BREEN-HART.

An early wedding took place in St. Mary's church at 6 o'clock vesterday moraing, when Mr. Thos. Breen of Eaterprise, Ont., was married to Miss Mary Hart, teacher, daughter of Mr. Michael Hart, of this town, Rev. Dean O'Connell officiating. The bride s only sister Miss Kate. was bridesmald, while her cousin, Mr. Joseph McQuion, of Arthur, performed the duties of best man. The bride looked very pretty in a Louis XIV. cestume of dove colored Venetian cloth, trimmed with applique with which she wore a white slik blouse and Monte Carlo bolero of cluny lace, and medallions of slik for onaments. Her hat was of white plush, with trimmings of steel and ostrich f-achers. The bride-small also wore a Louis XIV. suit of grey cloth with white cashmere blouse and white saller hat. On account of recent bereavement in the bride's family, the wedding was very quiet. Wedding breakfast at the bride's home followed the ceremony, after which the happy couple left on the morning train for a trip to Toronto, Hamilton and Buffalo. The bride received many useful and costly presents from frends in Hamilton. Guelph, North Bay, Arthur and other places where she had formerly taught, also from friends in town and her future home. The ceremony was performed by the popular paster of St. Patrick's church, Rev. Fasher McMenamu. During the Mass a touching hymn. 'Child give Me thy heart,' was exquisitely teadered by Mrs. Albert 8. Kerte, of Detroit, sister of the bride. Messrs. James McIlhargey and C. Hishon acted as ushers.

After the cremons a reception was held at the home of the bride's mo'her where a most recherche wedding breakfast which was retered by Mr. Rellins of Lucan, was served.

Rev. Father McMeuamin graced the occasion with his presence. The usual toast to the bride was proposed in a most happy manner by the Reverand Father, and that to the groom in a brief and humorous way by Mr. J. L. Killoran barrister of Seaforth, cousin of the bride. The bridesmaids teast was well looked after by Mr. R. T. Fieming, cousin of the groom.

DANIEL DURACK. CONNAUGHT.

Again we are called upon to announce the death of one of the most respected centlemen of this place, in the person of Mr. Daniel Durack, whose death occurred Monday evening Nov. 23-d. The deceased aged seventy two, was a good Christian, a devoit Catholic, a loving husband and father and a charitable neighbor. He leaves a wife and family of two sone and six daughters to mourn his loss to whom we beg to extend our hearifelts in mythy. His health had been failing for some time, but was not thought to be dangerously ill, mill ness, Rev. Father Devine administered to him the sacraments of his holy religion several times, so when the final moment came he calmly breathed forth his soul to God.

During his last hours he was surrounded by all his family—a comfort and consolation he so much prayed for, His happy death was but a fitting cles for a well spent life.

On Wednesday, Nov. 25th, a large concourse of sorrowing friends to lowed the remains to St. Pins' Church, Oscona, where Solemin Requiem Mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Duquette, at the Offertory of which the cheir rendered in a most effective manner "Take Me, My Jesus, to Heaven." The Libera was chanted by Rev. On Saturday, Nov. 21st, Mrs Philip Weishar, (nee Pauline Schmidt) was buried in Formeas, Ont. Rev. Father J. J. Gehl, cousin of deceased, officiating at the funeral service. The pall bearers were her brothers in law John, Joseph, Andrew and Henry Weishar and her two brothers Jacob and John Schmidt.

The deceased lady was but twenty-eight years and nine months of age and left two small children, a boy and a girt, aged seven and five years, respectively. Her life had been spent in Carrick Township, Bruce Cousiy, where she was born; in Wallaceburg where she possessed many friends, and in Penetan guishene, where her husband is principal of the public school. She came to the latter place in January last, and before well acquainted with the townspeople contracted a severe odd. During the last isx months, owing to feeble health, she was unable to engage in the social duties of life, where one gathers as from a garden the choicest flowers of friendship. But 'a little tench of nature makes the whole world kin," and in her case it was severe illness and the separation from family friendships drew upon her the sympathy of the kindhard deced.

to her bed side sincere friends, who were friends indeed.
Once that she had received Hely Commun ton death lost its terrors for her. Conversation on that topic seemed a charm to her, and afforded her schoes in suffering. Fortified by the reception of the sacraments of penance and the Blessed Euclarist, and, at last, of Extreme Unction and Hely Visitioum, she prayed to die. Her prayer was granted early Thursday morning, Nov. 19th, shortly after the arrival of nor mother and her brother?

The remnas were conveyed by train to Formosa for burial. May He Whom she received ind cipy Communion be her merciful Judge and receive her into His Courts, according to His promise: "If any man eat this bread he shall live for ever."
