

REPRINTS (Continued)

114. How a Freak of Nature Gave us a $75 Million Industry. (Asbestos).
Gordon Minnes, The Financial Post, January 1952.
116. Defence Keystone: Man-Made Metals.
Michael Young, Saturday Night, February 1952.
118. Science: Our Armed Forces $35 Million Fourth Arm.
Cyril Bassett, The Financial Post, February 1952.
119. Old Age Security.
Department of National Health & Welfare, Canada's Health and Welfare, February 1952.
120. Science and Agriculture.
J.W.G. MacEwan, CIL Oval, April 1952.
121. New Skills and Industries.
Gerald Waring, CIL Oval, June 1952.
123. They are Skipping over the Age of Roads.
Ronald A. Keith, The Financial Post, July 1952.
126. Canada's Fabulous Iron Ores.
W.M. Goodwin, CIL Oval, October 1952.
127. First Hundred Years are the Hardest. (Toronto Stock Exchange).
Wellington Jeffers, Saturday, October 1952.
129. The Buffalo Comes Back.
Ralph Hedlin, Saturday Night, October 1952.
132. Chemistry Makes History.
Geoffrey Gardiner, CIL Oval, December 1952.
133. Survival Suits.
John Ayr, CIL Oval, December 1952.
134. Power Colossus Takes Shape.
Duncan McLeod, CIL Oval, December 1952.
135. Canadian Music Today.
Brian H. Taylor, The Canadian Forum, February 1953.
137. Canada: The Expanding Economy.
The Economist, February 1953.
138. Wings over Canada.
Frances Oakes Baldwin, Canadian Business, July 1953.
139. Education in Canada.
F.K. Stewart, Education News, August 1953.
140. Canada's Northern Horizon.
L.B. Pearson, Foreign Affairs, July 1953.
141. Getting Wise to Our Wildlife.
Prof. Ian McT. Cowan, CIL Oval.
142. Science Goes to the Atlantic Banks.
Department of Fisheries, Trade News, May and July 1953.
143. N.A.T.O. and You.
L.B. Pearson, New Liberty, October 1953.
144. Trans-Canada Highway.
Lance Connery, International Markets, July 1953.
145. How Canada Helps its Exporters.
Roy A. Abrahamson, International Markets, July 1953.