

DR. MACKAY'S SPECIFIC For the Treatment OF ALCOHOLISM

Used in Connection with the Province of Quebec Probation System with Unvarying Success

The City Council of Montreal has endorsed this marvelous discovery. The Finance Committee of Montreal recently voted $500 to defray the expense of placing the medicine in each of the city police stations, as prompt application of the treatment to bad cases will prevent the fatalities continually occurring in the city.

No Sanatorium is required. The Treatment can be taken at home. No special diet required. The desire to reform is simply necessary and spirits avoided for a few days.

This medicine is now within the reach of all, the price having been reduced. The wonderful results obtained with the worst cases of drunkards coming before the Judges and Montreal warrants the statement that the disease of Drunkenness can be cured—readily and surely—under ordinary circumstances and with the reasonable desire upon the part of an inebriate.

This treatment is simply the medicine of the medical profession—the only secret is as to its administration.

Dr. Mackay's discovery is the result of 25 years of practice as a specialist and expert. He is a member of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of the Province of Quebec.

The Government of Quebec through the Judges ordered over 600 boxes of the medicine for prisoners appearing in the Courts in 1904—Official Reports establish 90 per cent. of cures with these cases.

With public and official endorsement and the record of results published in the medical press, it is a waste of money experimenting further.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

At the Grand—
Don Leon's Imperials—Mar. 20-22.
Hooligan's Troubles—March 25.
Sweet Clover—March 27.
The Bonnie Riser Bush—Mar. 31.

HOOGLIGAN'S TROUBLES.

This laughter eliciting cyclone of fun will be the next attraction at the Grand Opera House on Saturday for millions and night.

No show on the road to-day has pleased and made more people smile than Hooligan's Troubles. This farce is constructed for laughing purposes only—new songs, musical numbers and specialties are introduced and the cast individually is one of the strongest ever gotten together. Russell & Wells, the lady musical artists, are a decided novelty; Fred Barth, the rubber man; Hanley & Almee, comedy sketch artists; Olavin & De Soto, lady jock-ers, are only a few of the artists you will see in the big fun show.

"SWEET CLOVER."

Mr. Otis B. Thayer, the star of the "Sweet Clover" Company, which has been secured as the attraction at the Grand on Monday, March 27, claims to hold the record for doubling parts. Before Mr. Thayer's advent into the drama, he was an operative comedian of such versatility that he was cast for many parts and became thoroughly familiar with many operas.

During a week of one-night stands in Illinois, the opera company with which he was playing went into Springfield for one performance of "Faust." After supper, word was sent to the theatre that the character woman who played Martha had been taken suddenly ill and could not go on. The house was sold out and a crowd was waiting at the door of the theatre for the doors to open when the manager got this message. He went to Mr. Thayer, who was stage manager, and asked in a hopeless voice, what could be done. Mr. Thayer not knowing exactly how it was to be done, assured him that the opera would be put on.

Rehearsing that Martha and Valentine, the part which he was playing, were on the stage at the same time but once, and that in a very short action, he decided to play both parts, cutting out the scene in which both appeared at the same time. He went on as Valentine, hurriedly changed his costume and make-up and reappeared as Martha, keeping up this dual performance during the opera.
And so well were the parts played that it is safe to say that none of the audience knew that a man and not a woman played the part of Martha.

The character woman's illness required that this management be carried out for a week, and Mr. Thayer became so proficient, and pleased so well as Martha, that the management endeavored to persuade him to continue, but without avail, as Mr.
Thayer, while he enjoyed the work for a little while, couldn't see the fun in playing two parts which required a constant change of costume and make-up as a regular thing.

Santa on sale to-morrow.

School of the Woods.
No doubt you have all wondered if the approaching winter will be as severe as the winter of 1903-04, and it may be interesting to hear of some of the signs of late fall.

The chipmunks, which generally stay in their dens all winter, can still be seen on warm days running about in the forest leaves, and they appear to have decided on the winter.

The robins still brave the cold November winds and chirpingly seem to say winter will not come yet.

Last year at this time the muskrats had built tunnels in the banks along the shore and were hauled away for the winter. But now if a person were to walk along the shore on a moonlight night they could see these busy little workers building their homes far out in the bay water.
The knowing ones who have observed these things say that the cold this winter will be less severe and the snowfall lighter than in the past five winters.
May it be so.

A fresh young face like the lilies of the field attracts a man. But what holds a man is charm, and a woman may be very lovely yet possess no charms. There is no reason why a woman should not retain her looks until she is quite old. Girls grow up like daisies in the field, and it weeds do not smother their good looks—so it is with we mean disease of the feminine organ—they should grow up beautiful.
The young girl is like a plant which, set in a dark corner, becomes a scrawny and struggles hard for an existence, but if put in the sunlight puts on more vigorous growth. Thousands of girls in America have health and strength and grow thin and sickly because they do not take proper hygienic methods or take proper care of their womanly health. Nothing will produce a bad complexion so surely as displacements. When pains and aches rack the womanly system at frequent intervals, take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It will cure those ailments and stop the drainings which are such a drag on the vitality of womanhood. If you are at a loss to know what is the matter with you, write Dr. Pierce, who will answer you in strict confidence; he is a physician and surgeon who has had a thorough medical training and a large experience in diseases of women, and will give you advice free of cost to you.

Every woman, young or old, should know herself. To arrive at this knowledge, secure a good doctor book, by dressing Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
"The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser" can be procured by sending thirty-one cents in one stamp for paper-bound volume, or fifty stamps for a cloth-bound copy.

For constipation, the true, scientific cure is Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.
Mild, harmless, yet sure. No other pill can compare with them.

The French-Venezuelan Complications
Have Reached Crisis.

Washington, March 21.—The French cable complication have reached a crisis and U. S. Minister Bowen has informed the State Department that the French minister at Caracas, by instructions of his Government, has in-firmed the Venezuelan Government that there must be no further proceedings on its part toward the cancellation of the company's franchise or interference with its property. Further, Mr. Bowen reports that two French warships have been ordered, post haste, to Venezuela, to act in accordance with the instructions of the French minister.

Mimico Led Re-Captured.

Brookville, March 21.—Peter Baker a bright lad of 14, was taken into custody about midnight Sunday night at the Grand Trunk station, where he was loitering about. On being looked up he acknowledged that he escaped from the Mimico Industrial School and was beating his way to Gananoque, where his parents reside. He was sentenced six months ago to a term of two years on a charge of theft.

Toronto, March 21.—Baker escaped from Mimico on Saturday afternoon, when five others, who also made a break for liberty, were recaptured. He will be brought back.

DRESSING COQUETTISHLY.

Its Effect as Seen Through One Pair of Feminine Eyes.

"After all, I don't believe the point for women to consider in dressing to please men is so much to dress well as to dress coquettishly," exclaimed a pretty young woman. "Men are such romantic creatures deep down in their hearts that they will take a girl in a rippling tailor made for granted—at least they'll take her clothes for granted, I mean—while you'll hear them rave over somebody in a seven cent print frook, with a blue sash, maybe, or a rose in her hair. It's the little touch that catches their fancy, the little absurdity or extravagance or coquetry—I don't know just what to call it, but I know it when I see it."

"I know a man who actually wants his wife to rig herself up in a ridiculous little apron for Sunday night tea.
Just fancy! His choice—he's given her several—is a thing made out of an exquisite cobwebby handkerchief, with insertions and frills of imitation val.
He loves to see her wear that apron with a pearl necklace he gave her the first year they were married and a pink or rose—any old flower—ever her left ear."

"He's so romantic, you see. Those little touches that look silly to his wife—to any woman, in fact—touch his heart the way expensive jewelry doesn't.
When she wears that ridiculous apron she somehow seems like the girl he court three years ago. She stops behind his wife. She becomes poetry and romance incarnate, and the spirit of love comes down to dwell on earth."

"My youngest brother will go out calling some evening, and the next day he'll get an account of it for breakfast.
'By Jove, you should have seen Miss Smith!' he will exclaim fervently. 'She was a picture. What did she have on?
Oh, bother! How should I know?' Well, she had on a long coral necklace, if you want to know. She was a picture. And while—something white.
She does her hair the way no other girl does it—all wavy, you know—rippling."

"And that's the way he'll run on.
Always if a girl's a picture it turns out she wore white with a blue sash or she carried a rose or something like that."

"If we women only understood the secret of looking coquettish as well as being coquettish, there wouldn't be so many bachelors; that's all I've got to say."—New York Tribune.

THE HAIR HAT.

A Method of Quickly Drying the Hair After Washing It.

"I would wash my hair oftener," said a girl whose natural hair is very oily, "if it were not for the trouble I have in drying it. It takes hours and hours."

For women who have the same trouble here are a few suggestions. Do not try to shake the hair dry nor to fan it.
This method takes far too long. On the contrary, try to dry the hair by easier methods.

Make for yourself a hair hat. You can do this by taking an old straw hat

HAIR HAT FOR DRYING THE HAIR.

and cutting out the crown, or, if you have no old straw hat, take out the bottom of the box and trim off the edges to make them smooth.

After you have washed your hair dry it with towels. Then pull it up through the hat box and set the box on the top of your head. Pull your hair out of the top and spread it around in such a way that the air reaches it constantly and sit in a sunny window. Inside of an hour your hair will be bone dry. It will be dry enough for you to go out without catching cold. You can, if you so desire, give it an extra drying by running a warm fashion over your head, but this is not necessary.—Marian Martineau in Boston Globe.

The Coffee-pot.

Good coffee cannot be made in a neglected coffee-pot. It is a mistake to use soapuds when cleaning a coffee-pot. Only clear, scalding water should be used, and all of the brown film, so destructive of fine flavor, which collects on its inside, can be easily removed by a minute's brisk scouring with a tablespoonful of dry salt and a piece of heavy manilla paper. Rinse thoroughly and dry quickly on a warm griddle and be well repaid for the little trouble by the improved flavor to your morning beverage.

Wrinkles.

Wrinkles come from emotion, not from age. Every time you are angry you make a new line in your forehead.
Every time you force a smile you draw a wrinkle down the side of your mouth.
Every time you are worried you lay the foundation for a new corner's foot.
All the sticking plaster and massage in the world are as naught against the evil of too many emotions.

When the Hopper Matches Out.

Mr. A. J. N. Terrill, formerly of this province, who is now doing journalistic work out to the Territories, makes the subjoined editorial reference in The Medicine Hat News to western conditions: "There was a time when the good people of Ontario placed considerable confidence in the Globe's first spring robin as a harbinger of warm weather, but when robins began spending the winter in Canada for the sake of getting their names in the paper there was nothing else to do but fall back on the 'bear and his shadow' theory to determine the length of the winter. Now, out here in Medicine Hat we find the members of the Saltatorial Orthoptera, family more reliable as weather prophets than the robins. The dignity of his office in this respect leads us to invest the common grasshopper with his scientific patronymic. But whether you call him a grasshopper or the other thing is neither here nor there. What we wish to point out is that there is no change of these insects weathering. A Medicine Hat winter in any other state than in the larvae stage of development; hence, the statement that Michael Quimella caught a small bottle full of grasshoppers in the lower end of the town on Thursday, February 23, simply means that the temperature is sufficiently mild to allow the 'hoppers' to hatch.
The fact of grasshoppers being found in February should go far to disprove any attempts to deprive the Medicine Hat district of its title to being considered the banana belt of Canada. The farmers in this section began seeding this week, and look forward confidently to harvesting in May."

DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP.

It is a pleasant, safe, and effectual medicine that may be confidently relied upon.

Mrs. Brenton Smith, Pembroke, N.S., writes:—"Some time ago I was troubled with a bad cough, and thought I would try your valuable cough mixture, Dr.
Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. I purchased a bottle, and as soon as I began taking it I could tell it was helping me. I kept on, and in a short time my cough was cured. I would advise anyone suffering with a cough to get a bottle, for it will soothe, heal and cure."

One Address Enough.

The clerk in the express office was just about to toss the package back of the counter when he noticed that it was addressed on both sides. "It's good I saw that. Charges might have been collected twice," he said. "That's funny," remarked the shipper. "I just paid the charges, you know." "Yes," responded the clerk, "and I marked it paid, but the second address might have caused them to collect at the other end. You see, I checked it off paid on one side, but when it reaches the other office it might be that the prepaid mark would be on the bottom.
That would bring the other address up, and seeing no check mark there, the receiving office would mark it collect and the party to whom it was addressed would pay the second express charges." "And I thought I was doing something to expedite matters in putting the address on both sides," commented the shipper.

Your Throat.

Gargles can't go back far enough, sprays don't reach deep enough; but the air you breathe touches every part. Then why not put some healing medicine in the air and let them go along together? That is what Vapo-Cresolene is for. It puts the healing medicine right on the places that most need it. You now see why it so quickly cures sore throat, bronchitis, hoarseness, whooping-cough and asthma.

Vapo-Cresolene is sold by druggists, or sent express prepaid on receipt of price. A Vapo-Cresolene outfit including a bottle of Cresolene, complete $2.00. S. J. L.
