

CHAPTER XXIII.

January and April, 1847—Candidates—Correspondence with Medical Board of Lower Canada—Uniform System of Examination—Montreal Board Acquiesces—Montreal Licentiates—July and October—Candidates—November 16—Special Meeting—Letter in Globe —Serious Charge Against a Member of Board—Letter from Board to Editor—Name of Writer Demanded—Reply—Letter from Board to Dr. Hunter—Reply—Defends Himself and Reiterates Charge—Letter to Provincial Secretary—Steps to Vindicate Board—Referred to Attorney-General.	PAGE 196
--	-------------

CHAPTER XXIV.

January, 1848—Candidates—April—Candidates—Wait on Attorney-General—Result—July—Secretary Resigns—Edward Clarke, House-Surgeon, Appointed—Letter from Attorney-General—Candidates—January, April, July and October, 1849—Candidates—Duration of Board.	203
---	-----

CHAPTER XXV.

1850—Establishment of Trinity Medical School—Bishop Strachan in England—Dr. Melville's Book—Drs. Hodder and Bovell—"Upper Canada School of Medicine"—Becomes Medical Faculty of Trinity University—Inauguration—Introductory Lecture—Bishop Strachan's Address—Medical Lectures—Church Newspaper—Remarks—Rules for Students—Rules for Examination for M.B.—Fees—Degree of M.D.—Officers of the College—Lists of Subjects and Professors—Benefactors to Trinity College—List of Students—First Course.	206
---	-----

CHAPTER XXVI.

Medical Profession in Toronto, 1850.—Officers of Lunatic Asylum—The Medical Board—The Practitioners in Toronto—General Hospital—Eye Infirmary—General Dispensary—Lying-In Hospital—House of Industry—71st Light Infantry—Medical Faculty, University of Toronto—Coroner—Patients in General Hospital—Cooksville—Springfield—Streetsville—Township of Whitby—Clarke Gamble's Estimate of Medical Profession and General Hospital—Conclusion of Second Part.	213
--	-----

PART III.

CHAPTER XXVII.

Biographical Sketches, alphabetically arranged.	217
---	-----