

The Committee met on several occasions to review and revise the estimates of Canadian benefits and to discuss the revised estimate and the cost allocation proposals with the Corps of Engineers. At the request of the Committee the Corps provided revised cost allocation proposals based on the revised estimate of Canadian benefits. This report summarizes the work of the Review Committee.