

Learn to Dance In Your Own Home

HERE is the greatest musical novelty ever offered! Never anything like it before---four complete Columbia dance instruction records made by the foremost dancing teacher in the country. They are novel, interesting, instructive and absolutely practical.

Put the record on your talking machine---follow the detailed instructions in the book---and you have it!

COLUMBIA Dance Instruction Records

Sold at $1.00 each. G. Hepburn Wilson's book, "How to Dance the Modern Dances," FREE.

These four records are an absolute novelty—yes, and absolutely practical!

The One-Step.---Instruction, with music, and with the time counted, on one side---and on the other, "Goodbye, Broadway," played by full orchestra. Ask $1.00 for Record No. A1542.

The Hesitation.---Instruction, with music, and with the time counted, on one side---and on the other "Columbia Hesitation," played by full orchestra. Ask $1.00 for Record No. A1543

The Maxixe.---Instruction with music, and with the time counted, on one side---and on the other, "Florence Maxixe," played by full orchestra. Ask $1.00 for Record No. A1540

The Tango.---Instruction with music, and with the time counted, on one side---and on the other "The Aeroplane," played by full orchestra. Ask for Record $1.00 No. A1541

FREE This book, written and illustrated by G. Hepburn Wilson, with any one of the records.

The Music Supply Co.

(Largest Wholesale Distributors in Canada)

36 Wellington St. East

TORONTO

