Russians Now Say They Saw Eight Jap Torpedo Boats-Japs Say There Were None.

TOKIO, Oct. 29.—2.30 p. m.—The re-ported statement of an officer on board Vigo, Spain, to the effect that there were foreign torpedo boats among the Hull trawlers when they were fired upon recently by the Russian warship and that the Japanese government was said to have purchased torpedo boats n England, coupled with the insinua tion that the torpedo boats with th ceived in Japan with a mixed feeling of indignation and derision. It is officially declared in the most positive terms that Japan has neither pur chased nor ordered a single torpedo boat in England since the outbreak of
