

Registration
of such judgment, &c.

And in order to enable the plaintiff to have such judgment registered in the proper Registry Office, the said Prothonotary or Clerk, in addition to the usual certificate on the copy of the judgment that it is a true copy thereof, shall, if required 5 append thereto a further certificate of the date of which such judgment was served on the defendant and of that at which the return of the service was filed at his office: And any copy of such judgment with such additional certificate shall be registered by the Registrar to whom it shall be presented for that purpose. 10

of judgment in favour of defendant, on opposition.

XXVI. In case any such Judgment so registered shall be wholly or partially set aside, upon any such opposition as aforesaid, the opposant shall be entitled to have the judgment to that effect on his opposition registered for the purpose of wholly or partially cancelling the registration of the former 15 judgment recorded against him.

Plaintiff not bound to proceed under this Act.

XXVII. The foregoing provisions shall not deprive any Plaintiff of the right to proceed to judgment in the usual manner, in any case by default or ex parte, if he shall think fit so to do, instead of adopting the proceedings mentioned in the said provi- 20
sions.

Non-appealable cases.

Every day to
