

| They Will Box at Eagle Lake Wednes-  | MalloryReidThird base.  | yea's Point, and these boats were put  | and the ball made a hole in Machum'sback garden, three hundred yards  | The annual meet of the New Bruns-  | roadury, to acorge m. Scott, or the or   | husband.   |
|--|---|--|---|--|--|--|
| day Night  | Allison CorbetShort stotp.  | out of the race. When fouled the Gladys was in third place. F. H. J.   | west. The game ended in favor of thedefenders, and it was then Steve's  | wick Tennis Association will take placeat Sackville on August 6th. All the   | P. R. at Montreal.   | Jones' Pate  |
|  | Jones Jones Jones   | Ruel was judge.The prizes for the cruising race were   | serve. Five minutes intermission was  | tennis clubs in the province are invit-ed to affiliate with this association. W.   |  | Screamingly  |
| Dan Littlejohn, the local welter-weight pugilist will leave this morn-   | Right field.LeeBurr (captain  | presented on the wharf at Westfield on   | allowed while he endeavored to pick upthe balls. Before time was called, he   | P. Allison is president and W. T. Wood   | ment here has received word that athree-masted schooner is ashore on   | Humors of a  |
| ing for Eagle Lake, Me., where he is   | Centre field.   | Saturday by W. C. Rothwell.  | succeeded in getting his foot on one of   | of Sackville, secretary. A large-num-ber have signified their intention of   | Muir Ledges, south of Grand Manan.   | We've all en   |
| to box Arthur Cote, the Maipe cham-pion. Cote is a hard proposition hav-   | Baker SampsonLeft field.  | REMARKABLE RECORD AT FORT  | them and had little further difficulty.The first six serves went wild, but  | taking part in the tournament.   | The name of the schooner is not given.   | less.  |
| ing had decisions over Jimmy Briggs  | CreightonTurner   | ERIE RACES.FORT ERIE, Ont., July 27-The  | when the score was love-forty he land-  | Rev. Dr. Hill of Fairville occupied  | The St. John Medical Society in ob-serving the seventieth anniversary of   | The Pillma   |
| and other boxers of the first rank.Dan will have to move some to get the   |   | great popularity of racing at this point   | ed a ball in the court, and the fun be-gan. All four worked as hard as civil  | the pulpit of St. David's church yes-  | Dr. Wm. Bayard's entry into practice,  | Might haveout funny.   |
| better of the Yankee. Littlejohn is in   | GAME AT CHATHAM.  | had another demonstration todaywhen a crowd practically equal to   | service veterans, puffed like freight en-   | terday in the absence of Rev. A. A.Graham, who is spending his vacation  | which will fall on Thursday next, willpresent to the veteran physician, a re-  | A Sailor's   |
| excellent condition and hopes to givea good account of himself. He is also   | The Star baseball team recently de-feated a Loggieville nine 22 to 2 on the                             | Derby day attendance turned out for  | gines, but kept that ball going to andfro on a rally that would have been   | at Edmonton, Alberta. Rev. Dr. J. A.   | solution passed by the society for the   | A Sallol SOr tale of pin   |
| anxious to meet Mike "Twin" Sullivan   | latter's grounds. Joe Currie and Dan  | the racing. The visitors had somethingto talk about for they had seen such   | most creditable to the Dohertys. When   | Morison, a former pastor of St. Da-vid's, will occupy the pulpit during the  | occasion, suitably engraved.   |  |
| in the proposed tournament to be heldin this city.   | Hudley were the battery for the win-ners, while Jewett and Flaherty offi-                               | a performance as was never seen here   | at last the Senator in practising aback-hand stroke, sent it sailing to-  | month of August.   | The three-year-old son of Wm. Mer-   | Special Bi   |
| THE RANGE  | ciated between the points for the Log-  | before. The Valley Farms, Hamilton,stables horse Denham was the hero of  | wards Westfield, the crowd went wild.   | R. S. Barker, the lieutenant-govern-   | rick, of St. Patrick street, strayed fromhome on Saturday and the parents  | "THE MAN   |
|  | gieville boys.  | the afternoon. He accomplished a featthat is likely to remain unparalleled   | urged on by the excitement, two of the  | or's private secretary, has sent word  | were uneasy until the tiny runawaywas located in the Victoria grounds  | AND THE HOtuming, motion   |
| CITY RIFLE CLUB.   | BIG LEAGUE GAMES.   | for many years.  | spectators got into a fight. They hadbeen having a few words, but finally   | menter will loove the stoomen Minto of   | where he was deeply interested in  |  |
| The St. John City Rifle Club heldtheir regular spoon match on Satur-   | American League.  | It was a Buffalo stake of $1,500 inwhich Denham displayed his merit and   | clinched. One was supporting the  | Halifax, and will come here by theBay of Fundy route. It is probable   | watching a base-ball match.  | 5CA  |
| day afternoon on the local rifle range.  | At New York-Cleveland, 11; New York, 10 (11 innings.  | ran a mile faster than had ever been   | Woolastook team and the other theOnonette. Clutching at each others   | that R. C. Elkin's yacht, Hudson, will   | The Silver Falls Methodist Sunday  | Stay as  |
| The attendance was large, but therain during the afternoon made it   | At Washington-Washington, 8; St.  | run by a Canadian bred horse. He didmore, for he ran a mile faster than  | throats they rolled over and over on  | bring the party from Digoy to St.John.   | school picnic will be held tomorrowon the grounds of the Log Cabin Fish-   |  |
| very unpleasant and greatly hindered   |   | any horse ever was able tc in winning  | the ground, women screamed, childrenran for safety, and an uproar follow-   | ······································   | ing Club. Loch Lomond buses leave  | York Assemizaars, etc. A   |
| the novices, which accounts for theirlow scoring. The match was shot over  | American League Standing.   | his first race.He went the mile in 1.38 4-5 and this   | ed. Finally with a great effort the   | petitioned the safety board, which will  | foot of Waterloo street at 8 o'clock sharp.  | 'Phone 1382.   |
| the 500, 600 and 800 yard ranges. The  | Won. Lost. P.C.   | stands as a record both for horse bred   | Woolastook representative flung hisopponent over the bank. The victor, a  | meet this evening to replace theirclothes which were damaged while on  | Stand and have another which differ  |  |
| following were the prize winners and their scores:   | Cleveland   | in Canada and for horse scoring hismaiden victory and there is no telling  | bull terrier, was, however, dragged ig-   | duty. Officer Crawford's clothing was  | Many people have eyes which differslightly in strength and the small but   |  |
| Class A- 500. 600. 800. tal.   | Detroit 49 34 .590  |  | Howard. After this disgraceful exhi-  | destroyed during the trouble with"Gunner" White, and Officer Totten's  | constant strain causes headaches andnervousness. D. Boyaner, 38 Dock St.,  | Rockv  |
| Jas, Sullivan, first31 28 30 89  | Now Vork 41 45 477  | run. "He won pulling up far in front of the  | bition, the nerves of the players werenaturally upset, but were calmed by   | were also destoyed under conditions  | makes a correct examination and gives  | St. Joh  |
| D. Conly, second32 26 27 85B. Class-   | St. Louis   | second horse and the farther they ranthe farther Denham drew away from   | Shirley Peters who passed around a  | which they think make it reasonablethat their clothing should be replaced  | the correct lens for each eye.   | Amu  |
| S. Jones, first33 28 18 79   | Boston  | his competitors. Not only was the race   | suspicious looking beverage in an in-nocent ginger beer bottle. The con-  | at the city's expense.   | Thousands of people have been  | the permit and   |
| Jas. Donnelly, sec-ond   | · · · ·   | run in phenomenally fast time but theCanadian bred easily defeated the field,  | testants in their corners were sponged  | Among those registered at the Royal  | benefited and restored to perfecthealth by drinking "Nebedega," nat-   | Ban  |
| D. Class-  | National League.  | which included such useful performers  | and rubbed down in the most approv-ed style and were soon able to con-  | are Reverend Fathers John Galvin and   | ure's great remedial water. 37 Church  | All the  |
| H. Ricketts, first22 4 10 36C. W. Clark, second.18 7 6 31  | At Chicago—Boston, 0; Chicago, 4.At Pittsburg—Second game, Pitts-                                       | as Polly Prim, Nat B., and Jacomox,winner of the Frontier stakes at  | tinue. The Doc and Senator were too   | John Brosnan, Father Galvin's churchis St. Matthew's, Untica avenue and  | street.  | Shoot-the-chMerry-go-ro  |
| F. Bowes, second10 15 6 31   | burg, 3; Philadelphia, 0.   | Windsor, in which Tourenne was beat-   | strong a combination; they were oldhands at the game, and the count, al-  | East Parkway, Brooklyn, N. Y. Fa-  | , A clean sweep sale of wash suits   | Automatic S  |
| 62ND RIFLE MATCH.  | At Cincinnati-Cincinnati, 3; New York, 2.   |  | though challenged repeatedly, went intheir favor. A change of courts brought  | ther Brosnan is connected with theIrish Immigrant Girls' Home, 7 State   | and blouses starts today at J. N. Har-vey's stores in the Opera House  | every aftern   |
| The regular spoon match of the 62nd  | At St. Louis-First game, St. Louis,   | A GREAT GAME AT  | no better luck to the challengers and   | street, New York. The two priests arespending their vacation in the Mari-  | block. Read his ad. on page one of   | Speci  |
| Regiment Rifle Association was held onSaturday afternoon. Ranges, 500, 600   | 1; Brooklyn, 0. Second game, St. Louis,2; Brooklyn, 4.  |  | the game ended 9-2 in favor of bothsides, this being the method of scoring  | time Provinces and will visit other  | today's issue.   | Daring Bicy  |
| and suit winds   | At Cincinnal-First game, Cincin-  | WOOLASTOOK SATURDAY  | agreed upon. It was the longest and   | points besides St. John.   | Rose Dutz and Louis Gritz weremarried at the home of Hyman Gritz,  | chutes at fu   |
| There was a good attendance, but   | nati, 8; New York, 3. Second game,Cincinnati, 3; New York, 1.   | The second secon | heartiest laugh on the river for many   | A prominent member of the Temple of  | 34 Chapel street, vesterday, Many  | lake. A mo   |
| the neavy showers of rain which ten  |   | From South Bay to Sagwa all the  | a day The driver of a freight train   |  | for encoper servery geotprange many  | 1  |
| the heavy showers of rain which fellshortly after the opening of the match   | At Chicago-Chicago, 2; Boston, 5.   | inhabitants, masculine, feminine and   | a day. The driver of a freight trainwhich passed while the game was in  | of Honor, W. A. Carey, of Malden,  | Jewish residents were present and de-  | fail to see it   |
| shortly after the opening of the matchplayed havoc with the scores and drovemany of the competitors to shelter.  | At Chicago-Chicago, 2; Boston, 5.National League Standing.  | inhabitants, masculine, feminine and   | which passed while the game was inprogress, was seized with convulsions   | of Honor, W. A. Carey, of Malden,Mass., will visit the city this week. Heis a very prominent temperance worker   | Jewish residents were present and despite the fact that it was Sunday, the party made merry with wine and song.  | The Treak III  |
| shortly after the opening of the matchplayed havoc with the scores and drove   | At Chicago-Chicago, 2; Boston, 5.National League Standing.  | inhabitants, masculine, feminine andcanine, including transients andchronic sufferers from suburbanitis aswell as the few natives of whom the  | which passed while the game was inprogress, was seized with convulsionsand taken to hospital. There were noother casualties.  | of Honor, W. A. Carey, of Malden,Mass., will visit the city this week. Heis a very prominent temperance workerbeing Grand Worthy Recorder, of theGrand Temple of Massachusetts, and at   | Jewish residents were present and de-spite the fact that it was Sunday, theparty made merry with wine and song.The marriage is said to be the culmin-ation of a romance which becan when   |  |
| <ul> <li>shortly after the opening of the match played havoc with the scores and drove many of the competitors to shelter. The winners were.</li> <li>A. Class-Capt. E. K. McKay91</li> </ul>  | At Chicago-Chicago, 2; Boston, 5.National League Standing.Won, Lost. P.C.Chicago                | inhabitants, masculine, feminine andcanine, including translents andchronic sufferers from suburbanitis aswell as the few natives of whom thedistrict can boast, assembled on Sat-urday evening at Woolastook to wit-  | which passed while the game was inprogress, was selzed with convulsionsand taken to hospital. There were noother casualties.*Steve also wore a white collar.  | of Honor, W. A. Carey, of Malden,Mass., will visit the city this week. Heis a very prominent temperance workerbeing Grand Worthy Recorder, of theGrand Temple of Massachusetts, and atone time served in the common council  | Jewish residents were present and de-spite the fact that it was Sunday, theparty made merry with wine and song.The marriage is said to be the culmin-ation of a romance which began whenthe couple were young and were living  | The Frank W  |
| shortly after the opening of the matchplayed havoc with the scores and drovemany of the competitors to shelter.The winners were.   | At Chicago—Chicago, 2; Boston, 5.National League Standing.Won, Lost. P.C.Chicago                | inhabitants, masculine, feminine andcanine, including translents andchronic sufferers from suburbanitis aswell as the few natives of whom thedistrict can boast, assembled on Sat-urday evening at Woolastook to wit-ness the tennis championships. The  | which passed while the game was inprogress, was selzed with convulsionsand taken to hospital. There were noother casualties.*Steve also wore a white collar.OLD-FASHIONED BELIEVER.   | of Honor, W. A. Carey, of Malden,Mass., will visit the city this week. Heis a very prominent temperance workerbeing Grand Worthy Recorder, of theGrand Temple of Massachusetts, and atone time served in the common councilof his native city. Mr. Carey will visitthe several departments of the order  | Jewish residents were present and de-spite the fact that it was Sunday, theparty made merry with wine and song.The marriage is said to be the culmin-ation of a romance which began whenthe couple were young and were livingin Germany.   | The Frank WLUNCHEIce cream, co   |
| <ul> <li>shortly after the opening of the match played havoc with the scores and drove many of the competitors to shelter. The winners were.</li> <li>A. Class-Capt. E. K. McKay91</li> <li>B. Class-Lieut, L. O. Bentley77</li> <li>C. Class-Lieut, F. H. Elliott63</li> <li>D. Class-Lieut, D. McArthur53</li> </ul>   | At Chicago—Chicago, 2; Boston, 5.National League Standing.Won, Lost. P.C.Chicago                | inhabitants, masculine, feminine andcanine, including transients andchronic sufferers from suburbanitis aswell as the few natives of whom thedistrict can boast, assembled on Sat-urday evening at Woolastook to wit-ness the tennis championships. Thehalt, the lame and the blind, the meek,the charitable, the perverse, infants  | which passed while the game was inprogress, was selzed with convulsionsand taken to hospital. There were noother casualties.*Steve also wore a white collar.OLD-FASHIONED BELIEVER.I'm a up an' down believer-never had   | of Honor, W. A. Carey, of Malden,Mass., will visit the city this week. Heis a very prominent temperance workerbeing Grand Worthy Recorder, of theGrand Temple of Massachusetts, and atone time served in the common councilof his native city. Mr. Carey will visit  | Jewish residents were present and de-spite the fact that it was Sunday, theperty made merry with wine and song.The marriage is said to be the culmin-ation of a romance which began whenthe couple were young and were livingin Germany.Lt. Col. H. H. McLean has been re-   | The Frank W  |
| <ul> <li>shortly after the opening of the match played havoc with the scores and drove many of the competitors to shelter. The winners were.</li> <li>A. Class—Capt. E. K. McKay91 B. Class—Lieut, L. O. Bentley77 C. Class—Lieut, F. H. Elliott60 D. Class—Lieut. D. McArthur53 The St John County Rifle Association will hold their annual competition</li> </ul>  | At Chicago—Chicago, 2; Boston, 5.         National League Standing.         Won, Lost. P.C.         Chicago | inhabitants, masculine, feminine andcanine, including transients andchronic sufferers from suburbanitis aswell as the few natives of whom thedistrict can boast, assembled on Sat-urday evening at Woolastook to wit-ness the tennis championships. Thehalt, the lame and the blind, the meek,the charitable, the perverse, infantsin arms and doddering grandparents  | which passed while the game was inprogress, was seized with convulsionsand taken to hospital. There were noother casualties.*Steve also wore a white collar.OLD-FASHIONED BELIEVER.I'm a up an' down believer-never hada bit of doubt,  | of Honor, W. A. Carey, of Malden,Mass., will visit the city this week. Heis a very prominent temperance workerbeing Grand Worthy Recorder, of theGrand Temple of Massachusetts, and atone time served in the common councilof his native city. Mr. Carey will visitthe several departments of the orderwhile in this city.Last evening's sermon at the Congre-   | Jewish residents were present and de-spite the fact that it was Sunday, theperty made merry with wine and song.The marriage is said to be the culmin-ation of a romance which began whenthe couple were young and were livingin Germany.Lt. Col. H. H. McLean has been re-tained by the Dominion Coal intereststo act for them in their case with the  | The Frank WLUNCHEIce cream, coRestaurant,  |
| <ul> <li>shortly after the opening of the match played havoc with the scores and drove many of the competitors to shelter. The winners were.</li> <li>A. Class—Capt. E. K. McKay91</li> <li>B. Class—Lieut, L. O. Bentley77</li> <li>C. Class—Lieut, F. H. Elliott60</li> <li>D. Class—Lieut, D. McArthur53</li> <li>The St John County Rifle Association will hold their annual competition for the Corporation cup and cash prizes</li> </ul>  | At Chicago—Chicago, 2; Boston, 5.         National League Standing.         Won, Lost. P.C.         Chicago | inhabitants, masculine, feminine andcanine, including translents andchronic sufferers from suburbanitis aswell as the few natives of whom thedistrict can boast, assembled on Sat-urday evening at Woolastook to wit-ness the tennis championships. Thehalt, the lame and the blind, the meek,the charitable, the perverse, infantsin arms and doddering grandparentsall turned out, and the gathering be-came the most memorable in the his-  | which passed while the game was inprogress, was selzed with convulsionsand taken to hospital. There were noother casualties.*Steve also wore a white collar.OLD-FASHIONED BELIEVER.I'm a up an' down believer-never hada bit of doubt,Or tried to take the Gospel an' turn itwrong side out!  | of Honor, W. A. Carey, of Malden,Mass., will visit the city this week. Heis a very prominent temperance workerbeing Grand Worthy Recorder, of theGrand Temple of Massachusetts, and atone time served in the common councilof his native city. Mr. Carey will visitthe several departments of the orderwhile in this city.Last evening's sermon at the Congre-gational church, Union street, was de-livered by Rev. Mr. Anthony, of Mil-   | Jewish residents were present and de-spite the fact that it was Sunday, theperty made merry with wine and song.The marriage is said to be the culmin-ation of a romance which began whenthe couple were young and were livingin Germany.Lt. Col. H. H. McLean has been re-tained by the Dominion Coal intereststo act for them in their case with theDominion Steel Company. Col. Mc-  | The Frank WLUNCHEIce cream, coRestaurant,arrangements  |
| <ul> <li>shortly after the opening of the match played havoc with the scores and drove many of the competitors to shelter. The winners were.</li> <li>A. Class—Capt. E. K. McKay91 B. Class—Lieut, L. O. Bentley77 C. Class—Lieut, F. H. Elliott60 D. Class—Lieut. D. McArthur53 The St John County Rifle Association will hold their annual competition</li> </ul>  | At Chicago—Chicago, 2; Boston, 5.         National League Standing.         Won, Lost. P.C.         Chicago | inhabitants, masculine, feminine andcanine, including translents andchronic sufferers from suburbanitis aswell as the few natives of whom thedistrict can boast, assembled on Sat-urday evening at Woolastook to wit-ness the tennis championships. Thehalt, the lame and the blind, the meek,the charitable, the perverse, infantsin arms and doddering grandparentsall turned out, and the gathering be-came the most memorable in the his-  | which passed while the game was inprogress, was selzed with convulsionsand taken to hospital. There were noother casualites.*Steve also wore a white collar.OLD-FASHIONED BELIEVER.I'm a up an' down believer—never hada bit of doubt,Or tried to take the Gospel an' turn itwrong side out!I never ax no questions, or feel that   | of Honor, W. A. Carey, of Malden,Mass., will visit the city this week. Heis a very prominent temperance workerbeing Grand Worthy Recorder, of theGrand Temple of Massachusetts, and atone time served in the common councilof his native city, Mr. Carey will visitthe several departments of the orderwhile in this city.Last evening's sermon at the Congre-gational church, Union street, was de-livered by Rev. Mr. Anthony, of Mil-ton, N. S. Calls have been extended to   | Jewish residents were present and de-spite the fact that it was Sunday, thept rty made merry with wine and song.The marriage is said to be the culmin-ation of a romance which began whenthe couple were young and were livingin Germany.Lt. Col. H. H. McLean has been re-tained by the Dominion Coal intereststo act for them in their case with theDominion Steel Company. Col. Mc-Lean will leave today for Sydney,where the trial begins tomorrow and   | The Frank WLUNCHEIce cream, coRestaurant,  |
| <ul> <li>shortly after the opening of the match played havoc with the scores and drove many of the competitors to shelter. The winners were.</li> <li>A. Class—Capt. E. K. McKay91</li> <li>B. Class—Lieut, L. O. Bentley77</li> <li>C. Class—Lieut, F. H. Elliott60</li> <li>D. Class—Lieut, D. McArthur53</li> <li>The St John County Rifle Association will hold their annual competition for the Corporation cup and cash prizes</li> </ul>  | At Chicago—Chicago, 2; Boston, 5.         National League Standing.         Won, Lost. P.C.         Chicago | inhabitants, masculine, feminine andcanine, including translents andchronic sufferers from suburbanitis aswell as the few natives of whom thedistrict can boast, assembled on Sat-urday evening at Woolastook to wit-ness the tennis championships. Thehalt, the lame and the blind, the meek,the charitable, the perverse, infantsin arms and doddering grandparentsall turned out, and the gathering be-came the most memorable in the his-tory of the colony. All the excitementof a whole summer's salmon boatraces crowded into one brief hour,   | which passed while the game was inprogress, was seized with convulsionsand taken to hospital. There were noother casualties.*Steve also wore a white collar.OLD-FASHIONED BELIEVER.I'm a up an' down believer-never hada bit of doubt,Or tried to take the Gospel an' turn itwrong side out!I never ax no questions, or feel thatfaith'll fail,I'm han' in han' with Jonah, an' on  | of Honor, W. A. Carey, of Malden,Mass., will visit the city this week. Heis a very prominent temperance workerbeing Grand Worthy Recorder, of theGrand Temple of Massachusetts, and atone time served in the common councilof his native city. Mr. Carey will visitthe several departments of the orderwhile in this city.Last evening's sermon at the Congre-gational church, Union street, was de-livered by Rev. Mr. Anthony, of Mil-ton, N. S. Calls have been extended toMr. Anthony by both the St. John andYarmouth churches. At present he is  | Jewish residents were present and de-spite the fact that it was Sunday, theperty made merry with wine and song.The marriage is said to be the culmin-ation of a romance which began whenthe couple were young and were livingin Germany.Lt. Col. H. H. McLean has been re-tained by the Dominion Coal intereststo act for them in their case with theDominion Steel Company. Col. Mc-Lean will leave today for Sydney,where the trial begins tomorrow andpromises to be long drawn out, as the   | The Frank WLUNCHEIce cream, coRestaurant,arrangements  |
| <ul> <li>shortly after the opening of the match played havoc with the scores and drove many of the competitors to shelter. The winners were.</li> <li>A. Class—Capt. E. K. McKay91</li> <li>B. Class—Lieut, L. O. Bentley77</li> <li>C. Class—Lieut, F. H. Elliott60</li> <li>D. Class—Lieut, D. McArthur53</li> <li>The St John County Rifle Association will hold their annual competition for the Corporation cup and cash prizes</li> </ul>  | At Chicago—Chicago, 2; Boston, 5.         National League Standing.         Won, Lost. P.C.         Chicago | inhabitants, masculine, feminine andcanine, including transients andchronic sufferers from suburbanitis aswell as the few natives of whom thedistrict can boast, assembled on Sat-urday evening at Woolastook to wit-ness the tennis championships. Thehalt, the lame and the blind, the meek,the charitable, the perverse, infantsin arms and doddering grandparentsall turned out, and the gathering be-came the most memorable in the his-tory of the colony. All the excitementof a whole summer's salmon boatraces crowded into one brief hour,would, if compared with Saturday'sevent, have been as a church funeral   | which passed while the game was inprogress, was selzed with convulsionsand taken to hospital. There were noother casualites.*Steve also wore a white collar.OLD-FASHIONED BELIEVER.I'm a up an' down believer-never hada bit of doubt,Or tried to take the Gospel an' turn itwrong side out!I never ax no questions, or feel thatfaith'll fail,I'm han' in han' with Jonah, an' ongood terms with the whale!  | of Honor, W. A. Carey, of Malden,Mass., will visit the city this week. Heis a very prominent temperance workerbeing Grand Worthy Recorder, of theGrand Temple of Massachusetts, and atone time served in the common councilof his native city. Mr. Carey will visitthe several departments of the orderwhile in this city.Last evening's sermon at the Congre-gational church, Union street, was de-livered by Rev. Mr. Anthony, of Mil-ton, N. S. Calls have been extended toMr. Anthony by both the St. John and   | Jewish residents were present and de-spite the fact that it was Sunday, theparty made merry with wine and song.The marriage is said to be the culmin-ation of a romance which began whenthe couple were young and were livingin Germany.Lt. Col. H. H. McLean has been re-tained by the Dominion Coal intereststo act for them in their case with theDominion Steel Company. Col. Me-Lean will leave today for Sydney,where the trial begins tomorrow andpromises to be long drawn out, as thecast is one of the most important, bothfrom a public and a legal standpoint,   | The Frank WLUNCHEIce cream, coRestaurant,arrangements  |
| shortly after the opening of the matchplayed havoc with the scores and drovemany of the competitors to shelter.The winners were.A. Class-Capt. E. K. McKay91B. Class-Lieut, L. O. Bentley77C. Class-Lieut, F. H. Elliott60D. Class-Lieut, D. McArthur53The St John County Rifle Associa-tion will hold their annual competitionfor the Corporation cup and cash prizeson Saturday next, August 3rd.MARATHONS WON   | At Chicago—Chicago, 2; Boston, 5.         National League Standing.         Won, Lost. P.C.         Chicago | inhabitants, masculine, feminine andcanine, including transients andchronic sufferers from suburbanitis aswell as the few natives of whom thedistrict can boast, assembled on Sat-urday evening at Woolastook to wit-ness the tennis championships. Thehalt, the lame and the blind, the meek,the charitable, the perverse, infantsin arms and doddering grandparentsall turned out, and the gathering be-came the most memorable in the his-tory of the colony. All the excitementof a whole summer's salmon boatraces crowded into one brief hour,would, if compared with Saturday'sevent, have been as a church funeralis to a fourth of July in New York.  | which passed while the game was inprogress, was selzed with convulsionsand taken to hospital. There were noother casualities.*Steve also wore a white collar.OLD-FASHIONED BELIEVER.I'm a up an' down believer-never hada bit of doubt,Or tried to take the Gospel an' turn itwrong side out!I never ax no questions, or feel thatfaith'll fail,I'm han' in han' with Jonah, an' ongood terms with the whale!I'm a up an' down believer-for they  | of Honor, W. A. Carey, of Malden,Mass., will visit the city this week. Heis a very prominent temperance workerbeing Grand Worthy Recorder, of theGrand Temple of Massachusetts, and atone time served in the common councilof his native city, Mr. Carey will visitthe several departments of the orderwhile in this city.Last evening's sermon at the Congre-gational church, Union street, was de-livered by Rev. Mr. Anthony, of Mil-ton, N. S. Calls have been extended toMr. Anthony by both the St. John andYarmouth churches. At present he isundecided which to accept, but will an-nounce his decision within the nextweek. He will leave for his home to-  | Jewish residents were present and de-spite the fact that it was Sunday, thept rty made merry with wine and song.The marriage is said to be the culmin-ation of a romance which began whenthe couple were young and were livingin Germany.Lt. Col. H. H. McLean has been re-tained by the Dominion Coal intereststo act for them in their case with theDominion Steel Company. Col. Mc-Lean will leave today for Sydney,where the trial begins tomorrow andpromises to be long drawn out, as thecast is one of the most important, bothfrom a public and a legal standpoint,ever contested in a Canadian court.A message from St. Andrews last  | The Frank WLUNCHEIce cream, coRestaurant,arrangements  |
| shortly after the opening of the matchplayed havoc with the scores and drovemany of the competitors to shelter.The winners were.A. Class-Capt. E. K. McKay91B. Class-Lieut, L. O. Bentley77C. Class-Lieut, F. H. Elliott60D. Class-Lieut, D. McArthur53The St John County Rifle Associa-tion will hold their annual competitionfor the Corporation cup and cash prizeson Saturday next, August 3rd.MARATHONS WON   | At Chicago—Chicago, 2; Boston, 5.         National League Standing.         Won, Lost. P.C.         Chicago | inhabitants, masculine, feminine andcanine, including transients andchronic sufferers from suburbanitis aswell as the few natives of whom thedistrict can boast, assembled on Sat-urday evening at Woolastook to wit-ness the tennis championships. Thehalt, the lame and the blind, the meek,the charitable, the perverse, infantsin arms and doddering grandparentsall turned out, and the gathering be-came the most memorable in the his-tory of the colony. All the excitementof a whole summer's salmon boatraces crowded into one brief hour,would, if compared with Saturday'sevent, have been as a church funeralis to a fourth of July in New York.The tennis courts were lined twentydeep and sums of money as high as  | which passed while the game was inprogress, was seized with convulsionsand taken to hospital. There were noother casualities.*Steve also wore a white collar.OLD-FASHIONED BELIEVER.I'm a up an' down believer-never hada bit of doubt,Or tried to take the Gospel an' turn itwrong side out!I never ax no questions, or feel thatfaith'll fail,I'm han' in han' with Jonah, an' ongood terms with the whale!I'm a up an' down believer-for theyraised me that away,Had fam'ly pra'r fer breakfast an' din-   | of Honor, W. A. Carey, of Malden,Mass., will visit the city this week. Heis a very prominent temperance workerbeing Grand Worthy Recorder, of theGrand Temple of Massachusetts, and atone time served in the common councilof his native city. Mr. Carey will visitthe several departments of the orderwhile in this city.Last evening's sermon at the Congre-gational church, Union street, was de-livered by Rev. Mr. Anthony, of Mil-ton, N. S. Calls have been extended toMr. Anthony by both the St. John andYarmouth churches. At present he isundecided which to accept, but will an-nounce his decision within the next  | Jewish residents were present and de-spite the fact that it was Sunday, theperty made merry with wine and song.The marriage is said to be the culmin-ation of a romance which began whenthe couple were young and were livingin Germany.Lt. Col. H. H. McLean has been re-tained by the Dominion Coal intereststo act for them in their case with theDominion Steel Company. Col. Mc-Lean will leave today for Sydney,where the trial begins tomorrow andpromises to be long drawn out, as thecast is one of the most important, bothfrom a public and a legal standpoint,ever contested in a Canadian court.A message from St. Andrews lastnight stated that Sir William Van  | The Frank WLUNCHEIce cream, coRestaurant,arrangements  |
| <ul> <li>shortly after the opening of the match played havoc with the scores and drove many of the competitors to shelter. The winners were.</li> <li>A. Class—Capt. E. K. McKay91</li> <li>B. Class—Lieut, L. O. Bentley77</li> <li>C. Class—Lieut, F. H. Elliott60</li> <li>D. Class—Lieut, D. McArthur53</li> <li>The St John County Rifle Association will hold their annual competition for the Corporation cup and cash prizes</li> </ul>  | At Chicago—Chicago, 2; Boston, 5.         National League Standing.         Won, Lost. P.C.         Chicago | inhabitants, masculine, feminine andcanine, including transients andchronic sufferers from suburbanitis aswell as the few natives of whom thedistrict can boast, assembled on Sat-urday evening at Woolastook to wit-ness the tennis championships. Thehalt, the lame and the blind, the meck,the charitable, the perverse, infantsin arms and doddering grandparentsall turned out, and the gathering be-came the most memorable in the his-tory of the colony. All the excitementof a whole summer's salmon boatraces crowded into one brief hour,would, if compared with Saturday'sevent, have been as a church funeralis to a fourth of July in New York.The tennis courts were lined twentydeep and sums of money as high asfifteen cents were bet with utter   | which passed while the game was inprogress, was selzed with convulsionsand taken to hospital. There were noother casualites.*Steve also wore a white collar.OLD-FASHIONED BELIEVER.I'm a up an' down believer—never hada bit of doubt,Or tried to take the Gospel an' turn itwrong side out!I never ax no questions, or feel thatfaith'll fail,I'm han' in han' with Jonah, an' ongood terms with the whale!I'm a up an' down believer—for theyraised me that away,Had fam'ly pra'r fer breakfast an' din-ner every day!  | of Honor, W. A. Carey, of Malden,Mass., will visit the city this week. Heis a very prominent temperance workerbeing Grand Worthy Recorder, of theGrand Temple of Massachusetts, and atone time served in the common councilof his native city. Mr. Carey will visitthe several departments of the orderwhile in this city.Last evening's sermon at the Congre-gational church, Union street, was de-livered by Rev. Mr. Anthony, of Mil-ton, N. S. Calls have been extended toMr. Anthony by both the St. John andYarmouth churches. At present he isundecided which to accept, but will an-nounce his decision within the nextweek. He will leave for his home to-day. This was not Mr. Anthony's first   | Jewish residents were present and de-spite the fact that it was Sunday, thept rty made merry with wine and song.The marriage is said to be the culmin-ation of a romance which began whenthe couple were young and were livingin Germany.Lt. Col. H. H. McLean has been re-tained by the Dominion Coal intereststo act for them in their case with theDominion Steel Company. Col. Mc-Lean will leave today for Sydney,where the trial begins tomorrow andpromises to be long drawn out, as thecast is one of the most important, bothfrom a public and a legal standpoint,ever contested in a Canadian court.A message from St. Andrews lastnight stated that Sir William VanHorne, who is an interested party, willleave there this morning for Sydney   | The Frank WLUNCHEIce cream, crRestaurant,arrangementsVICROLL   |
| shortly after the opening of the matchplayed havoc with the scores and drovemany of the competitors to shelter.The winners were.A. Class-Capt. E. K. McKay91B. Class-Lleut, L. O. Bentley77C. Class-Lleut, F. H. Elliott60D. Class-Lleut, D. McArthur53The St John County Fifle Associa-tion will hold their annual competitionfor the Corporation cup and cash prizeson Saturday next, August 3rd.MARATHONS WONFROM PORTLANDS   | At Chicago—Chicago, 2; Boston, 5.         National League Standing.         Won, Lost. P.C.         Chicago | inhabitants, masculine, feminine andcanine, including transients andchronic sufferers from suburbanitis aswell as the few natives of whom thedistrict can boast, assembled on Sat-urday evening at Woolastook to wit-ness the tennis championships. Thehalt, the lame and the blind, the meek,the charitable, the perverse, infantsin arms and doddering grandparentsall turned out, and the gathering be-came the most memorable in the his-tory of the colony. All the excitementof a whole summer's salmon boatraces crowded into one brief hour,would, if compared with Saturday'sevent, have been as a church funeralis to a fourth of July in New York.The tennis courts were lined twentydeep and sums of money as high asfifteen cents were bet with utterabandon. When the players made theirappearance, escorted to the courts by  | <ul> <li>which passed while the game was in progress, was selzed with convulsions and taken to hospital. There were no other casualities.</li> <li>*Steve also wore a white collar.</li> <li>OLD-FASHIONED BELIEVER.</li> <li>I'm a up an' down believer—never had a bit of doubt,</li> <li>Or tried to take the Gospel an' turn it wrong side out!</li> <li>I never ax no questions, or feel that faith'll fail,</li> <li>I'm han' in han' with Jonah, an' on good terms with the whale!</li> <li>I'm a up an' down believer—for they raised me that away,</li> <li>Had fam'ly pra'r fer breakfast an' dinner every day!</li> <li>Kaze Solomon had all them wives I never do condemn,</li> </ul>   | of Honor, W. A. Carey, of Malden,Mass., will visit the city this week. Heis a very prominent temperance workerbeing Grand Worthy Recorder, of theGrand Temple of Massachusetts, and atone time served in the common councilof his native city, Mr. Carey will visitthe several departments of the orderwhile in this city.Last evening's sermon at the Congre-gational church, Union street, was de-livered by Rev. Mr. Anthony, of Mil-ton, N. S. Calls have been extended toMr. Anthony by both the St. John andYarmouth churches. At present he isundecided which to accept, but will an-nounce his decision within the nextweek. He will leave for his home to-day. This was not Mr. Anthony's firstappearance in St. John, as he preachedhere about three years ago.John E. Moore, of the harbor com-   | Jewish residents were present and de-spite the fact that it was Sunday, theparty made merry with wine and song.The marriage is said to be the culmin-ation of a romance which began whenthe couple were young and were livingin Germany.Lt. Col. H. H. McLean has been re-tained by the Dominion Coal intereststo act for them in their case with theDominion Steel Company. Col. Mc-Lean will leave today for Sydney,where the trial begins tomorrow andpromises to be long drawn out, as thecast is one of the most important, bothfrom a public and a legal standpoint,ever contested in a Canadian court.A message from St. Andrews lastnight stated that Sir William VanHorne, who is an interested party, willleave there this morning for Sydneyby special train.   | The Frank WLUNCHEIce cream, ccRestaurant,arrangementsVICROLLThe Large  |
| shortly after the opening of the matchplayed havoc with the scores and drovemany of the competitors to shelter.The winners were.A. Class—Capt. E. K. McKay91B. Class—Lieut, L. O. Bentley77C. Class—Lieut, F. H. Elliott60D. Class—Lieut, D. McArthur53The St. John County Rifle Associa-tion will hold their annual competitionfor the Corporation cup and cash prizeson Saturday next, August 3rd.MARATHONS WONFROM PORTLANDSThe Marathon nipe defeated the Port-tands in a nine inning contest on the   | At Chicago—Chicago, 2; Boston, 5.         National League Standing.         Won, Lost. P.C.         Chicago | inhabitants, masculine, feminine andcanine, including transients andchronic sufferers from suburbanitis aswell as the few natives of whom thedistrict can boast, assembled on Sat-urday evening at Woolastook to wit-ness the tennis championships. Thehalt, the lame and the blind, the meck,the charitable, the perverse, infantsin arms and doddering grandparentsall turned out, and the gathering be-came the most memorable in the his-tory of the colony. All the excitementof a whole summer's salmon boatraces crowded into one brief hour,would, if compared with Saturday'sevent, have been as a church funeralis to a fourth of July in New York.The tennis courts were lined twentydeep and sums of money as high asfifteen cents were bet with utterabandon. When the players made theirappearance, escorted to the courts bygroups of admirers, the excitement  | <ul> <li>which passed while the game was in progress, was selzed with convulsions and taken to hospital. There were no other casualities.</li> <li>*Steve also wore a white collar.</li> <li>OLD-FASHIONED BELIEVER.</li> <li>I'm a up an' down believer—never had a bit of doubt,</li> <li>Or tried to take the Gospel an' turn it wrong side out!</li> <li>I never ax no questions, or feel that faith'll fail.</li> <li>I'm han' in han' with Jonah, an' on good terms with the whale!</li> <li>I'm a up an' down believer—for they raised me that away,</li> <li>Had fam'ly pra'r fer breakfast an' dinner every day!</li> <li>Kaze Solomon had all them wives I never do condemn,</li> <li>Though I will admit I wonder how he</li> </ul>  | of Honor, W. A. Carey, of Malden,Mass., will visit the city this week. Heis a very prominent temperance workerbeing Grand Worthy Recorder, of theGrand Temple of Massachusetts, and atone time served in the common councilof his native city. Mr. Carey will visitthe several departments of the orderwhile in this city.Last evening's sermon at the Congre-gational church, Union street, was de-livered by Rev. Mr. Anthony, of Mil-ton, N. S. Calls have been extended toMr. Anthony by both the St. John andYarmouth churches. At present he isundecided which to accept, but will an-nounce his decision within the nextweek. He will leave for his home to-day. This was not Mr. Anthony's firstappearance in St. John, as he preachedhere about three years ago.John E. Moore, of the harbor com-mission, returned to the city at noon  | Jewish residents were present and de-spite the fact that it was Sunday, theparty made merry with wine and song.The marriage is said to be the culmin-ation of a romance which began whenthe couple were young and were livingin Germany.Lt. Col. H. H. McLean has been re-tained by the Dominion Coal intereststo act for them in their case with theDominion Steel Company. Col. Mc-Lean will leave today for Sydney,where the trial begins tomorrow andpromises to be long drawn out, as thecast is one of the most important, bothfrom a public and a legal standpoint,ever contested in a Canadian court.A message from St. Andrews lastnight stated that Sir William VanHorne, who is an interested party, willleave there this morning for Sydneyby special train.   | The Frank WLUNCHEIce cream, crRestaurant,arrangementsVICROLLThe LargeMos   |
| shortly after the opening of the matchplayed havoc with the scores and drovemany of the competitors to shelter.The winners were.A. Class-Capt. E. K. McKay91B. Class-Lieut, L. O. Bentley77C. Class-Lieut, F. H. Elliott60D. Class-Lieut, D. McArthur53The St John County Rifle Associa-tion will hold their annual competitionfor the Corporation cup and cash prizeson Saturday next, August 3rd.MARATHONS WONFROM PORTLANDSThe Marathon nine defeated the Port-tands in a nine inning contest on theVictoria grouds Saturday afteroon   | At Chicago-Chicago, 2; Boston, 5.National League Standing.Won, Lost. P.C.Chicago                | inhabitants, masculine, feminine andcanine, including transients andchronic sufferers from suburbanitis aswell as the few natives of whom thedistrict can boast, assembled on Sat-urday evening at Woolastook to wit-ness the tennis championships. Thehalt, the lame and the blind, the meek,the charitable, the pervorse, infantsin arms and doddering grandparentsall turned out, and the gathering be-came the most memorable in the his-tory of the colony. All the excitementof a whole summer's salmon boatraces crowded into one brief hour,would, if compared with Saturday'sevent, have been as a church funeralis to a fourth of July in New York.The tennis courts were lined twentydeep and sums of money as high asfifteen cents were bet with utterabandon. When the players made theirappearance, escorted to the courts bygroups of admirers, the excitementbecame even more intense, and eachperformer received a rousing ovation.   | <ul> <li>which passed while the game was in progress, was selzed with convulsions and taken to hospital. There were no other casualities.</li> <li>*Steve also wore a white collar.</li> <li>OLD-FASHIONED BELIEVER.</li> <li>I'm a up an' down believer—never had a bit of doubt,</li> <li>Or tried to take the Gospel an' turn it wrong side out!</li> <li>I never ax no questions, or feel that faith'll fail,</li> <li>I'm han' in han' with Jonah, an' on good terms with the whale!</li> <li>I'm a up an' down believer—for they raised me that away,</li> <li>Had fam'ly pra'r fer breakfast an' dinner every day!</li> <li>Kaze Solomon had all them wives I never do condemn,</li> <li>Though I will admit I wonder how he got along with them!</li> </ul>   | of Honor, W. A. Carey, of Malden,Mass., will visit the city this week. Heis a very prominent temperance workerbeing Grand Worthy Recorder, of theGrand Temple of Massachusetts, and atone time served in the common councilof his native city. Mr. Carey will visitthe several departments of the orderwhile in this city.Last evening's sermon at the Congre-gational church, Union street, was de-livered by Rev. Mr. Anthony, of Mil-ton, N. S. Calls have been extended toMr. Anthony by both the St. John andYarmouth churches. At present he isundecided which to accept, but will an-nounce his decision within the nextweek. He will leave for his home to-day, This was not Mr. Anthony's firstappearance in St. John, as he preachedhere about three years ago.  | Jewish residents were present and de-spite the fact that it was Sunday, thept rty made merry with wine and song.The marriage is said to be the culmin-ation of a romance which began whenthe couple were young and were livingin Germany.Lt. Col. H. H. McLean has been re-tained by the Dominion Coal intereststo act for them in their case with theDominion Steel Company. Col. Mc-Lean will leave today for Sydney,where the trial begins tomorrow andpromises to be long drawn out, as thecast is one of the most important, bothfrom a public and a legal standpoint,ever contested in a Canadian court.A message from St. Andrews lastnight stated that Sir William VanHorne, who is an interested party, willleave there this morning for Sydneyby special train.  | The Frank WLUNCHEIce cream, ccRestaurant,arrangementsVICROLLThe Large  |
| shortly after the opening of the matchplayed havoc with the scores and drovemany of the competitors to shelter.The winners were.A. Class-Capt. E. K. McKay91B. Class-Lleut, L. O. Bentley77C. Class-Lleut, F. H. Elliott60D. Class-Lleut, D. McArthur53The St John County Rifle Associa-tion will hold their annual competitionfor the Corporation cup and cash prizeson Saturday next, August 3rd.MARATHONS WONFROM PORTLANDSThe Marathon nine defeated the Port-lands in a nine inning contest on theVictoria grouds Saturday afteroonwith a score of 6 to 0. Murphy for thePortlands pitched a good game and  | At Chicago—Chicago, 2; Boston, 5.         National League Standing.         Won, Lost. P.C.         Chicago | inhabitants, masculine, feminine andcanine, including transients andchronic sufferers from suburbanitis aswell as the few natives of whom thedistrict can boast, assembled on Sat-urday evening at Woolastook to wit-ness the tennis championships. Thehalt, the lame and the blind, the meek,the charitable, the perverse, infantsin arms and doddering grandparentsall turned out, and the gathering be-came the most memorable in the his-tory of the colony. All the excitementof a whole summer's salmon boatraces crowded into one brief hour,would, if compared with Saturday'sevent, have been as a church funeralis to a fourth of July in New York.The tennis courts were lined twentydeep and sums of money as high asfifteen cents were bet with utterabandon. When the players made theirappearance, escorted to the courts bygroups of admirers, the excitementbecame even more intense, and eachperformer received a rousing ovation.They cleared for action. Sandy Ma-caulay when unwrapped, was found   | <ul> <li>which passed while the game was in progress, was selzed with convulsions and taken to hospital. There were no other casualties.</li> <li>*Steve also wore a white collar.</li> <li>OLD-FASHIONED BELIEVER.</li> <li>Im a up an' down believer—never had a bit of doubt,</li> <li>Or tried to take the Gospel an' turn it wrong side out!</li> <li>I never ax no questions, or feel that faith'll fail,</li> <li>I'm han' in han' with Jonah, an' on good terms with the whale!</li> <li>I'm a up an' down believer—for they raised me that away,</li> <li>Had fam'ly pra'r fer breakfast an' dinner every day!</li> <li>Kaze Solomon had all them wives I never do condemn,</li> <li>Though I will admit I wonder how he got along with them!</li> <li>It don't hurt me that Job had boils, an' axed for his release;</li> </ul>   | of Honor, W. A. Carey, of Malden,Mass., will visit the city this week. Heis a very prominent temperance workerbeing Grand Worthy Recorder, of theGrand Temple of Massachusetts, and atone time served in the common councilof his native city. Mr. Carey will visitthe several departments of the orderwhile in this city.Last evening's sermon at the Congre-gational church, Union street, was de-livered by Rev. Mr. Anthony, of Mil-ton, N. S. Calls have been extended toMr. Anthony by both the St. John andYarmouth churches. At present he isundecided which to accept, but will an-nounce his decision within the nextweek. He will leave for his home to-day. This was not Mr. Anthony's firstappearance in St. John, as he preachedhere about three years ago.John E. Moore, of the harbor com-mission, returned to the city at noonon Saturday. In regard to the dredg-  | Jewish residents were present and de-spite the fact that it was Sunday, theperty made merry with wine and song.The marriage is said to be the culmin-ation of a romance which began whenthe couple were young and were livingin Germany.Lt. Col. H. H. McLean has been re-tained by the Dominion Coal intereststo act for them in their case with theDominion Steel Company. Col. Mc-Lean will leave today for Sydney,where the trial begins tomorrow andpromises to be long drawn out, as thecast is one of the most important, bothfrom a public and a legal standpoint,ever contested in a Canadian court.A message from St. Andrews lastnight stated that Sir William VanHorne, who is an interested party, willleave there this morning for Sydneyby special train.   | The Frank WLUNCHEIce cream, crRestaurant,arrangementsVICROLLThe LargeMos   |
| shortly after the opening of the matchplayed havoc with the scores and drovemany of the competitors to shelter.The winners were.A. Class—Capt. E. K. McKay91B. Class—Lieut, L. O. Bentley77C. Class—Lieut, F. H. Elliott60D. Class—Lieut, D. McArthur53The St John County Rifle Associa-tion will hold their annual competitionfor the Corporation cup and cash prizeson Saturday next, August 3rd.MARATHONS WONERON PORTLANDSThe Marathon nine defeated the Port-lands in a nine inning contest on theNith a score of 6 to 0. Murphy for thePortlands pitched a good game andhad some nice curves, but the Port-  | At Chicago—Chicago, 2; Boston, 5.         National League Standing.         Won, Lost. P.C.         Chicago | inhabitants, masculine, feminine andcanine, including transients andchronic sufferers from suburbanitis aswell as the few natives of whom thedistrict can boast, assembled on Sat-urday evening at Woolastook to wit-ness the tennis championships. Thehalt, the lame and the blind, the meek,the charitable, the perverse, infantsin arms and doddering grandparentsall turned out, and the gathering be-came the most memorable in the his-tory of the colony. All the excitementof a whole summer's salmon boatraces crowded into one brief hour,would, if compared with Saturday'sevent, have been as a church funeralis to a fourth of July in New York.The tennis courts were lined twentydeep and sums of money as high asfifteen cents were bet with utterabandon. When the players made theirappearance, escorted to the courts bygroups of admirers, the excitementbecame even more intense, and eachperformer received a rousing ovation.They cleared for action. Sandy Ma-caulay, when unwrapped, was foundto be wearing a fire sale bargain suit,   | <ul> <li>which passed while the game was in progress, was selzed with convulsions and taken to hospital. There were no other casualties.</li> <li>*Steve also wore a white collar.</li> <li>OLD-FASHIONED BELIEVER.</li> <li>I'm a up an' down believer—never had a bit of doubt,</li> <li>Or tried to take the Gospel an' turn it wrong side out!</li> <li>I never ax no questions, or feel that faith'll fail,</li> <li>I'm han' in han' with Jonah, an' on good terms with the whale!</li> <li>I'm a up an' down believer—for they raised me that away,</li> <li>Had fam'ly pra'r fer breakfast an' dinner every day!</li> <li>Kaze Solomon had all them wives I never do condemn,</li> <li>Though I will admit I wonder how he got along with them!</li> <li>It don't hurt me that Job had boils, an' axed for his release;</li> <li>I kin bear his great afflictions with the</li> </ul>   | of Honor, W. A. Carey, of Malden,Mass., will visit the city this week. Heis a very prominent temperance workerbeing Grand Worthy Recorder, of theGrand Temple of Massachusetts, and atone time served in the common councilof his native city. Mr. Carey will visitthe several departments of the orderwhile in this city.Last evening's sermon at the Congre-gational church, Union street, was de-livered by Rev. Mr. Anthony, of Mil-ton, N. S. Calls have been extended toMr. Anthony by both the St. John andYarmouth churches. At present he isundecided which to accept, but will an-nounce his decision within the nextweek. He will leave for his home to-day. This was not Mr. Anthony's firstappearance in St. John, as he preachedhere about three years ago.John E. Moore, of the harbor com-mission, returned to the city at noonon Saturday. In regard to the dredg-ing, Mr. Moore said that the ministerand acting minister of the departmentwere out of the city and thereforenothing could definitely be promised.   | Jewish residents were present and de-spite the fact that it was Sunday, thept rty made merry with wine and song.The marriage is said to be the culmin-ation of a romance which began whenthe couple were young and were livingin Germany.Lt. Col. H. H. McLean has been re-tained by the Dominion Coal intereststo act for them in their case with theDominion Steel Company. Col. Mc-Lean will leave today for Sydney,where the trial begins tomorrow andpromises to be long drawn out, as thecast is one of the most important, bothfrom a public and a legal standpoint,ever contested in a Canadian court.A message from St. Andrews lastnight stated that Sir William VanHorne, who is an interested party, willleave there this morning for Sydneyby special train.  | The Frank WLUNCHEIce cream, ccRestaurant,arrangementsVICROLLThe LargeMos   |
| shortly after the opening of the matchplayed havoc with the scores and drovemany of the competitors to shelter.The winners were.A. Class-Capt. E. K. McKay91B. Class-Lleut, L. O. Bentley77C. Class-Lleut, F. H. Elliott60D. Class-Lleut, D. McArthur53The St. John County Rifle Associa-tion will hold their annual competitionfor the Corporation cup and cash prizeson Saturday next, August 3rd.MARATHONS WONERON PORTLANDSThe Marathon nipe defeated the Port-lands in a nine inning contest on theVictoria grouds Saturday afteroonwith a score of 6 to 0. Murphy for thePortlands pitched a good game andhad some nice curves, but the Port-land battery was too weak to be effec-tive. The Marathons made some good  | At Chicago-Chicago, 2; Boston, 5.National League Standing.Won, Lost. P.C.Chicago                | inhabitants, masculine, feminine andcanine, including transients andchronic sufferers from suburbanitis aswell as the few natives of whom thedistrict can boast, assembled on Sat-urday evening at Woolastook to wit-ness the tennis championships. Thehalt, the lame and the blind, the meck,the charitable, the perverse, infantsin arms and doddering grandparentsall turned out, and the gathering be-came the most memorable in the his-tory of the colony. All the excitementof a whole summer's salmon boatraces crowded into one brief hour,would, if compared with Saturday'sevent, have been as a church funeralis to a fourth of July in New York.The tennis courts were lined twentydeep and sums of money as high asfifteen cents were bet with utterabandon. When the players made theirappearance, escorted to the courts bygroups of admirers, the excitementbecame even more intense, and eachperformer received a rousing ovation.They cleared for action. Sandy Ma-caulay, when unwrapped, was foundto be wearing a fire sale bargain suit,only slightly damaged, but looking asif it had been brought down the back  | <ul> <li>which passed while the game was in progress, was selzed with convulsions and taken to hospital. There were no other casualities.</li> <li>*Steve also wore a white collar.</li> <li>OLD-FASHIONED BELIEVER.</li> <li>I'm a up an' down believer—never had a bit of doubt,</li> <li>Or tried to take the Gospel an' turn it wrong side out!</li> <li>I never ax no questions, or feel that faith'll fail,</li> <li>I'm a up an' down believer—for they raised me that away,</li> <li>Had fam'ly pra'r fer breakfast an' dinner every day!</li> <li>Kaze Solomon had all them wives I never do condemn,</li> <li>Though I will admit I wonder how he got along with them!</li> <li>It don't hurt me that Job had boils, an' axed for his release;</li> <li>I kin bear his great afflictions with the most amazin' peace!</li> <li>An' as fer Joshua keepin' of the sun</li> </ul>  | of Honor, W. A. Carey, of Malden,Mass., will visit the city this week. Heis a very prominent temperance workerbeing Grand Worthy Recorder, of theGrand Temple of Massachusetts, and atone time served in the common councilof his native city, Mr. Carey will visitthe several departments of the orderwhile in this city.Last evening's sermon at the Congre-gational church, Union street, was de-livered by Rev. Mr. Anthony, of Mil-ton, N. S. Calls have been extended toMr. Anthony by both the St. John andYarmouth churches. At present he isundecided which to accept, but will an-nounce his decision within the nextweek. He will leave for his home to-day. This was not Mr. Anthony's firstappearance in St. John, as he preachedhere about three years ago.John E. Moore, of the harbor com-mission, returned to the city at noonon Saturday. In regard to the dredg-ing, Mr. Moore said that the ministerand acting minister of the departmentwere out of the city and thereforenothing could definitely be promised.The delegation, however, interviewedSir Wilfrid Laurier, who said that the   | Jewish residents were present and de-spite the fact that it was Sunday, theparty made merry with wine and song.The marriage is said to be the culmin-ation of a romance which began whenthe couple were young and were livingin Germany.Lt. Col. H. H. McLean has been re-tained by the Dominion Coal intereststo act for them in their case with theDominion Steel Company. Col. Mc-Lean will leave today for Sydney,where the trial begins tomorrow andpromises to be long drawn out, as thecast is one of the most important, bothfrom a public and a legal standpoint,ever contested in a Canadian court.A message from St. Andrews lastnight stated that Sir William VanHorne, who is an interested party, willleave there this morning for Sydneyby special train.   | The Frank WLUNCHEIce cream, crRestaurant,arrangementsVICROLLThe LargeMos   |
| shortly after the opening of the matchplayed havoc with the scores and drovemany of the competitors to shelter.The winners were.A. Class-Capt. E. K. McKay91B. Class-Lleut, L. O. Bentley77C. Class-Lleut, D. McArthur53The St John County Fifle Associa-tion will hold their annual competitionfor the Corporation cup and cash prizeson Saturday next, August 3rd.MARATHONS WONERON DORTLANDSThe Marathon nipe defeated the Port-lands in a nine inning contest on theNictoria grouds Saturday afteroonwith a score of 6 to 0. Murphy for thePortlands pitched a good game andhad some nice curves, but the Port-land battery was too weak to be effec-tive. The Marathons made some goodhits at the right time, and this won  | At Chicago-Chicago, 2; Boston, 5.National League Standing.Won, Lost. P.C.Chicago                | inhabitants, masculine, feminine andcanine, including transients andchronic sufforers from suburbanitis aswell as the few natives of whom thedistrict can boast, assembled on Sat-urday evening at Woolastook to wit-ness the tennis championships. Thehalt, the lame and the blind, the meek,the charitable, the perverse, infantsin arms and doddering grandparentsall turned out, and the gathering be-came the most memorable in the his-tory of the colony. All the excitementof a whole summer's salmon boatraces crowded into one brief hour,would, if compared with Saturday'sevent, have been as a church funeralis to a fourth of July in New York.The tennis courts were lined twentydeep and sums of money as high asfiteen cents were bet with utterabandon. When the players made theirappearance, escorted to the courts bygroups of admirers, the excitementbecame even more intense, and eachperformer received a rousing ovation.They cleared for action. Sandy Ma-caulay, when unwrapped, was foundto be wearing a fire sale bargain suit,only slightly damaged, but looking asif it had been brought down the backretains His narther Steve McAvity  | <ul> <li>which passed while the game was in progress, was selzed with convulsions and taken to hospital. There were no other casualities.</li> <li>*Steve also wore a white collar.</li> <li>OLD-FASHIONED BELIEVER.</li> <li>I'm a up an' down believer—never had a bit of doubt,</li> <li>Or tried to take the Gospel an' turn it wrong side out!</li> <li>I never ax no questions, or feel that faith'll fail,</li> <li>I'm a up an' down believer—for they raised me that away,</li> <li>Had fam'ly pra'r fer breakfast an' dinner every day!</li> <li>Kaze Solomon had all them wives I never do condemn,</li> <li>Though I will admit I wonder how he got along with them!</li> <li>It don't hurt me that Job had boils, an' axed for his release;</li> <li>I kin bear his great afflictions with the most amazin' peace!</li> <li>An' as fer Joshua keepin' of the sun this side the line,</li> </ul>  | of Honor, W. A. Carey, of Malden,Mass., will visit the city this week. Heis a very prominent temperance workerbeing Grand Worthy Recorder, of theGrand Temple of Massachusetts, and atone time served in the common councilof his native city. Mr. Carey will visitthe several departments of the orderwhile in this city.Last evening's sermon at the Congre-gational church, Union street, was de-livered by Rev. Mr. Anthony, of Mil-ton, N. S. Calls have been extended toMr. Anthony by both the St. John andYarmouth churches. At present he isundecided which to accept, but will an-nounce his decision within the nextweek. He will leave for his home to-day. This was not Mr. Anthony's firstappearance in St. John, as he preachedhere about three years ago.John E. Moore, of the harbor com-mission, returned to the city at noonon Saturday. In regard to the dredg-ing, Mr. Moore said that the ministerand acting minister of the departmentwere out of the city and thereforenothing could definitely be promised.The delegation, however, interviewedSir Wilfrid Laurier, who said that thegovernment had always done what it   | Jewish residents were present and de-spite the fact that it was Sunday, theperty made merry with wine and song.The marriage is said to be the culmin-ation of a romance which began whenthe couple were young and were livingin Germany.I.t. Col. H. H. McLean has been re-tained by the Dominion Coal intereststo act for them in their case with theDominion Steel Company. Col. Mc-Lean will leave today for Sydney,where the trial begins tomorrow andpromises to be long drawn out, as thecast is one of the most important, bothfrom a public and a legal standpoint,ever contested in a Canadian court.A message from St. Andrews lastnight stated that Sir William VanHorne, who is an interested party, willleave there this morning for Sydneyby special train.JOHN W. KEECH.  | The Frank WLUNCHEIce cream, crRestaurant,arrangementsVICROLLThe LargeMosBIn Atter  |
| shortly after the opening of the matchplayed havoc with the scores and drovemany of the competitors to shelter.The winners were.A. Class—Capt. E. K. McKay91B. Class—Lieut, L. O. Bentley77C. Class—Lieut, F. H. Elliott60D. Class—Lieut, D. McArthur53The St. John County Fifle Associa-tion will hold their annual competitionfor the Corporation cup and cash prizeson Saturday next, August 3rd.MARATHONS WONERON PORTLANDSThe Marathon nine defeated the Port-lands in a nine inning contest on theNictoria grouds Saturday afteroonwith a score of 6 to 0. Murphy for thePortlands pitched a good game andhad some nice curves, but the Fort-land battery was too weak to be effec-tive. The Marathons made some goodhits at the right time, and this wonthe day. Copeland, the Marathon shortstop, played a good game. The line up  | At Chicago-Chicago, 2; Boston, 5.National League Standing.Won, Lost. P.C.Chicago                | inhabitants, masculine, feminine andcanine, including transients andchronic sufferers from suburbanitis aswell as the few natives of whom thedistrict can boast, assembled on Sat-urday evening at Woolastook to wit-ness the tennis championships. Thehalt, the lame and the blind, the meek,the charitable, the perverse, infantsin arms and doddering grandparentsall turned out, and the gathering be-came the most memorable in the his-tory of the colony. All the excitementof a whole summer's salmon boatraces crowded into one brief hour,would, if compared with Saturday'sevent, have been as a church funeralis to a fourth of July in New York.The tennis courts were lined twentydeep and sums of money as high asfifteen cents were bet with utterabandon. When the players made theirappearance, escorted to the courts bygroups of admirers, the excitementbecame even more intense, and eachperformer received a rousing ovation.They cleared for action. Sandy Ma-caulay, when unwrapped, was foundto be wearing a fire sale bargain suit,only slightly damaged, but looking asif it had been brought down the backstairs. His partner Steve McAvitywas more gaudily attired in a pinknightshirt, two cigars, low-necked   | <ul> <li>which passed while the game was in progress, was selzed with convulsions and taken to hospital. There were no other casualties.</li> <li>*Steve also wore a white collar.</li> <li>OLD-FASHIONED BELIEVER.</li> <li>I'm a up an' down believer—never had a bit of doubt,</li> <li>Or tried to take the Gospel an' turn it wrong side out!</li> <li>I never ax no questions, or feel that faith'll fail,</li> <li>I'm a up an' down believer—for they raised me that away,</li> <li>Had fam'ly pra'r fer breakfast an' dinner every day!</li> <li>Kaze Solomon had all them wives I never do condemn,</li> <li>Though I will admit I wonder how he got along with them!</li> <li>It don't hurt me that Job had boils, an' axed for his release;</li> <li>I kin bear his great afflictions with the most amazin' peace!</li> <li>An' as fer Joshua keepin' of the sun this side the line,</li> <li>He knowed what he was doin' an' it's no affair of mine.</li> </ul>  | of Honor, W. A. Carey, of Malden,Mass., will visit the city this week. Heis a very prominent temperance workerbeing Grand Worthy Recorder, of theGrand Temple of Massachusetts, and atone time served in the common councilof his native city. Mr. Carey will visitthe several departments of the orderwhile in this city.Last evening's sermon at the Congre-gational church, Union street, was de-livered by Rev. Mr. Anthony, of Mil-ton, N. S. Calls have been extended toMr. Anthony by both the St. John andYarmouth churches. At present he isundecided which to accept, but will an-nounce his decision within the nextweek. He will leave for his home to-day. This was not Mr. Anthony's firstappearance in St. John, as he preachedhere about three years ago.John E. Moore, of the harbor com-mission, returned to the city at noonon Saturday. In regard to the dredg-ing, Mr. Moore said that the ministerand acting minister of the departmentwere out of the city and thereforenothing could definitely be promised.The delegation, however, interviewedSir Wilfrid Laurier, who said that thegovernment had always done what itcould to assist this port and that hehad little doubt the request of the delegation the delegation.  | Jewish residents were present and de-spite the fact that it was Sunday, thept rty made merry with wine and song.The marriage is said to be the culmin-ation of a romance which began whenthe couple were young and were livingin Germany.It. Col. H. H. McLean has been re-tained by the Dominion Coal intereststo act for them in their case with theDominion Steel Company. Col. Mc-Lean will leave today for Sydney,where the trial begins tomorrow andpromises to be long drawn out, as thecast is one of the most important, bothfrom a public and a legal standpoint,ever contested in a Canadian court.A message from St. Andrews lastnight stated that Sir William VanHorne, who is an interested party, willleave there this morning for Sydneyby special train.JOHN W. KEECH.WOODSTOCK, July 26-John W.Keech died here this morning of ty-   | The Frank WLUNCHEIce cream, crRestaurant,arrangementsVICROLLThe LargeMosBIn AttenTHE   |
| shortly after the opening of the matchplayed havoc with the scores and drovemany of the competitors to shelter.The winners were.A. Class-Capt. E. K. McKay91B. Class-Lieut, L. O. Bentley77C. Class-Lieut, P. H. Elliott60D. Class-Lieut, D. McArthur53The St John County Fifie Associa-tion will hold their annual competitionfor the Corporation cup and cash prizeson saturday next, August 3rd.MARATHONS WONERON DOBTIONSThe Marathon nipe defeated the Port-fands in a nine inning contest on theNictoria grouds Saturday afteroonwith a score of 6 to 0. Murphy for thePortlands pitched a good game andhad some nice curves, but the Port-land battery was too weak to be effec-tive. The Marathons made some goodhits at the right time, and this wonthe day. Copeland, the Marathon shortstop, played a good game. The line upwas as follows:Net Marathons. P. M. Y. A.                           | At Chicago-Chicago, 2; Boston, 5.National League Standing.Won, Lost. P.C.Chicago                | inhabitants, masculine, feminine andcanine, including transients andchronic sufferers from suburbanitis aswell as the few natives of whom thedistrict can boast, assembled on Sat-urday evening at Woolastook to wit-ness the tennis championships. Thehalt, the lame and the blind, the meck,the charitable, the perverse, infantsin arms and doddering grandparentsall turned out, and the gathering be-came the most memorable in the his-tory of the colony. All the excitementof a whole summer's salmon boatraces crowded into one brief hour,would, if compared with Saturday'sevent, have been as a church funeralis to a fourth of July in New York.The tennis courts were lined twentydeep and sums of money as high asfifteen cents were bet with utterabandon. When the players made theirappearance, escorted to the courts bygroups of admirers, the excitementbecame even more intense, and eachperformer received a rousing ovation.They cleared for action. Sandy Ma-caulay, when unwrapped, was foundto be wearing a fire sale bargain suit,only slightly damaged, but looking asif it had been brought down the backstairs. His partner Steve McAvitywas more gaudily attired in a pinknightshirt, two cigars, low-neckedreacts.  | <ul> <li>which passed while the game was in progress, was selzed with convulsions and taken to hospital. There were no other casualities.</li> <li>*Steve also wore a white collar.</li> <li>OLD-FASHIONED BELIEVER.</li> <li>I'm a up an' down believer—never had a bit of doubt,</li> <li>Or tried to take the Gospel an' turn it wrong side out!</li> <li>I never ax no questions, or feel that faith'll fail,</li> <li>I'm a up an' down believer—for they raised me that away,</li> <li>Had fam'ly pra'r fer breakfast an' dinner every day!</li> <li>Kaze Solomon had all them wives I never do condemn,</li> <li>Though I will admit I wonder how he got along with them!</li> <li>It don't hurt me that Job had boils, an' axed for his release;</li> <li>I kin bear his great afflictions with the most amazin' peace!</li> <li>An' as fer Joshua keepin' of the sun this side the line,</li> <li>He knowed what he was doin' an' it's no affair of mine.</li> </ul>   | of Honor, W. A. Carey, of Malden,Mass., will visit the city this week. Heis a very prominent temperance workerbeing Grand Worthy Recorder, of theGrand Temple of Massachusetts, and atone time served in the common councilof his native city, Mr. Carey will visitthe several departments of the orderwhile in this city.Last evening's sermon at the Congre-gational church, Union street, was de-livered by Rev. Mr. Anthony, of Mil-ton, N. S. Calls have been extended toMr. Anthony by both the St. John andYarmouth churches. At present he isundecided which to accept, but will an-nounce his decision within the nextweek. He will leave for his home to-day. This was not Mr. Anthony's firstappearance in St. John, as he preachedhere about three years ago.John E. Moore, of the harbor com-mission, returned to the city at noonon Saturday. In regard to the dredg-ing, Mr. Moore said that the ministerand acting minister of the departmentwere out of the city and thereforenothing could definitely be promised.The delegation, however, interviewedSir Wilfrid Laurier, who said that thesovernment had always done what itcould to assist this port and that hehad fittle doubt the request of the dele-gation would be granted. This will will would be granted.  | Jewish residents were present and de-spite the fact that it was Sunday, theparty made merry with wine and song.The marriage is said to be the culmin-ation of a romance which began whenthe couple were young and were livingin Germany.I.t. Col. H. H. McLean has been re-tained by the Dominion Coal intereststo act for them in their case with theDominion Steel Company. Col. Mc-Lean will leave today for Sydney,where the trial begins tomorrow andpromises to be long drawn out, as thecast is one of the most important, bothfrom a public and a legal standpoint,ever contested in a Canadian court.A message from St. Andrews lastnight stated that Sir William VanHorne, who is an interested party, willleave there this morning for Sydneyby special train.JOHN W. KEECH.WOODSTOCK, July 26-John W.Keech died here this morning of ty-phoid-pneumonia. He was 26 years of  | The Frank WLUNCHEIce cream, crRestaurant,arrangementsVICROLLThe LargoMosBIn AttenTHECUNID  |
| shortly after the opening of the matchplayed havoc with the scores and drovemany of the competitors to shelter.The winners were.A. Class—Capt. E. K. McKay91B. Class—Lieut, L. O. Bentley77C. Class—Lieut, P. H. Elliott60D. Class—Lieut, D. McArthur53The St John County Fifle Associa-tion will hold their annual competitionfor the Corporation cup and cash prizeson saturday next, August 3rd.MARATHONS WONERON DORTLANDSThe Marathon nine defeated the Port-ands in a nine inning contest on theVictoria grouds Saturday afteroonwith a score of 6 to 0. Murphy for thePortlands pitched a good game andhad some nice curves, but the Port-land battery was too weak to be effec-tive. The Marathons made some goodhits at the right time, and this wonthe day. Copeland, the Marathon shortstop, played a good game. The line upwas as follows:Marathons. P. M. Y. A.Pitcher.                   | At Chicago-Chicago, 2; Boston, 5.National League Standing.Won, Lost. P.C.Chicago                | inhabitants, masculine, feminine andcanine, including transients andchronic sufferers from suburbanitis aswell as the few natives of whom thedistrict can boast, assembled on Sat-urday evening at Woolastook to wit-ness the tennis championships. Thehalt, the lame and the blind, the meek,the charitable, the perverse, infantsin arms and doddering grandparentsall turned out, and the gathering be-came the most memorable in the his-tory of the colony. All the excitementof a whole summer's salmon boatraces crowded into one brief hour,would, if compared with Saturday'sevent, have been as a church funeralis to a fourth of July in New York.The tennis courts were lined twentydeep and sums of money as high asfiteen cents were bet with utterabandon. When the players made theirappearance, escorted to the courts bygroups of admirers, the excitementbecame even more intense, and eachperformer received a rousing ovation.They cleared for action. Sandy Ma-caulay, when unwrapped, was foundto be wearing a fire sale bargain suit,only slightly damaged, but looking asif it had been brought down the backstairs. His partner Steve McAvitywas more gaudily attired in a pinkhightshirt, two cigars, low-neckedpants and a surcingle. His attenuatedform seemed to shrink into insignifi-  | <ul> <li>which passed while the game was in progress, was selzed with convulsions and taken to hospital. There were no other casualties.</li> <li>*Steve also wore a white collar.</li> <li>OLD-FASHIONED BELIEVER.</li> <li>I'm a up an' down believer—never had a bit of doubt,</li> <li>Or tried to take the Gospel an' turn it wrong side out!</li> <li>I never ax no questions, or feel that faith'll fail,</li> <li>I'm a up an' down believer—for they raised me that away,</li> <li>Had fam'ly pra'r fer breakfast an' dinner every day!</li> <li>Kaze Solomon had all them wives I never do condem,</li> <li>Though I will admit I wonder how he got along with them!</li> <li>It don't hurt me that Job had boils, an' axed for his release;</li> <li>I kin bear his great afflictions with the most amazin' peace!</li> <li>An' as fer Joshua keepin' of the sun this side the line,</li> <li>He knowed what he was doin' an' it's no affair of mine.</li> <li>I ailus take the Gospel as I find it low an' high!</li> </ul>   | of Honor, W. A. Carey, of Malden,Mass., will visit the city this week. Heis a very prominent temperance workerbeing Grand Worthy Recorder, of theGrand Temple of Massachusetts, and atone time served in the common councilof his native city. Mr. Carey will visitthe several departments of the orderwhile in this city.Last evening's sermon at the Congre-gational church, Union street, was de-livered by Rev. Mr. Anthony, of Mil-ton, N. S. Calls have been extended toMr. Anthony by both the St. John andYarmouth churches. At present he isundecided which to accept, but will an-nounce his decision within the nextweek. He will leave for his home to-day. This was not Mr. Anthony's firstappearance in St. John, as he preachedhere about three years ago.John E. Moore, of the harbor com-mission, returned to the city at noonon Saturday. In regard to the dredg-ing, Mr. Moore said that the ministerand acting minister of the departmentwere out of the city and thereforenothing could definitely be promised.The delegation, however, interviewedSir Wilfrid Laurier, who said that thegovernment had always done what itcould to assist this port and that hehad little doubt the request of the dele-gation would be granted. This willprobably mean that both dredges willbe put at work on the site of the new  | Jewish residents were present and de-spite the fact that it was Sunday, thept rty made merry with wine and song.The marriage is said to be the culmin-ation of a romance which began whenthe couple were young and were livingin Germany.I.t. Col. H. H. McLean has been re-tained by the Dominion Coal intereststo act for them in their case with theDominion Steel Company. Col. Mc-Lean will leave today for Sydney,where the trial begins tomorrow andpromises to be long drawn out, as thecast is one of the most important, bothfrom a public and a legal standpoint,ever contested in a Canadian court.A message from St. Andrews lastnight stated that Sir William VanHorne, who is an interested party, willleave there this morning for Sydneyby special train.JOHN W. KEECH.WOODSTOCK, July 26–John W.Keech died here this morning of ty-phoid-pneumonia. He was 26 years ofage and a miller by trade. He is sur-vived by his mother, two sisters, and a   | The Frank WLUNCHEIce cream, crRestaurant,arrangementsVICROLLThe LargeMosBIn AttenTHE   |
| shortly after the opening of the matchplayed havoc with the scores and drovemany of the competitors to shelter.The winners were.A. Class—Capt. E. K. McKay91B. Class—Lieut, L. O. Bentley77C. Class—Lieut, P. H. Elliott60D. Class—Lieut, D. McArthur53The St. John County Rifle Associa-tion will hold their annual competitionfor the Corporation cup and cash prizeson Saturday next, August 3rd.MARATHONS WONERON PORTLANDSThe Marathon nine defeated the Port-funds in a nine inning contest on theVictoria grouds Saturday afteroonwith a score of 6 to 0. Murphy for thePortlands pitched a good game andhad some nice curves, but the Port-land battery was too weak to be effec-tive. The Marathons made some goodhits at the right time, and this wonthe day. Copeland, the Marathon shortstop, played a good game. The line upwas as follows:Marathons. P. M. Y. A.Pitcher.MooneyMurphy | At Chicago-Chicago, 2; Boston, 5.National League Standing.Won, Lost. P.C.Chicago                | inhabitants, masculine, feminine andcanine, including translents andchronic sufferers from suburbanitis aswell as the few natives of whom thedistrict can boast, assembled on Sat-urday evening at Woolastook to wit-ness the tennis championships. Thehalt, the lame and the blind, the meck,the charitable, the perverse, infantsin arms and doddering grandparentsall turned out, and the gathering be-came the most memorable in the his-tory of the colony. All the excitementof a whole summer's salmon boatraces crowded into one brief hour,would, if compared with Saturday'sevent, have been as a church funeralis to a fourth of July in New York.The tennis courts were lined twentydeep and sums of money as high asfifteen cents were bet with utterabandon. When the players made theirappearance, escorted to the courts bygroups of admirers, the excitementbecame even more intense, and eachperformer received a rousing ovation.They cleared for action. Sandy Ma-caulay, when unwrapped, was foundto be wearing a fire sale bargain suit,only slightly damaged, but looking asif it had been brought down the backstairs. His partner Steve McAvitywas more gaudily attired in a pinknightshirt, two cigars, low-neckedpants and a surcingle. His attenuatedform seemed te shrink into insignifi-cance beside that of his ponderousassociate, but as if to make up forwhen the site as unknown.   | <ul> <li>which passed while the game was in progress, was selzed with convulsions and taken to hospital. There were no other casualites.</li> <li>*Steve also wore a white collar.</li> <li>OLD-FASHIONED BELIEVER.</li> <li>I'm a up an' down believer—never had a bit of doubt,</li> <li>Or tried to take the Gospel an' turn it wrong side out!</li> <li>I never ax no questions, or feel that faith'll fail,</li> <li>I'm a up an' down believer—for they raised me that away,</li> <li>Had fam'ly pra'r fer breakfast an' dinner every day!</li> <li>Kaze Solomon had all them wives I never do condemn,</li> <li>Though I will admit I wonder how he got along with them!</li> <li>It don't hurt me that Job had bolls, an' axed for his release;</li> <li>I kin bear his great afflictions with the most amazin' peace!</li> <li>An' as fer Joshua keepin' of the sun this side the line,</li> <li>He knowed what he was doin' an' it's no affair of mine.</li> <li>I ailus take the Gospel as I find it low an' high!</li> <li>I never had a quarrel' with a rainbow in the sky:</li> </ul>   | of Honor, W. A. Carey, of Malden,Mass., will visit the city this week. Heis a very prominent temperance workerbeing Grand Worthy Recorder, of theGrand Temple of Massachusetts, and atone time served in the common councilof his native city. Mr. Carey will visitthe several departments of the orderwhile in this city.Last evening's sermon at the Congre-gational church, Union street, was de-livered by Rev. Mr. Anthony, of Mil-ton, N. S. Calls have been extended toMr. Anthony by both the St. John andYarmouth churches. At present he isundecided which to accept, but will an-nounce his decision within the nextweek. He will leave for his home to-day. This was not Mr. Anthony's firstappearance in St. John, as he preachedhere about three years ago.John E. Moore, of the harbor com-mission, returned to the city at noonon Saturday. In regard to the dredg-ing, Mr. Moore said that the ministerand acting minister of the departmentwere out of the city and thereforenothing could definitely be promised.The delegation, however, interviewedSir Wilfrid Laurier, who said that thegovernment had always done what itcould to assist this port and that hehad little doubt the request of the dele-gation would be granted. This willprobably mean that both dredges will   | Jewish residents were present and de-spite the fact that it was Sunday, thept rty made merry with wine and song.The marriage is said to be the culmin-ation of a romance which began whenthe couple were young and were livingin Germany.Lt. Col. H. H. McLean has been re-tained by the Dominion Coal intereststo act for them in their case with theDominion Steel Company. Col. Mc-Lean will leave today for Sydney,where the trial begins tomorrow andpromises to be long drawn out, as thecast is one of the most important, bothfrom a public and a legal standpoint,ever contested in a Canadian court.A message from St. Andrews lastnight stated that Sir William VanHorne, who is an interested party, willleave there this morning for Sydneyby special train.JOHN W. KEECH.WOODSTOCK, July 26-John W.Keech died here this morning of ty-phoid-pneumonia. He was 26 years ofage and a miller by trade. He is sur-vived by his mother, two sisters, and abrother.  | The Frank WLUNCHEIce cream, crRestaurant,arrangementsVICROLLThe LargoMosBIn AttenTHECUNID  |
| shortly after the opening of the matchplayed havoe with the scores and drovemany of the competitors to shelter.The winners were.A. Class—Capt. E. K. McKay91B. Class—Lieut, L. O. Bentley77C. Class—Lieut, P. H. Elliott60D. Class—Lieut, D. McArthur53The St. John County Rifle Associa-tion will hold their annual competitionfor the Corporation cup and cash prizeson Saturday next, August 3rd.MARATHONS WONERON DORTLANDSThe Marathon nine defeated the Port-lands in a nine inning contest on theNictoria grouds Saturday afteroonwith a score of 6 to 0. Murphy for thePortlands pitched a good game andhad some nice curves, but the Fort-land battery was too weak to be effec-tive. The Marathons made some goodhits at the right time, and this wonthe day. Copeland, the Marathon shortstop, played a good game. The line upwas as follows:Marathons. P. M. Y. A.Pitcher.                 | At Chicago-Chicago, 2; Boston, 5.National League Standing.Won, Lost. P.C.Chicago                | inhabitants, masculine, feminine andcanine, including translents andchronic sufferers from suburbanitis aswell as the few natives of whom thedistrict can boast, assembled on Sat-urday evening at Woolastook to wit-ness the tennis championships. Thehalt, the lame and the blind, the meek,the charitable, the perverse, infantsin arms and doddering grandparentsall turned out, and the gathering be-came the most memorable in the his-tory of the colony. All the excitementof a whole summer's salmon boatraces crowded into one brief hour,would, if compared with Saturday'sevent, have been as a church funeralis to a fourth of July in New York.The tennis courts were lined twentydeep and sums of money as high asfifteen cents were bet with utterabandon. When the players made theirappearance, escorted to the courts bygroups of admirers, the excitementbecame even more intense, and eachperformer received a rousing ovation.They cleared for action. Sandy Ma-caulay, when unwrapped, was foundto be wearing a fire sale bargain suit,only slightly damaged, but looking asif it had been brought down the backstairs. His partner Steve McAvitywas more gaudily attired in a pinknightshirt, two cigars, low-neckedpants and a surcingle. His attenuatedform seemed te shrink into insignifi-cance beside that of his ponderousassociate, but as if to make up forother deficiencies, Steve's sunkenchest was decorated with many med-  | <ul> <li>which passed while the game was in progress, was selzed with convulsions and taken to hospital. There were no other casualites.</li> <li>*Steve also wore a white collar.</li> <li>OLD-FASHIONED BELIEVER.</li> <li>I'm a up an' down believer—never had a bit of doubt,</li> <li>Or tried to take the Gospel an' turn it wrong side out!</li> <li>I never ax no questions, or feel that faith'll fail,</li> <li>I'm a up an' down believer—for they raised me that away,</li> <li>Had fam'ly pra'r fer breakfast an' dinner every day!</li> <li>Kaze Solomon had all them wives I never do condemn,</li> <li>Though I will admit I wonder how he got along with them!</li> <li>It don't hurt me that Job had boils, an' axed for his release;</li> <li>I kin bear his great afflictions with the most amazin' peace!</li> <li>An' as fer Joshua keepin' of the sun this side the line,</li> <li>He knowed what he was doin' an' it's no affair of mine.</li> <li>I ailus take the Gospel as I find it low an' high!</li> <li>I never had a quarrel with a rainbow in the sky;</li> </ul>  | of Honor, W. A. Carey, of Malden,Mass., will visit the city this week. Heis a very prominent temperance workerbeing Grand Worthy Recorder, of theGrand Temple of Massachusetts, and atone time served in the common councilof his native city. Mr. Carey will visitthe several departments of the orderwhile in this city.Last evening's sermon at the Congre-gational church, Union street, was de-livered by Rev. Mr. Anthony, of Mil-ton, N. S. Calls have been extended toMr. Anthony by both the St. John andYarmouth churches. At present he isundecided which to accept, but will an-nounce his decision within the nextweek. He will leave for his home to-day. This was not Mr. Anthony's firstappearance in St. John, as he preachedhere about three years ago.John E. Moore, of the harbor com-mission, returned to the city at noonon Saturday. In regard to the dredg-ing, Mr. Moore said that the ministerand acting minister of the departmentwere out of the city and thereforenothing could definitely be promised.The delegation, however, interviewedSir Wilfrid Laurier, who said that thegovernment had always done what itcould to assist this port and that hehad little doubt the request of the dele-gation would be granted. This willprobably mean that both dredges willbe put at work on the site of the newwharf.  | Jewish residents were present and de-spite the fact that it was Sunday, thept rty made merry with wine and song.The marriage is said to be the culmin-ation of a romance which began whenthe couple were young and were livingin Germany.Lt. Col. H. H. McLean has been re-tained by the Dominion Coal intereststo act for them in their case with theDominion Steel Company. Col. Mc-Lean will leave today for Sydney,where the trial begins tomorrow andpromises to be long drawn out, as thecast is one of the most important, bothfrom a public and a legal standpoint,ever contested in a Canadian court.A message from St. Andrews lastnight stated that Sir William VanHorne, who is an interested party, willleave there this morning for Sydneyby special train.JOHN W. KEECH.WOODSTOCK, July 26-John W.Keech died here this morning of ty-phoid-pneumonia. He was 26 years ofage and a miller by trade. He is sur-vived by his mother, two sisters, and abrother.CHARES R ASHLEY.The death occurred at Eastport Fri-   | The Frank WLUNCHEIce cream, crRestaurant,arrangementsVICROLLThe LargeMosBIn AttenTHE BBContinuo  |
| shortly after the opening of the matchplayed havoe with the scores and drovemany of the competitors to shelter.The winners were.A. Class—Capt. E. K. McKay91B. Class—Lieut, L. O. Bentley  | At Chicago-Chicago, 2; Boston, 5.National League Standing.Won, Lost. P.C.Chicago                | inhabitants, masculine, feminine andcanine, including transients andchronic sufferers from suburbanitis aswell as the few natives of whom thedistrict can boast, assembled on Sat-urday evening at Woolastook to wit-ness the tennis championships. Thehalt, the lame and the blind, the meck,the charitable, the perverse, infantsin arms and doddering grandparentsall turned out, and the gathering be-came the most memorable in the his-tory of the colony. All the excitementof a whole summer's salmon boatraces crowded into one brief hour,would, if compared with Saturday'sevent, have been as a church funeralis to a fourth of July in New York.The tennis courts were lined twentydeep and sums of money as high asfifteen cents were bet with utterabandon. When the players made theirappearance, escorted to the courts bygroups of admirers, the excitementbecame even more intense, and eachperformer received a rousing ovation.They cleared for action. Sandy Ma-caulay, when unwrapped, was foundto be wearing a fire sale bargain suit,only slightly damaged, but looking asif it had been brought down the backstairs. His partner Steve McAvitywas more gaudily attired in a pinknightshirt, two cigars, low-neckedpants and a surcingle. His attenuatedform seemed to shrink into insignif-cance beside that of his ponderousassociate, but as if to make up forother deficiencies, Steve's sunkenchest was decorated with many med-als, won by that handspring which hesuccessfully turned when seventeen   | <ul> <li>which passed while the game was in progress, was selzed with convulsions and taken to hospital. There were no other casualities.</li> <li>*Steve also wore a white collar.</li> <li>OLD-FASHIONED BELIEVER.</li> <li>I'm a up an' down believer—never had a bit of doubt,</li> <li>Or tried to take the Gospel an' turn it wrong side out!</li> <li>I never ax no questions, or feel that faith'll fail.</li> <li>I'm a up an' down believer—for they raised me that away,</li> <li>Had fam'ly pra'r fer breakfast an' dinner every day!</li> <li>Kaze Solomon had all them wives I never do condenn,</li> <li>Though I will admit I wonder how he got along with them!</li> <li>It don't hurt me that Job had boils, an' axed for his release;</li> <li>I kin bear his great afflictions with the most amazin' peace!</li> <li>An' as fer Joshua keepin' of the sun this side the line,</li> <li>He knowed what he was doin' an' it's no affair of mine.</li> <li>I ailus take the Gospel as I find it low an' high!</li> <li>I never had a quarrel' with a rainbow in the sky;</li> <li>Fer what am I?—A creature that is mighty weak and small.</li> </ul>  | of Honor, W. A. Carey, of Malden,Mass., will visit the city this week. Heis a very prominent temperance workerbeing Grand Worthy Recorder, of theGrand Temple of Massachusetts, and atone time served in the common councilof his native city. Mr. Carey will visitthe several departments of the orderwhile in this city.Last evening's sermon at the Congre-gational church, Union street, was de-livered by Rev. Mr. Anthony, of Mil-ton, N. S. Calls have been extended toMr. Anthony by both the St. John andYarmouth churches. At present he isundecided which to accept, but will an-nounce his decision within the nextweek. He will leave for his home to-day. This was not Mr. Anthony's firstappearance in St. John, as he preachedhere about three years ago.John E. Moore, of the harbor com-mission, returned to the city at noonon Saturday. In regard to the dredg-ing, Mr. Moore said that the ministerand acting minister of the departmentwere out of the city and thereforenothing could definitely be promised.The delegation, however, interviewedSir Wilfrid Laurier, who said that thegovernment had always done what itcould to assist this port and that hehad fittle doubt the request of the dele-gation would be granted. This willprobably mean that both dredges willbe put at work on the site of the newwharf.W. H. Barnaby and Col. McLean alsoreturned home with Mr. Moore.   | Jewish residents were present and de-spite the fact that it was Sunday, thept rty made merry with wine and song.The marriage is said to be the culmin-ation of a romance which began whenthe couple were young and were livingin Germany.Lt. Col. H. H. McLean has been re-tained by the Dominion Coal intereststo act for them in their case with theDominion Steel Company. Col. Mc-Lean will leave today for Sydney,where the trial begins tomorrow andpromises to be long drawn out, as thecast is one of the most important, bothfrom a public and a legal standpoint,ever contested in a Canadian court.A message from St. Andrews lastnight stated that Sir William VanHorne, who is an interested party, willleave there this morning for Sydneyby special train.JOHN W. KEECH.WOODSTOCK, July 26-John W.Keech died here this morning of ty-phoid-pneumonia. He was 26 years ofage and a miller by trade. He is sur-vived by his mother, two sisters, and abrother.CHARES R. ASHLEY.The death occurred at Eastport Fri-day of Charles R. Ashley, a former  | The Frank WLUNCHEIce cream, crRestaurant,arrangementsVICROLLThe LargeMosBIn AttenTHE BBContinuo  |
| shortly after the opening of the matchplayed havoc with the scores and drovemany of the competitors to shelter.The winners were.A. Class—Capt. E. K. McKay91B. Class—Lieut, L. O. Bentley  | At Chicago-Chicago, 2; Boston, 5.National League Standing.Won, Lost. P.C.Chicago                | inhabitants, masculine, feminine andcanine, including transients andchronic sufferers from suburbanitis aswell as the few natives of whom thedistrict can boast, assembled on Sat-urday evening at Woolastook to wit-ness the tennis championships. Thehalt, the lame and the blind, the meck,the charitable, the perverse, infantsin arms and doddering grandparentsall turned out, and the gathering be-came the most memorable in the his-tory of the colony. All the excitementof a whole summer's salmon boatraces crowded into one brief hour,would, if compared with Saturday'sevent, have been as a church funeralis to a fourth of July in New York.The tennis courts were lined twentydeep and sums of money as high asfifteen cents were bet with utterabandon. When the players made theirappearance, escorted to the courts bygroups of admirers, the excitementbecame even more intense, and eachperformer received a rousing ovation.They cleared for action. Sandy Ma-caulay, when unwrapped, was foundto be wearing a fire sale bargain suit,only slightly damaged, but looking asif it had been brought down the backstairs. His partner Steve McAvitywas more gaudily attired in a pinknightshirt, two cigars, low-neckedpants and a surcingle. His attenuatedform seemed te shrink into insignifi-cance beside that of his ponderousassociate, but as if to make up forother deficiencies, Steve's sunkenchest was decorated with many med-als, won by that handspring which hesuccessfully turned when seventeenvears of age, and by the white ribbon   | <ul> <li>which passed while the game was in progress, was selzed with convulsions and taken to hospital. There were no other casualites.</li> <li>*Steve also wore a white collar.</li> <li>OLD-FASHIONED BELIEVER.</li> <li>I'm a up an' down believer—never had a bit of doubt,</li> <li>Or tried to take the Gospel an' turn it wrong side out!</li> <li>I never ax no questions, or feel that faith'll fail,</li> <li>I'm a up an' down believer—for they raised me that away,</li> <li>Had fam'ly pra'r fer breakfast an' dinner every day!</li> <li>Kaze Solomon had all them wives I never do condemn,</li> <li>Though I will admit I wonder how he got along with them!</li> <li>It don't hurt me that Job had boils, an' axed for his release;</li> <li>I kin bear his great afflictions with the most amazin' peace!</li> <li>An' as fer Joshua keepin' of the sun this side the line,</li> <li>He knowed what he was doin' an' it's no affair of mine.</li> <li>I ailus take the Gospel as I find it low an' high!</li> <li>I never had a quarrel with a rainbow in the sky;</li> </ul>  | of Honor, W. A. Carey, of Malden,Mass., will visit the city this week. Heis a very prominent temperance workerbeing Grand Worthy Recorder, of theGrand Temple of Massachusetts, and atone time served in the common councilof his native city. Mr. Carey will visitthe several departments of the orderwhile in this city.Last evening's sermon at the Congre-gational church, Union street, was de-livered by Rev. Mr. Anthony, of Mil-ton, N. S. Calls have been extended toMr. Anthony by both the St. John andYarmouth churches. At present he isundecided which to accept, but will an-nounce his decision within the nextweek. He will leave for his home to-day. This was not Mr. Anthony's firstappearance in St. John, as he preachedhere about three years ago.John E. Moore, of the harbor com-mission, returned to the city at noonon Saturday. In regard to the dredg-ing, Mr. Moore said that the ministerand acting minister of the departmentwere out of the city and thereforenothing could definitely be promised.The delegation, however, interviewedSir Wilfrid Laurier, who said that thegovernment had always done what itcould to assist this port and that hehad little doubt the request of the dele-gation would be granted. This willprobably mean that both dredges willbe put at work on the site of the newwharf.W. H. Barnaby and Col. McLean alsoreturned home with Mr. Moore.   | Jewish residents were present and de-spite the fact that it was Sunday, thept rty made merry with wine and song.The marriage is said to be the culmin-ation of a romance which began whenthe couple were young and were livingin Germany.I.t. Col. H. H. McLean has been re-tained by the Dominion Coal intereststo act for them in their case with theDominion Steel Company. Col. Mc-Lean will leave today for Sydney,where the trial begins tomorrow andpromises to be long drawn out, as thecast is one of the most important, bothfrom a public and a legal standpoint,ever contested in a Canadian court.A message from St. Andrews lastnight stated that Sir William VanHorne, who is an interested party, willleave there this morning for Sydneyby special train.JOHN W. KEECH.WOODSTOCK, July 26–John W.Keech died here this morning of ty-phoid-pneumonia. He was 26 years ofage and a miller by trade. He is sur-vived by his mother, two sisters, and abrother.CHARES R. ASHLEY.The death occurred at Eastport Fri-day of Charles R. Ashley, a- formerresident of this city. He was a son of  | The Frank WLUNCHEIce cream, crRestaurant,arrangementsVICROLLThe LargeMosBIn AttenTHE BContinueProgrammTuesdaA Curious  |
| shortly after the opening of the matchplayed havoc with the scores and drovemany of the competitors to shelter.The winners were.A. Class—Capt. E. K. McKay91B. Class—Lieut, L. O. Bentley77C. Class—Lieut, D. McArthur63The St John County Fille Associa-tion will hold their annual competitionfor the Corporation cup and cash prizeson Saturday next, August 3rd.MARATHONS WONERON DORTLANDSThe Marathon nipe defeated the Port-lands in a nine inning contest on theNictoria grouds Saturday afteroonwith a score of 6 to 0. Murphy for thePortlands pitched a good game andhad some nice curves, but the Port-land battery was too weak to be effective. The Marathons made some goodhits at the right time, and this wonthe day. Copeland, the Marathon shortstop, played a good game. The line upwas as follows:Marathons. P. M. Y. A.Pitcher.Mooney  | At Chicago-Chicago, 2; Boston, 5.National League Standing.Won, Lost. P.C.Chicago                | inhabitants, masculine, feminine andcanine, including translents andchronic sufferers from suburbanitis aswell as the few natives of whom thedistrict can boast, assembled on Sat-urday evening at Woolastook to wit-ness the tennis championships. Thehalt, the lame and the blind, the meck,the charitable, the perverse, infantsin arms and doddering grandparentsall turned out, and the gathering be-came the most memorable in the his-tory of the colony. All the excitementof a whole summer's salmon boatraces crowded into one brief hour,would, if compared with Saturday'sevent, have been as a church funeralis to a fourth of July in New York.The tennis courts were lined twentydeep and sums of money as high asfifteen cents were bet with utterabandon. When the players made theirappearance, escorted to the courts bygroups of admirers, the excitementbecame even more intense, and eachperformer received a rousing ovation.They cleared for action. Sandy Ma-caulay, when unwrapped, was foundto be wearing a fire sale bargain suit,only slightly damaged, but looking asif it had been brought down the backstairs. His partner Steve McAvitywas more gaudily attired in a pinknightshirt, two cigars, low-neckedpants and a surcingle. His attenuatedform seemed to shrink into insignifi-cance beside that of his ponderousassociate, but as if to make up forother deficiencies, Steve's sunkenchest was decorated with many med-als, won by that handspring which hesuccessfully turned when seventeenyears of age, and by the white ribbonof his society, the W. C. T. U. Hislone curly hair hung over his fore-   | <ul> <li>which passed while the game was in progress, was selzed with convulsions and taken to hospital. There were no other casualities.</li> <li>*Steve also wore a white collar.</li> <li>OLD-FASHIONED BELIEVER.</li> <li>I'm a up an' down believer—never had a bit of doubt,</li> <li>Or tried to take the Gospel an' turn it wrong side out!</li> <li>I never ax no questions, or feel that faith'll fail.</li> <li>I'm a up an' down believer—for they raised me that away,</li> <li>Had fam'ly pra'r fer breakfast an' dinner every day!</li> <li>Kaze Solomon had all them wives I never do condemn,</li> <li>Though I will admit I wonder how he got along with them!</li> <li>It don't hurt me that Job had boils, an' axed for his release;</li> <li>I kin bear his great afflictions with the most amazin' peace!</li> <li>An' as fer Joshua keepin' of the sun this side the line,</li> <li>He knowed what he was doin' an' it's no affair of mine.</li> <li>I ailus take the Gospel as I find it low an' high!</li> <li>I never had a quarrel with a rainbow in the sky;</li> <li>Fer what am 1?—A creature that is mighty weak and small.</li> <li>So I jes' shake han's with Jonah, an' I swallers whale and all!</li> <li>—Atlanta Constitution.</li> </ul>  | of Honor, W. A. Carey, of Malden,Mass., will visit the city this week. Heis a very prominent temperance workerbeing Grand Worthy Recorder, of theGrand Temple of Massachusetts, and atone time served in the common councilof his native city. Mr. Carey will visitthe several departments of the orderwhile in this city.Last evening's sermon at the Congre-gational church, Union street, was de-livered by Rev. Mr. Anthony, of Mil-ton, N. S. Calls have been extended toMr. Anthony by both the St. John andYarmouth churches. At present he isundecided which to accept, but will an-nounce his decision within the nextweek. He will leave for his home to-day. This was not Mr. Anthony's firstappearance in St. John, as he preachedhere about three years ago.John E. Moore, of the harbor com-mission, returned to the city at noonon Saturday. In regard to the dredg-ing, Mr. Moore said that the ministerand acting minister of the departmentwere out of the city and thereforenothing could definitely be promised.The delegation, however, interviewedSir Wilfrid Laurier, who said that thehad little doubt the request of the dele-gation would be granted. This willprobably mean that both dredges willbe put at work on the site of the newwharf.W. H. Barnaby and Col. McLean alsoreturned home with Mr. Moore.  | Jewish residents were present and de-spite the fact that it was Sunday, theparty made merry with wine and song.The marriage is said to be the culmin-ation of a romance which began whenthe couple were young and were livingin Germany.I.t. Col. H. H. McLean has been re-tained by the Dominion Coal intereststo act for them in their case with theDominion Steel Company. Col. Mc-Lean will leave today for Sydney,where the trial begins tomorrow andpromises to be long drawn out, as thecast is one of the most important, bothfrom a public and a legal standpoint,ever contested in a Canadian court.A message from St. Andrews lastnight stated that Sir William VanHorne, who is an interested party, willleave there this morning for Sydneyby special train.JOHN W. KEECH.WOODSTOCK, July 26–John W.Keech died here this morning of ty-phoid-pneumonia. He was 26 years ofage and a miller by trade. He is sur-vived by his mother, two sisters, and abrother.CHARES R ASHLEY.The death occurred at Eastport Fri-day of Charles R. Ashley, a formerresident of this city. He was a son ofthe late James and Maria Ashley andwas engaged in the shoemaking trade.  | The Frank WLUNCHEIce cream, crRestaurant,arrangementsVICROLLThe LargeMosBIn AttenThe LargeMosBIn AttenContinuoProgrammTuesdaA CuriousWild Moto   |
| shortly after the opening of the matchplayed havoe with the scores and drovemany of the competitors to shelter.The winners were.A. Class—Capt. E. K. McKay91B. Class—Lieut, L. O. Bentley  | At Chicago-Chicago, 2; Boston, 5.National League Standing.Won, Lost. P.C.Chicago                | inhabitants, masculine, feminine andcanine, including translents andchronic sufferers from suburbanitis aswell as the few natives of whom thedistrict can boast, assembled on Sat-urday evening at Woolastook to wit-ness the tennis championships. Thehalt, the lame and the blind, the meck,the charitable, the perverse, infantsin arms and doddering grandparentsall turned out, and the gathering be-came the most memorable in the his-tory of the colony. All the excitementof a whole summer's salmon boatraces crowded into one brief hour,would, if compared with Saturday'sevent, have been as a church funeralis to a fourth of July in New York.The tennis courts were lined twentydeep and sums of money as high asfifteen cents were bet with utterabandon. When the players made theirappearance, escorted to the courts bygroups of admirers, the excitementbecame even more intense, and eachperformer received a rousing ovation.They cleared for action. Sandy Ma-caulay, when unwrapped, was foundto be wearing a fire sale bargain suit,only slightly damaged, but looking asif it had been brought down the backstairs. His partner Steve McAvitywas more gaudily attired in a pinknightshirt, two cigars, low-neckedpants and a surcingle. His attenuatedform seemed te shrink into insignifi-cance beside that of his ponderousassociate, but as if to make up forother deficiencies, Steve's sunkenchest was decorated with many med-als, won by that handspring which hesuccessfully turned when seventeenyears of age, and by the white ribbonof his society, the W. C. T. U. Hislong curly hair hung over his fore-head, at times interfering with his  | <ul> <li>which passed while the game was in progress, was selzed with convulsions and taken to hospital. There were no other casualites.</li> <li>*Steve also wore a white collar.</li> <li>OLD-FASHIONED BELHEVER.</li> <li>I'm a up an' down believer—never had a bit of doubt,</li> <li>Or tried to take the Gospel an' turn it wrong side out!</li> <li>I never ax no questions, or feel that faith'll fail,</li> <li>I'm a up an' down believer—for they raised me that away,</li> <li>Had fam'ly pra'r fer breakfast an' dinner every day!</li> <li>Kaze Solomon had all them wives I never do condemn,</li> <li>Though I will admit I wonder how he got along with them!</li> <li>It don't hurt me that Job had boils, an' axed for his release;</li> <li>I kin bear his great afflictions with the most amazin' peace!</li> <li>An' as fer Joshua keepin' of the sun this side the line,</li> <li>He knowed what he was doin' an' it's no affair of mine.</li> <li>I ailus take the Gospel as I find it low an' high!</li> <li>I never had a quarrel with a rainbow in the sky;</li> <li>Fer what am 1?—A creature that is mighty weak and small.</li> <li>So I jes' shake han's with Jonah, an' I swallers whale and all!</li> <li>—Atlanta Constitution.</li> </ul>   | of Honor, W. A. Carey, of Malden,Mass., will visit the city this week. Heis a very prominent temperance workerbeing Grand Worthy Recorder, of theGrand Temple of Massachusetts, and atone time served in the common councilof his native city. Mr. Carey will visitthe several departments of the orderwhile in this city.Last evening's sermon at the Congre-gational church, Union street, was de-livered by Rev. Mr. Anthony, of Mil-ton, N. S. Calls have been extended toMr. Anthony by both the St. John andYarmouth churches. At present he isundecided which to accept, but will an-nounce his decision within the nextweek. He will leave for his home to-day. This was not Mr. Anthony's firstappearance in St. John, as he preachedhere about three years ago.John E. Moore, of the harbor com-mission, returned to the city at noonon Saturday. In regard to the dredg-ing, Mr. Moore said that the ministerand acting minister of the departmentwere out of the city and thereforenothing could definitely be promised.The delegation, however, interviewedSir Wilfrid Laurier, who said that thebad little doubt the request of the dele-gation would be granted. This willprobably mean that both dredges willbe put at work on the site of the newwharf.W. H. Barnaby and Col. McLean alsoreturned home with Mr. Moore.A rather bad accident occurred abouttwelve o'clock on Saturday night onthe Marsh bridge. Abner Secord andJohn O'Brien, who were driving in op-posite directions, met on the bridge andran into each other. Secord was thrown  | Jewish residents were present and de-spite the fact that it was Sunday, theparty made merry with wine and song.The marriage is said to be the culmin-ation of a romance which began whenthe couple were young and were livingin Germany.Lt. Col. H. H. McLean has been re-tained by the Dominion Coal intereststo act for them in their case with theDominion Steel Company. Col. Me-Lean will leave today for Sydney,where the trial begins tomorrow andpromises to be long drawn out, as thecast is one of the most important, bothfrom a public and a legal standpoint,ever contested in a Canadian court.A message from St. Andrews lastnight stated that Sir William VanHorne, who is an interested party, willleave there this morning for Sydneyby special train.JOHN W. KEECH.WOODSTOCK, July 26–John W.Keech died here this morning of ty-phoid-neumonia. He was 26 years ofage and a miller by trade. He is sur-vived by his mother, two sisters, and abrother.CHARES R ASHLEY.The death occurred at Eastport Fri-day of Charles R. Ashley, a formerresident of this city. He was a son ofthe late James and Maria Ashley andwas engaged in the shoemaking trade.He was unmarried and leaves onebrother, Robert, of New York, and five   | The Frank WLUNCHEIce cream, ccRestaurant,arrangementsVICROLLThe LargeMosBIn AttenThe BContinuoProgrammTuesdsA CuriousWild MotoTransform  |
| shortly after the opening of the matchplayed havoe with the scores and drovemany of the competitors to shelter.The winners were.A. Class—Capt. E. K. McKay91B. Class—Lieut, L. O. Bentley  | At Chicago-Chicago, 2; Boston, 5.National League Standing.Won, Lost. P.C.Chicago                | inhabitants, masculine, feminine andcanine, including transients andchronic sufferers from suburbanitis aswell as the few natives of whom thedistrict can boast, assembled on Sat-urday evening at Woolastook to wit-ness the tennis championships. Thehalt, the lame and the blind, the meek,the charitable, the perverse, infantsin arms and doddering grandparentsall turned out, and the gathering be-came the most memorable in the his-tory of the colony. All the excitementof a whole summer's salmon boatraces crowded into one brief hour,would, if compared with Saturday'sevent, have been as a church funeralis to a fourth of July in New York.The tennis courts were lined twentydeep and sums of money as high asfifteen cents were bet with utterabandon. When the players made theirappearance, escorted to the courts bygroups of admirers, the excitementbecame even more intense, and eachperformer received a rousing ovation.They cleared for action. Sandy Ma-caulay, when unwrapped, was foundto be wearing a fire sale bargain suit,only slightly damaged, but looking asif it had been brought down the backstairs. His partner Steve McAvitywas more gaudily attired in a pinknightshirt, two cigars, low-neckedform seemed to shrink into insignifi-cance beside that of his ponderousassociate, but as if to make up forother deficiencies, Steve's sunkenchest was decorated with many med-als, won by that handspring which hesuccessfully turned when seventeenyears of age, and by the white ribbonof his society, the W. C. T. U. Hislong curly hair hung over his fore-head, at times interfering with hisplaying."  | <ul> <li>which passed while the game was in progress, was selzed with convulsions and taken to hospital. There were no other casualites.</li> <li>*Steve also wore a white collar.</li> <li>OLD-FASHIONED BELHEVER.</li> <li>I'm a up an' down believer—never had a bit of doubt,</li> <li>Or tried to take the Gospel an' turn it wrong side out!</li> <li>I never ax no questions, or feel that faith'll fail,</li> <li>I'm han' in han' with Jonah, an' on good terms with the whale!</li> <li>I'm a up an' down believer—for they raised me that away,</li> <li>Had fam'ly pra'r fer breakfast an' dinner every day!</li> <li>Kaze Solomon had all them wives I never do condemn,</li> <li>Though I will admit I wonder how he got along with them!</li> <li>It don't hurt me that Job had boils, an' axed for his release;</li> <li>I kin bear his great afflictions with the most amazin' peace!</li> <li>An' as fer Joshua keepin' of the sun this side the line,</li> <li>He knowed what he was doin' an' it's no affair of mine.</li> <li>I ailus take the Gospel as I find it low an' high!</li> <li>I never had a quarrel with a rainbow in the sky;</li> <li>Fer what am 1?—A creature that is mighty weak and small.</li> <li>So I jes' shake han's with Jonah, an' I swallers whale and all!         <ul> <li>—Atlanta Constitution.</li> </ul> </li> </ul>   | of Honor, W. A. Carey, of Malden,Mass., will visit the city this week. Heis a very prominent temperance workerbeing Grand Worthy Recorder, of theGrand Temple of Massachusetts, and atone time served in the common councilof his native city. Mr. Carey will visitthe several departments of the orderwhile in this city.Last evening's sermon at the Congre-gational church, Union street, was de-livered by Rev. Mr. Anthony, of Mil-ton, N. S. Calls have been extended toMr. Anthony by both the St. John andYarmouth churches. At present he isundecided which to accept, but will an-nounce his decision within the nextweek. He will leave for his home to-day. This was not Mr. Anthony's firstappearance in St. John, as he preachedhere about three years ago.John E. Moore, of the harbor com-mission, returned to the city at noonon Saturday. In regard to the dredg-ing, Mr. Moore said that the ministerand acting minister of the departmentwere out of the city and thereforenothing could definitely be promised.The delegation, however, interviewedSir Wilfrid Laurier, who said that thegovernment had always done what itcould to assist this port and that hehad little doubt the request of the dele-gation would be granted. This willprobably mean that both dredges willbe put at work on the site of the newwharf.W. H. Barnaby and Col. McLean alsoreturned home with Mr. Moore.A rather bad accident occurred abouttwelve o'clock on Saturday night onthe Marsh bridge. Abner Secord andJohn O'Brien, who were driving in op-posite directions, met on the bridge andran into each other. Secord was thrownfrom his carriage and plowed up the  | Jewish residents were present and de-spite the fact that it was Sunday, thept rty made nerry with wine and song.The marriage is said to be the culmin-ation of a romance which began whenthe couple were young and were livingin Germany.Lt. Col. H. H. McLean has been re-tained by the Dominion Coal intereststo act for them in their case with theDominion Steel Company. Col. Mc-Lean will leave today for Sydney,where the trial begins tomorrow andpromises to be long drawn out, as thecast is one of the most important, bothfrom a public and a legal standpoint,ever contested in a Canadian court.A message from St. Andrews lastnight stated that Sir William VanHorne, who is an interested party, willleave there this morning for Sydneyby special train.JOHN W. KEECH.WOODSTOCK, July 26–John W.Keech died here this morning of ty-phoid-pneumonia. He was 26 years ofage and a miller by trade. He is sur-vived by his mother, two sisters, and abrother.CHARES R. ASHLET.The death occurred at Eastport Fri-day of Charles R. Ashley, a formerresident of this city. He was a son ofthe late James and Maria Ashley andwas engaged in the shoemaking trade.He was unmarried and heaves onebrother, Robert, of New York, and fivesisters, Mrs. Silas Hoyt, Exmouthstreet: Mrs. W. H. Warn, Waterloo  | The Frank WLUNCHEIce cream, crRestaurant,arrangementsVICROLLThe LargeMosBIn AttenThe LargeMosBIn AttenThe BContinuoProgrammTuesdaA CuriousWild MotoTransformcoloredAll for a N |
| shortly after the opening of the matchplayed havoe with the scores and drovemany of the competitors to shelter.The winners were.A. Class—Capt. E. K. McKay91B. Class—Lieut, L. O. Bentley77C. Class—Lieut, P. H. Elliott60D. Class—Lieut, D. McArthur53The St. John County Rifle Associa-tion will hold their annual competitionfor the Corporation cup and cash prizeson Saturday next, August 3rd.MARATHONS WONERON PORTLANDSThe Marathon nipe defeated the Port-lands in a nine inning contest on theNictoria grouds Saturday afteroonwith a score of 6 to 0. Murphy for thePortlands pitched a good game andhad some nice curves, but the Port-land battery was too weak to be effec-tive. The Marathons made some goodhits at the right time, and this wonthe day. Copeland, the Marathon shortstop, played a good game. The line upwas as follows:Marathons  | At Chicago-Chicago, 2; Boston, 5.National League Standing.Won, Lost. P.C.Chicago                | inhabitants, masculine, feminine andcanine, including transients andchronic sufferers from suburbanitis aswell as the few natives of whom thedistrict can boast, assembled on Sat-urday evening at Woolastook to wit-ness the tennis championships. Thehalt, the lame and the blind, the meek,the charitable, the perverse, infantsin arms and doddering grandparentsall turned out, and the gathering be-came the most memorable in the his-tory of the colony. All the excitementof a whole summer's salmon boatraces crowded into one brief hour,would, if compared with Saturday'sevent, have been as a church funeralis to a fourth of July in New York.The tennis courts were lined twentydeep and sums of money as high asfifteen cents were bet with utterabandon. When the players made theirappearance, escorted to the courts bygroups of admirers, the excitementbecame even more intense, and eachperformer received a rousing ovation.They cleared for action. Sandy Ma-caulay, when unwrapped, was foundto be wearing a fire sale bargain suit,only slightly damaged, but looking asif it had been brought down the backstairs. His partner Steve McAvitywas more gaudily attired in a pinknightshirt, two cigars, low-neckedpants and a surcingle. His attenuatedform seemed to shrink into insignifi-cance beside that of his ponderousassociate, but as if to make up forother deficiencies, Steve's sunkenchest was decorated with many med-als, won by that handspring which hesuccessfully turned when seventeenyears of age, and by the white ribbonof his society, the W. C. T. U. Hislong curly hair hung over his fore-head, at times interfering with hisplaying. *The other players, who so daringlyaccepted the challenge issued by Sandy   | <ul> <li>which passed while the game was in progress, was selzed with convulsions and taken to hospital. There were no other casualities.</li> <li>*Steve also wore a white collar.</li> <li>OLD-FASHIONED BELHEVER.</li> <li>I'm a up an' down believer—never had a bit of doubt,</li> <li>Or tried to take the Gospel an' turn it wrong side out!</li> <li>I never ax no questions, or feel that faith'll fail,</li> <li>I'm han' in han' with Jonah, an' on good terms with the whale!</li> <li>I'm a up an' down believer—for they raised me that away,</li> <li>Had fam'ly pra'r fer breakfast an' dinner every day!</li> <li>Kaze Solomon had all them wives I never do condemn,</li> <li>Though I will admit I wonder how he got along with them!</li> <li>It don't hurt me that Job had boils, an' axed for his release;</li> <li>I kin bear his great afflictions with the most amazin' peace!</li> <li>An' as fer Joshua keepin' of the sun this side the line,</li> <li>He knowed what he was doln' an' it's no affair of mine.</li> <li>I ailus take the Gospel as I find it low an' high!</li> <li>I never had a quarrel with a rainbow in the sky;</li> <li>Fer what am I?—A creature that is mighty weak and small.</li> <li>So I jes' shake han's with Jonah, an' I swallers whale and all!</li> <li>—Atlanta Constitution.</li> <li>NEW YORK, July 27.—Mrs. Margaret Carpenter of Brooklyn has just celebrated her 10ist birthday at her home in Brooklyn. She is in excellent health and declares she has not been ill since</li> </ul> | of Honor, W. A. Carey, of Malden,Mass., will visit the city this week. Heis a very prominent temperance workerbeing Grand Worthy Recorder, of theGrand Temple of Massachusetts, and atone time served in the common councilof his native city. Mr. Carey will visitthe several departments of the orderwhile in this city.Last evening's sermon at the Congre-gational church, Union street, was de-livered by Rev. Mr. Anthony, of Mil-ton, N. S. Calls have been extended toMr. Anthony by both the St. John andYarmouth churches. At present he isundecided which to accept, but will an-nounce his decision within the nextweek. He will leave for his home to-day. This was not Mr. Anthony's firstappearance in St. John, as he preachedhere about three years ago.John E. Moore, of the harbor com-mission, returned to the city at noonon Saturday. In regard to the dredg-ing, Mr. Moore said that the ministerand acting minister of the departmentwere out of the city and thereforenothing could definitely be promised.The delegation, however, interviewedSir Wilfrid Laurier, who said that thegovernment had always done what itcould to assist this port and that hehad little doubt the request of the dele-gation would be granted. This willprobably mean that both dredges willbe put at work on the site of the newwharf.W. H. Barnaby and Col. McLean alsoreturned home with Mr. Moore.A rather bad accident occurred abouttwelve o'clock on Saturday night onthe Marsh bridge. Abner Secord andJohn O'Brien, who were driving in op-posite directions, met on the bridge andran into each other. Secord was thrownfrom his carriage and plowed up theground for some distance with hisface. His face was quite badly cut and | Jewish residents were present and de-spite the fact that it was Sunday, thept rty made nerry with wine and song.The marriage is said to be the culmin-ation of a romance which began whenthe couple were young and were livingin Germany.Lt. Col. H. H. McLean has been re-tained by the Dominion Coal intereststo act for them in their case with theDominion Steel Company. Col. Mc-Lean will leave today for Sydney,where the trial begins tomorrow andpromises to be long drawn out, as thecast is one of the most important, bothfrom a public and a legal standpoint,ever contested in a Canadian court.A message from St. Andrews lastnight stated that Sir William VanHorne, who is an interested party, willleave there this morning for Sydneyby special train.JOHN W. KEECH.WOODSTOCK, July 26–John W.Keech died here this morning of ty-phoid-pneumonia. He was 26 years ofage and a miller by trade. He is sur-vived by his mother, two sisters, and abrother.CHARES R ASHLEY.The death occurred at Eastport Fri-day of Charles R. Ashley, a formerresident of this city. He was a son ofthe late James and Maria Ashley andwas engaged in the shoemaking trade.He was unmarried and leaves onebrother, Robert, of New York, and fivesisters, Mrs. Silas Hoyt, Exmouthstreet; Mrs. W. H. Warn, Waterloostreet; Mrs. G. H. Barnes and Mrs. S. | The Frank WLUNCHEIce cream, crRestaurant,arrangementsVICROLLThe LargeMosBIn AttenThe LargeMosBIn AttenContinueProgrammTuesdaA CuriousWild MotoTransformcoloredAll for a N          |
| shortly after the opening of the matchplayed havoc with the scores and drovemany of the competitors to shelter.The winners were.A. Class—Capt. E. K. McKay91B. Class—Lieut, L. O. Bentley77C. Class—Lieut, D. McArthur53The St. John County Filfe Associa-tion will hold their annual competitionfor the Corporation cup and cash prizeson Saturday next, August 3rd.MARATHONS WONERON DORTLANDSThe Marathon nipe defeated the Port-lands in a nine inning contest on theNictoria grouds Saturday afteroonwith a score of 6 to 0. Murphy for thePortlands pitched a good game andhad some nice curves, but the Port-land battery was too weak to be effec-tive. The Marathons made some goodhits at the right time, and this wonthe day. Copeland, the Marathon shortstop, played a good game. The line upwas as follows:Marathons. P. M. Y. A.Pitcher.Mooney  | At Chicago-Chicago, 2; Boston, 5.National League Standing.Won, Lost. P.C.Chicago                | inhabitants, masculine, feminine andcanine, including transients andchronic sufferers from suburbanitis aswell as the few natives of whom thedistrict can boast, assembled on Sat-urday evening at Woolastook to wit-ness the tennis championships. Thehalt, the lame and the blind, the meek,the charitable, the perverse, infantsin arms and doddering grandparentsall turned out, and the gathering be-came the most memorable in the his-tory of the colony. All the excitementof a whole summer's salmon boatraces crowded into one brief hour,would, if compared with Saturday'sevent, have been as a church funeralis to a fourth of July in New York.The tennis courts were lined twentydeep and sums of money as high asfifteen cents were bet with uttreabandon. When the players made theirappearance, escorted to the courts bygroups of admirers, the excitementbecame even more intense, and eachperformer received a rousing ovation.They cleared for action. Sandy Ma-caulay, when unwrapped, was foundto be wearing a fire sale bargain suit,only slightly damaged, but looking asif it had been brought down the backstairs. His partner Steve McAvitywas more gaudily attired in a pinknightshirt, two cigars, low-neckedpants and a surcingle. His attenuatedform seemed to shrink into insignifi-cance beside that of his ponderousassociate, but as if to make up forother deficiencies, Steve's, sunkenchest was decorated with many med-als, won by that handspring which hesuccessfully turned when seventeenyears of age, and by the white ribbonof his society, the W. C. T. U. Hislong curly hair hung over his fore-head, at times interfering with hisplaying. <sup>6</sup>The other players, who so daringlyaccepted the challenge issued by Sandyand Steve, were Jim Doody and Doc.  | <ul> <li>which passed while the game was in progress, was selzed with convulsions and taken to hospital. There were no other casualities.</li> <li>*Steve also wore a white collar.</li> <li>OLD-FASHIONED BELIEVER.</li> <li>I'm a up an' down believer—never had a bit of doubt,</li> <li>Or tried to take the Gospel an' turn it wrong side out!</li> <li>I never ax no questions, or feel that faith'll fall.</li> <li>I'm a up an' down believer—for they raised me that away,</li> <li>Had fam'ly pra'r fer breakfast an' dinner every day!</li> <li>Kaze Solomon had all them wives I never do condem,.</li> <li>Though I will admit I wonder how he got along with them!</li> <li>It don't hurt me that Job had boils, an' axed for his release;</li> <li>I kin bear his great afflictions with the most amazin' peace!</li> <li>An' as fer Joshua keepin' of the sun this side the line,</li> <li>He knowed what he was doln' an' it's no affair of mine.</li> <li>I ailus take the Gospel as I find it low an' high!</li> <li>I never had a quarrel with a rainbow in the sky;</li> <li>Fer what am 1?—A creature that is mighty weak and small.</li> <li>So I jes' shake han's with Jonah, an' I swallers whale and all!</li> <li>—Atlanta Constitution.</li> <li>NEW YORK, July 27.—Mrs. Margaret Carpenter of Brooklyn has just celebrated her 10ist birthday at her home in Brooklyn. She is in excellent health and declares she has not been ill since she was seven months old. A case of</li> </ul>                                     | of Honor, W. A. Carey, of Malden,Mass., will visit the city this week. Heis a very prominent temperance workerbeing Grand Worthy Recorder, of theGrand Temple of Massachusetts, and atone time served in the common councilof his native city. Mr. Carey will visitthe several departments of the orderwhile in this city.Last evening's sermon at the Congre-gational church, Union street, was de-livered by Rev. Mr. Anthony, of Mil-ton, N. S. Calls have been extended toMr. Anthony by both the St. John andYarmouth churches. At present he isundecided which to accept, but will an-nounce his decision within the nextweek. He will leave for his home to-day. This was not Mr. Anthony's firstappearance in St. John, as he preachedhere about three years ago.John E. Moore, of the harbor com-mission, returned to the city at noonon Saturday. In regard to the dredg-ing, Mr. Moore said that the ministerand acting minister of the departmentwere out of the city and thereforenothing could definitely be promised.The delegation, however, interviewedSir Wilfrid Laurier, who said that thegovernment had always done what itcould to assist this port and that hehad little doubt the request of the dele-gation would be granted. This willprobably mean that both dredges willbe put at work on the site of the newwharf.W. H. Barnaby and Col. McLean alsoreturned home with Mr. Moore.A rather bad accident occurred abouttwelve o'clock on Saturday night onthe Marsh bridge. Abner Secord andJohn O'Brien, who were driving in op-posite directions, met on the bridge andran into each other. Secord was thrownfrom his carriage and plowed up theground for some distance with hisface. His face was quite badly cut and | Jewish residents were present and de-spite the fact that it was Sunday, thept rty made merry with wine and song.The marriage is said to be the culmin-ation of a romance which began whenthe couple were young and were livingin Germany.I.t. Col. H. H. McLean has been re-tained by the Dominion Coal intereststo act for them in their case with theDominion Steel Company. Col. Mc-Lean will leave today for Sydney,where the trial begins tomorrow andpromises to be long drawn out, as thecast is one of the most important, bothfrom a public and a legal standpoint,ever contested in a Canadian court.A message from St. Andrews lastnight stated that Sir William VanHorne, who is an interested party, willleave there this morning for Sydneyby special train.JOHN W. KEECH.WOODSTOCK, July 26–John W.Keech died here this morning of ty-phoid-pneumonia. He was 26 years ofage and a miller by trade. He is sur-vived by his mother, two sisters, and abrother.CHARES R. ASHLEY.The death occurred at Eastport Fri-day of Charles R. Ashley, a formerresident of this city. He was a son ofthe late James and Maria Ashley andwas engaged in the shoemaking trade.He was unmarried and leaves onebrother, Robert, of New York, and fivesisters, Mrs. Silas Hoyt, Exmouthstreet; Mrs. W. H. Warn, Waterloostreet; Mrs. G. H. Barnes and Mrs. S.Function of the series and Mrs. S.Function of the street and Mrs. S.Function of the street and Mrs. S.Function of the street and Mrs. S.  | The Frank WLUNCHEIce cream, crRestaurant,arrangementsVICROLLThe LargeMosBIn AttenThe LargeMosBIn AttenContinueProgrammTuesdaA CuriousWild MotoTransformcoloredAll for a N          |

tent Motor new and novel picture. f a River Picnic experienced them doubtaker's Mistake been tragic, but turned

s Love Story irate's treasure.

Big Song Feature N WITH THE LADDER HOSE." Appropriate cos-ion fire pictures.

dmission--5c s long as you like nbly Room for balls, ba-Apply to F. G. Bradford.

hn's Most Popular sement Resort.

nd Tonight

attractions, including hutes, Ferris Whee und, Canoeing, Boating Swings, etc., in operatio noon and evening.

al Attraction velist will ride down the ull speed and into the nost thrilling act. Don't it. Tonight at 8.30.

White Catering Co, Ltd ES AT ALL HOURS,

onfectionery at White King street. Speci ts for suburban patron

Neoklace (drama) le Scamps (comic) lvis & Co. (negro enners)

Master Len Callahan will ing each evening and Saturday

Right field. Ri Jethro Baxter will sing oth afternoons. 5c.---Admission---5c. Stay as long as you please. . .