in the case of

Haig Lines
K-876 Private Dancoisne, Marcel, Walter, Canadian Scottish Regiment, Reinforcement, on the strength of 3rd Canadian Divisional Infantry Reinforcement Unit, a soldier of the Canadian Army (Overseas).

The evidence is taken under oath by direction of the Officer Commanding.

FIRST WITNESS
Prosecution

K-62152 Sgt. Olsen, W.H., Canadian Scottish Regiment, having been duly sworn, states:

At Haig Lines on the 26th of March 1942, during my tour of duty as No. 3 Company Orderly Sergeant I called the roll at tattoo and K-876 Private Dancoisne, M.W., here present, did not answer to his name. I entered his name on the tattoo report for that day and continued to report him absent at reveille and tattoo for the remainder of my tour of duty until I handed my duties to Sergeant Milton, C. of No. 3 Company at reveille, the 30th of March 1942.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.
