that there may be a well defined effort to make as good a showing as possible of the resources of New Brunswick, particularly as the Province of Ontario, Quebec, Nova Scotia and P. E. Island are moving actively in the matter.

The space at command of the Executive Commissioner for Canada is limited, and it would be well for intending exhibitors to make application at an early date, so that the allotment of space can be definitely arranged.

The Dominion Government will pay the transportation charges on all exhibits, goods and returning, and the placing of articles sent.

The reception of articles at the exposition buildings will commence on the 1st of Nov. next, so that it will be seen that prompt and energetic action is necessary, to ensure the success of New Brunswick's exhibit.

I am, sir, yours truly,
R. A. CHARTERS,
Agent for N. B.

Sussex, N. B., July 11, 1892.

A Chance for Composers.

In order to stimulate American composition, The Ladies Home Journal has just made public an attractive series of liberal prizes for the best original musical composition by composition submitted in the United States and Canada. The prizes call for a waltz, a piano composition, a pleasing ballad and a popular song, an original melody for the four best songs, being chartered. Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered. Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered.

Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered. Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered.

Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered. Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered.

Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered. Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered.

Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered. Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered.

Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered. Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered.

Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered. Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered.

Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered. Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered.

Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered. Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered.

Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered. Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered.

Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered. Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered.

Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered. Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered.

Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered. Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered.

Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered. Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered.

Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered. Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered.

Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered. Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered.

Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered. Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered.

Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered. Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered.

Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered. Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered.

Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered. Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered.

Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered. Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered.

Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered. Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered.

Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered. Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered.

Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered. Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered.

Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered. Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered.

Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered. Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered.

took orders and became Rector and Rural Dean of Kitleigh and Longbushville.

THE BLAKES AND HUMES.—This renowned gentleman, married Anne Margaret Hume, of Humeville, the eldest daughter of Mr. William Hume, of Humeville, M. P., for County Wicklow. In the troubled days of 1798, this gentleman was an officer of the Yeomanry, and while commanding a party engaged in pursuing the rebels was killed in a skirmish near his own residence.

One of the sons of this union between the Blakes and the Humes was William Hume Blake, the late Chancellor of Ontario, and the father of Edward Blake.

The wife of William Hume Blake was Marie-Françoise Blake, born in 1810, he was of an ardent and mercurial temperament, and his course must have at first given his relatives much anxiety. His general education was completed at Trinity College, Dublin, and he at first tried the study of medicine under the surgeon-general, Sir Philip Crampton, but becoming disgusted with the profession, he thought of the church, and finally in 1832 emigrated to Canada.

THE WELL-KNOWN stringency of means that attends younger sons in Britain, coupled with the encouragement of Sir John Colborne, Lieutenant-Governor of Canada, and that of Major Jones, a hero of Land's Lane, and father-in-law of Rev. Dominic Edward Blake, the eldest son of the family, caused this step. Quite a colony set sail at this time, the ship "Albatross," being chartered. Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered.

Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered. Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered.

Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered. Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered.

Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered. Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered.

Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered. Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered.

Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered. Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered.

Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered. Among the settlers were the Blake brothers, their widowed mother, and their sister and her husband, the late Archdeacon Blake, of the four best songs, being chartered.