

Sizing up Canadians. Mr. Meddlebook, of Binghampton, N. Y., was in Toronto a short time ago. Being interviewed, he said: "You people in Canada have a rather strange fashion of running down your own country and people, and comparing it with the States to the advantage of the latter. Now I don't see what you really have to grumble at. I hear many people here saying that Americans have twice as much enterprise as Canadians. Well, I cannot see it. All things considered, the number of your people and the size of your home market, I think there is just as much energy and steam in Canadians as in Americans. Of course there is more money circulated and more business done in the States, but then we have twelve times your population, and that is everything. There are all the opportunities afforded capitalists for investing in the commercial enterprise necessitated by the needs and wants of those sixty million people. Everything is on a bigger scale, competition is keener, every new idea that will enable a man to get ahead of his fellows and obtain an advantage is immediately seized upon. All that implies movement in capital and the thousand and one things dependent upon it. Take this city of Toronto for instance. You have any number of fine, large buildings erected at a big cost; that shows that you have plenty of men with faith in the country and willing to prove it, for of course those buildings are a speculation. Look at the bright side of everything, and you will find life a great deal pleasanter. Well, I'm off to Muskoka to fish for a week."

The Pills for the People. Murilla, Sta., Ont., Jan. 13, 1890. W. H. COMSTOCK, Brockville, Ont. DEAR SIR,—Have been selling your Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills for the past eight years; they are the only Pill for the people. After having used them once, they always come back for more. Yours truly, JNO. McLEAN.
