Careers Day tomorrow AIESEC brings in the bosses

AIESEC (International Association for Students of Economics and Commerce) will be hosting Careers Day in the Dinwoodie Lounge, S U B, tomorrow. Students from every faculty are invited to meet representatives from thirty different companies, including IBM, Imperial Oil, Bank of Montreal and Dow Chemical.

As well as inviting U of A students, AIESEC has also asked students from NAIT, Concordia College, Camrose Lutheran College, Red Deer College and Grant McEwan Community College.

The focus of Careers Day will be on how graduates' interests and abilities can best be channelled into active employment. The company representatives will explain what sort of people and skills they are looking for in hopes of encouraging students to consider future employment opportunities.

An admission price of $1.00 is being charged for the entire day of activities, which runs from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. A social will be held Friday evening, with admission being $2.50 for those with a daytime ticket and $3.50 for those without.

AIESEC extends an invitation to all students to attend for at least a portion of the event.
