	22-1-42		N I L
	23-1-42		The Commanding Officer held his weekly inspection in the morning which was followed by a short route march through the city streets. Flying Officer Florence, DFC, recently returned from operational duties overseas, visited the station and gave an interesting talk to the trainees and officers of the training squadrons on his many flying experiences oversea. Such talks are considered to be most beneficial in that they prepare the potential pilot or observer with what to expect after he has completed his training and is posted overseas to a flying unit.
	24-1-42		Normal Routine.
	25-1-42		Church parades for both denominations were held in the Station Auditorium during the morning. Movies provided by the K. of C. representative on the station were enjoyed during the evening.
