

as may appear requisite in view of the extent and character of the examinations he has already passed.

A candidate who competes for honors at the examination for B.A., and fails to obtain the requisite number of marks to entitle him to be classed in honors, may, on the recommendation of the examiners, be awarded a degree without honors; it being at the option of the candidate to accept the award of such a degree, or to wait until a subsequent examination and again compete for a degree in honors.

An undergraduate who has obtained honors in any one of these departments may transfer himself to any other department, and proceed therein, but as a prerequisite to obtaining the Degree of B.A. he must during his course have passed the examinations in pass subjects annexed to the honor department to which he is transferred.
