it reeky and hard that the ground is-too hard for the green things to grow? e you breaking your back with the la of lifting the spade and the hos? a. Dennia, be lifting your eyes, man, to the glitter of gold on the hills; the courage and think of your blessing and not of your tils.

Sure, the grass it grows green by our doo man, d the daisy lifts up her wee face, the rooks have a mantle of gold, man, plorify all the bare place; eur backs are as broad as our burden d if we're content with our health, we're jeher than some of our neighbo waken again with the morning, give us a heaven of blue; ahine on the spider's spun laces, gitter in diamonds of dew.

en you'll be sorry you grumbled, worried the daylight and me; a work with a laugh in your hear

Fair harvest there'll be !

NEWS FROM IRELAND.

Dublin.

The Castle authorities do occasionally throw some crumbs of reward to those who slavishly bow down before the fetish of West Britonism in Ireland. Mr. R. J. Murphy, chairman of the Town Commissioners of Kingstown, is one of these gentlemen. He it was who presented the address to the Prince of Wales a short time ago, and on June 15, he deliberately gave his casting vote in favor of a rank Tory as against a popular Nationalist for the office of Town Commissioner for Monkstown ward. Such services could not, of course, be ignored by Earl Spencer, and we now learn that Mr. Murphy has been made a J. P.

Very Rev. Dr. Walsh, Archbishopslect of Dublin, has been admitted a member of the Royal Irish Academy.

Kilkenny has sent over 860 to the itanhens Fund.

Kilkenny has sent over $60 to the Stephens Fund. The list is headed by the Mayor of the ancient City of the Carlow.

The Rev. Father Phelan, the earnest and patriotic pastor of Rathville, county Carlow, is energetically following up the good work done at the splendid meeting held recently in that parish under his auspices: On Sunday, June 14, an enthusiastic meeting of the farmers and laborers of Ticknock, Talbotstown, and Rathvilly was held to perfect the organization of the local branch of the National League. Father Phelan presided, and he was ably assisted by the Rev. Michael Brennan, C. C., and the Rev. Michael Brennan, C. C., and the Rev. Patrick Byrne, C. C. Resolutions, vig. orously phrased, in sympathy with the National principles of the League, were unanimously passed, and a strong committee was formed, Father Phelan himself taking the presidency.

At a fine patriarchal age, in the old homestead of New Grange, where the Irish hospitality of him and his so long had the warmth of the kindly welcome for all who came beneath their roof-tree, there has passed away, in the person of Mr. Richard Kirke, on June 11, one of the most single-minded, warm-hearted, and generous souls that ever breathed the breath of life.

Louth,

The Rev. Paul Ginnetty, Drogheda, died, on June 13, in the forty-first year of his age, and the fifteenth of his sacred profession, at the curate residence, Fair profession, at the curate residence, Fair street. Fath: r Ginnetty commenced his studies for the priesthood in St. Patrick's College, Armagh, and finished up his collegiate course in Maynooth, where he

The most Rev. Dr. Fitzgerald, Bishop of Ross, returned home to his diocese from Rome on June 17, and met with a

The most Rev. Dr. Fitzgerald, Bishop of Ross, returned home to his diocese from Rome on June 17, and met with a splendid welcome from the Clergy and people of his diocese.

On June 13 six families were evicted near Skull, the decree being had at the suit of a middleman named Regan. One of the tenants thus expelled from his rooftree was a married policeman, and as his eviction took place under the protecting surveillance of his armed comrades, the scene became somewhat amusing. It was expected that the policeman would resist, but owing to illness he was unable to do so, and the large crowd who followed left without their expected piece of fun. The policeman was evicted for nonpayment, but it was necessary to join him in the ejectment as a legal formality.

Another member of the Irish Party has entered as a law student at the King's Inns, Mr. John Deasy, the junior member for Cork.

Another member of the Irish Party has entered as a law student at the King's Inns, Mr. John Deasy, the junior member for Cork.

The petty despots who are connected with the South Infirmary of Cork as trustees, and who, if they could, would have punished Dr. Tanner for holding national opinions, by dismissing him from his position in the Infirmary, have been foiled in their vicious work. The members of the medical profession in Cork creditably stood by Dr. Tanner, and the complete discomfiture of the boycotting trustees has been the result. On June 12, a meeting of the trustees was held and a resolution passed repudiating any intention to insult the medical profession of the city. Dr. Tanner was then re-elected to his position of assistant surgeon to the Infirmary without any opposition. It is satisfactory to find in this incident another proof that the day has gone by when intolerance and West-Britonism can have everything their own way in Ireland.

The Most Rev. Monsignor Sheehan has Kerry.

Chief Justice Morris and a special jury of the city of Dublin, had, for trial before them, on June 19, an action at the suit of the Marquis of Lansdowne and others, against the Town Commissioners of Killarney. The real plaintiff was the Earl of Kenmare, and the action was to recover possession of the Fair Hill. Lord Kenmare at a time when he was on good terms with the Town Commissioners let them the ground known as the Fair Hill. Lately, when the relations between the parties were not quite so friendly, his lordship demanded book the land. The jury, by direction of the judge, found for the plaintiff.

Limerick.

The Sub-Sheriff of the county Limerick, accompanied by a force of police and bailiffs, proceeded to Park, on June 15, and evicted, for non-payment of rent, six tenants on the property of the late Rev. Mr. Moore. A large crowd of people collected, and kept up a continuous shouting and hallooing while the evictions were being carried out.

A novel case of boycotting has just occurred in Limerick. Some time since the directors of the Waterford and Limerick Railway advertised for tenders from persons desirous to rent the new refreshment rooms at Limerick terminus. A number of traders waited on the directors to urge them to accept the tender of a Nationalist friend, under the penalty of the deputation boycotting the railway company. The directors accepted another tender. The result has been that the traders put their threat into execution. They transferred their business in butter and bacon from the Waterford to the Great Southern and Western Company.

At the weekly meeting of the Tipper-ary Board of Guardians, on June 18, a resolution was passed to prosecute the Land Corporation for keeping sheep on an evicted farm they had purchased, while the animals were suffering from Waterford. Mr. John A. Blake, who so honorably resigned his seat for the county Waterford a little time ago, is receiving a warm welcome from his countrymen in Australia. In the course of his tour round the world, Mr. Blake reached Sydney a little time ago, and was most hospitably entertained in that city by the large Irish constituency which resides in it. On the 25th of April, Mr. Blake lectured on behalf of the A. M. Sullivan Tribute.

orously phrased, in sympathy with the National principles of the League, were unanimously passed, and a strong committee was formed, Father Phelan himself taking the presidency.

Edmund Dease, Esq., Rath House, Ballybrittas, has been appointed Deputy Lieutenant for Queen's County.

Meath.

At a fine patriarchal age, in the old homestead of New Grange, where the Antrim.

Armagh.

homestead of New Grange, where the Irish hospitality of him and his so long had the warmth of the kindly welcome for all who came beneath their roof-tree, there has passed away, in the person of Mr. Richard Kirke, on June 11, one of the most single-minded, warm-hearted, and generous souls that ever breathed the breath of life.

Wexford.

At the Franciscan Convent of the Perpetual Adoration, county Leitrim, June 9, Sister Mary Aloysius, of St. Rose, eldest daughter of Mr. Richard McLoughlin, Common Quay street, Wexford, died, in the 44th year of her age, and the 18th of her religious profession.

Armagh.

The National League has been established at Meigh, county Armagh. The success. There was fine enthusiasm, and the resolutions were strong. The support, he said, had hurled from power the strongest Government that ever yielded the destinies of Britain.

Mr. E. J. Wingfield, M. A., District Inspector of National Schools, died at Armagh, on June 19, after a short illness. The deceased gentleman, who was only about thirty years of age, was a relative of Lord Powerscourt. He was a convert of Lord Powerscourt. He was a convert to the Roman Catholic taith.

The hunting question has cropped up in Armagh. In an action at the County Quarter Sessions, on June 17th, David Edgar sued Master Atkinson, J. P. & Co., of the Armagh Hunt Club, for injury done to his sheep. Several of these were killed by the reckless freaks of the "gentlemen" and dogs through his farm. The chairman held that the club was responsible for any such injury, and accordingly a decree was granted for £9. This, it is hoped, may put a slight check on the insufferable annoyance to which farmers are subjected by a useless and farmers are subjected by a useless and hostile caste.

Derry.

A farmer named Wilson met his death A farmer named Wilson met his death near Maghera, county Derry, while returning home, on June 13th, as the cart he was driving accidentally fell into a deep bog-hole. A man named Downey, who accompanied him, was iso seriously injured that but little hope is entertained of his recovery.

Down.

The death is announced of Rev. Hugh Hanna, P. P., Brainsford. The deceased was born in Dunsford, in 1812. He graduated through Maynooth, was ordained in Belfast, where he served some time as curate, and afterwards received the parish in which he died.

Tyrone.

A convention of delegates of the National League, in Fermanagh, assembled, in Enniskillen Town Hall, on June 17th. The attendance was very large, Messra. Harrington and Deasy, M. P^ha., attended, and delivered addresses, and the Rev. Father McKenna, C. C., Enniskillen, presided. The proceedings were most enthusiastic. Arrangements were made for registration, and resolutions were adopted in reference to this and other matters affecting popular interests. Galway. Galway.

Galway.

On June 15, a strange occurrence took place on an evicted farm near Moylough. The farm was formerly held by a poor widow named Naughton; she held it under lease, and at the expiration of the lease the landlord took the land into his own possession. Shortly after the land had been taken up, the property passed into the Court of Chancery, which allowed the land to remain a commonage. A few weeks ago, the balliff on the estate took possession of the land, and recently there has been police protection in and about the locality. The farm adjoins the public road at Laught, and is fenced in by a stone wall on one side, and a bush ditch on the other. A few men were engaged making up the fences, and all were complete, but on June 15, all were levelled to the ground, which could not have been done by fewer than fifty men. The bailiff is under police protection, and police were there that night. It is impossible to ascertain in what way such work could have been done without being found out.

Maye.

Maye.

An extraordinary exodus of harvestmen, nearly the whole of whom came from the county Mayo, went from the North Wall, Dublin, on June 19th, for various places in Lancashire, Yorkshire, and the Midlands. During the day and evening six special trains from Ballyhaunis and district arrived at the North Wall with harvestmen, and altogether about 6,000 of these industrious laborers went from the North Wall to England. Mayo. Roscommon.

The Rev. Peter Geraghty, P. P. Kilconly and Kilbernan, died, on June 17, at the family residence, Lismoyle, parish of Menlough, whither he had been brought some months since by his friends who had hoped that his native air and rest would restore his failing health.

air and rest would restore his failing health.

The men of North Roscommon recently gave Mr. Edward E. Daly, of Shipparton, Victoria, Australia, a hearty "Cead mille failthe." It is now over 39 years since the parents of Mr. Daly, then a lad of a little over twelve summers, were evicted from their home in Bally-farnon. They then emigrated to America, from whence, after a short time, the youngest of the three brothers re-emigrated to Australia. At the outbreak of the American Civil War, the rest of the family joined him in Victoria, where his two brothers are now rich and prosperous landowners. He, himself, is the head of the firm of Daly, Woodgate & Co., the leading merchants of Shipparton, one of the rising cities of Victoria. Every Irish National or Catholic movement started in Australia, had in him a warm advocate. Mr. Daly is the bearer of a simple yet touching beheet from his father, a fine old veteran of over 84 years, to bring him to his far-off Australian home, a couple sods of turf from the bog on which he often cut it, when a youth, that he may light his pipe with a spark from an Irish coal before he dies. a clad of a little over twelve summers, were evicted from their home in Ballyfarnon. They then emigrated to America, the three brothers re-emigrated to Australia, At the outbreak of the American Civil War, the rest of the family joined him in Victoria, where his two brothers are now rich and prosperous landowners. He, himself, is the head of the firm of Daly, Woodgate & Co., the leading merchants of Shipparton, one of the rising cittes of Victoria, Every Irish National or Catholic movement started in Australia, had in him a warm advocate. Mr. Daly is the bearer of a simple yet touching behest from his father, a fine old veteran of over 84 years, to bring him to his far-off Australian home, a couple sods of turf from the bog on which he often cut it, when a spark from an Irish coal before he dies.

THE LAST OF SPENCER.

HOOTED AS A MURDERER IN THE STREETS OF DUBLIN.

Dublin, July 1, 1885.

Earl Spencer is gone, and the universal feeling is one of relief as upon the removal of an oppressive nightmare from the body politic. He held a final levee on Saturday, which was attended by about a thousand guests. The honor of knighthous was bestowed by the earl on Under Sacretary Kaye and Land Commissioner Green, because of the services supposed to have been rendered by these gentlemen in a thousand guests. The honor of knighthood was bestowed by the earl on Under Secretary Kaye and Land Commissioner Green, because of the services supposed to have been rendered by these gentlemen in connection with the reception accorded the Prince of Wales in Dublin. Ostentations present its present the present the secretary of the prince of the prin the Prince of Wales in Dublin. Octentatious preparations were made to avert any possible hostile demonstrations by Invincibles or others, and packages destined for the castle were scrupulously examined with a view to their contents being possibly of an explosive nature. A large force of police guarded all approaches to the castle, and detectives in the guise of guests mingled with the assembled crowd. Within the castle everything passed off very well, but as soon as the people outside saw the viceregal carriage, the scene was changed. During the reception an immense crowd had gathered around the castle, as close to the building as the police and military cordons would allow, and rent the air with police and military cordons would allow, and rent the air with

SHOUTS, HOOTS AND GROAMS.

At the conclusion of the reception Earl Spencer made his appearance in a closed carriage surrounded by a strong guard of military. His appearance was the signal for prolonged hooting by the crowd. As he entered his carriage the father of Joseph Poole, who was hanged for the murder of John Kenney, and whom Earl Spencer refused to reprieve, shouted at the top of his voice, "That's the man who murdered my child!" which remark the crowd took up and supplemented with shouts of "murderer!" "murderer!" Smith, the father of one of the condemned Invincibles, is said to have been also in the crowd which followed the vice-regal equipage along the route to the railway station with vociferous hooting and groaning. As the vice-regal carriage passed Westland Row Chapel the hootings were joined in by a freshly collected crowd, but nothing occurred to invite police interference. At Kingstown a large number were on the jetty, who gave hearty farewells. The Countess Spencer, who has lived here altogether nine years during the earl's two terms, cried, and Earl Spencer also seemed much affected. His successor will soon arrive, and is promised a good reception from all sides, as will the new law officers, who are fairly popular as hailing from Dublin.

DR. WALSH'S APPOINTMENT.

same year allers comes on de same week day."

Further conversation proved Uncle Zach a most incredulous person. Chancing to mention Dr. Carver's feat of breaking glass balls with a rife he said:

"I heerd 'bout that shootin' and knowed right off it wasn't squar'; that was a Yankee trick, boss, sho's you born."

"What was the trick?"

"Dar wuz loadstone put into de glass balls, an' likewise onto de bullets; so when de bullet fly outen de gun, it an' de ball jes drawed tergedder, which, in course, brokes de glass—dats de trick!"

Later, Uncle Zach observed a rope running along the side of the car.

"Boss, what's dat line fur?"

"To apply the air-brake in case of accident." Then we had further to explain how the force of the brake was obtained, to which Uncle Zach responded:

"Look a here boss you sholy don't

"Fools Rush in, Where Angels Fear to

So impetuous youth is often given to folly and indiscretions; and, as a result, nervous, mental and organic debility follow, memory is impaired, self-confidence is lacking; at night bad dreams occur, premature old age seems setting in, ruin is in the track. In confidence, you can, and should write to Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., the author of a treatise for the benefit of that class of patients, and describe your symptoms and sufferings. He can cure you at your home, and will send you full particulars by mail.

MESSRS, TUCKETT & SON are often Tread.

by mail.

MESSRS, TUCKETT & SON are often asked to sell their "Myrtle Navy" tobacco to retail dealers. They never in any case do so, and for the best of reasons. The wholesale trade of the country have a distributing machinery which handles the "Myrtle Navy" without any addition to its permanent expenses. If the manufacturers were to undertake that work, as they would by selling to the retail trade, it would require an independent machinery, the whole cost of which would have to be borne by the proceeds of the tobacco sales, and of course it would fall upon the consumer. Selling to the wholesale trade alone, is, therefore, for the consumer's benefit and is a convenience to the retail trade, because every traveller who calls—in the grocery line—can take orders for "Myrtle Navy."

Scott's Emulsion of Pure Cod Liver

Scott's Emulsion of Pure Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites is composed of two of the most valuable remedies in the department of medicine for the cure of Consumption, Scrofula, and all wasting conditions of the body.

He Acted Wisely.

"I am so weak I can hardly move, all run down with a Chronic Summer Complaint," said one gentleman to another on our street the other day. "Now, take my advice," replied his triend, "go to your Druggist and get a bottle of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. I never have known it to fail in curing any kind of Summer Complaints."

Poblin is an unpecalished proof of Me, remarks in the proof of the proof of Me, remarks in the proof of the pro disease, and drives it, root and branch, out of the system.

St. Mary-street, Peterborough,
November 29th, 1881.

Sir,—It gives me great pleasure to inform you of the benefit I have received from Seigel's Syrup. I have been troubled for years with dyspepsia; but after a few doses of the Syrup, I found relief, and after taking two bottles of it I feel quite cured.

Cured.

I am, Sir, yours truly,
Mr. A. J. White. William Brent.
September 8th, 1883.
Dear Sir,—I find the sale of Seigel's Syrup steadily increasing. All who have tried it speak very highly of its medicinal virtues: one customer describes it as a "Godsend to dyspeptic people." I always recommend it with confidence.
Faithfully yours,
(Signed) Vincent A. Wills,
Chemist-Dentist, Merthyr Tydvil.
For sale by Wm. Saunders & Co., Druggists, London, and A. J. White, (Ld.,) branch office, 67 St. James st., Montreal, P. Q.

Listen to Your Wife. The Manchester GUARDIAN, June 8th, 1883.

says: At one of the

"Windows" "Windows"

Looking on the woodland ways! With clumps of rhododendroms and great masses of May blossoms!!! "There was an interesting group.

It included one who had been a "Cotton spinner," but was now so Paralyzed!!!

That he could only bear to lie in a reclining position.

That he could only bear to the clining position.

This refers to my case.
I was Attacked twelve years ago with "Locomoter Ataxy"

(A paralytic disease of nerve fibre rarely ever cured)

The could only bear to the could not be considered and the could not be considered as a cou get about.

And for the last Five years not able to attend to my business, although Many things have been done for me.
The last experiment being Nerve stretching.
Two years ago I was voted into the Home for Incurables! Near Manches.

Home for Incurables! Near Manchester, in May, 1882.

I am no "Advocate"; "For anything in the shape of patent" Medicines?

And made many objections to my dear wife's constant urging to try Hop Bitters, but finally to pacify her—

Consented!!

I had not quite finished the first bottle when I felt a change come over me. This was Saturday, November 3d. On Sunday morning I felt so strong I said to my room companions, "I was sure I could "Walk!

"Walk! So started across the floor and back.

So started across the floor and back.

I hardly knew how to contain myself. I was all over the house. I am gaining strength each day, and can walk quite safe without any "Stick!"

Or Support.

I am now at my own house, and hope soon to be able to earn my own living again. I have been a member of the Manchester "Royal Exchange"

For nearly thirty years, and was most heartily congratulated on going into the room on Thursday last. Very gratefully yours, JOHN BLACKBURN, MANCHESTER (Eng.), Dec. 24, 1888.

Two years later am perfectly well

None genuine without a bunch of green Hops on the white label, Shun all the vile, poisonous stuff with "Hop" or "Hops" in their name.

A Frequent Annoyance.

Many people suffer from distressing sick headaches and bilious attacks of frequent occurrence which a bottle or two of Burdock Blood Bitters wouentirely remove, It regulates the Stomach, Liver, Bowels and Blood to a healthy action Stomach, Liver, Bowels and Blood to a healthy action.

Mr. H. McCaw, Custom House, Toronto, writes: "My wife was troubled with Dyspepsia and Rheumatism for a long time; she tried many different medicines, but did not get any action. from all sides, as will the new law officers, who are fairly popular as hailing from Dublin.

DR. WALSH'S APPOINTMENT.

It is everywhere considered that the appointment of the Rev. Dr. Walsh, the Nationalist candidate, as archbishop of The Complex of the Rev. Dr. Walsh, the Nationalist candidate, as archbishop of The Complex of the Rev. Dr. Walsh, the Nationalist candidate, as archbishop of The Rev. Dr. Low's Pleasant Worm Syrup and Nationalist candidate, as archbishop of The Rev. Dr. Low's Pleasant Worm Syrup and Nationalist candidate, as archbishop of The Rev. Dr. Low's Pleasant Worm Syrup and Nationalist Candidate, as archbishop of The Rev. Dr. Low's Pleasant Worm Syrup and Nationalist Candidate, as archbishop of The Rev. Dr. Walsh, the Nationalist Candidate of Dr. Nationalist Candidate of Dr. Nationalist Candidate,

CONVENT OF OUR LADY OF
Lake Huron, Sarnia, Ont.—This institution offers every advantage to young ladies who wish to receive a solid, useful and refined education. Particular attention is paid to vocal and instrumental music. Studies will be resumed on Monday, Sept. is.
Board and tuition per annum, $100. Forfurther particulars apply to MOTHER SUPERIOR, BOX 303.

ONTARIO.—This Institution is pleasant.y. located in the town of Windsor, opposite Detroit, and combines in its system of education, great facilities for acquiring the French language, with thoroughness in the rudimen. tal as well as the higher English branches-Terms (payable per session in advance) in Canadian currency: Board and tuition in French and English, per annum, $100; German free of charge; Music and use of Piano, $40; Drawing and painting, $15; Bed and bedding, $10; Washing, $22; Private room, $20. For further particulars address:— MOTHER BUPERIOR. TYRSULINE ACADEMY, CHAT-

RSULINE ACADEMY, CHATHAM, ONT.—Under the care of the Ursuline Ladies. This institution is plessantly situated on the Great Western Railway, 50 miles from Detroit. This spaceions and commodious building has been supplied with all the modern improvements. The hot water system of heating has been introduced with success. The grounds are extensive, including groves, gardens, orchards, etc., etc.
The system of education embraces every branch of polite and useful information, including the French language. Plain sewing, fancy work, embroidery in gold and chenille, wax-flowers, etc., are taught free of charge.
Board and Tuition per annum, paid semiannually in advance, $100. Music, Drawing and Painting, form extra charges. For further particulars address, MOTHER SUFERIOR.

A SSUMPTION COLLEGE, SAND-wioe, ONT.—The Studies embrace the Classical and Commercial Courses. Terms (including all ordinary expenses), Canada money, $150 per annum. For full particu-lars apply to REV. DENIS O'CONNOS, Fresi-dent.

DR. WOODRUFF. OFFICE— Queen's Avenue, a few doors east of 88.1y C. McCANN, SOLICITOR, ETC., on real estate.

M'DONALD & DAVIS, SURGEON
Dentists, Office: — Dundas Street, 3 doorseast of Richmond street, London, Ont. CANADIAN HOMEOPATHIC PHARMACY. J. R. Cron, cheatst, 259 Dundas street, London, Ont., has a stock of reliable Mother Tincture Potences Triturations. Goods sent to any part of Canada, prepaid, o. eceipt of price. Physicians supplied at lowest prices. Correspondence solicited.

Meetings.

CATHOLIC MUTUAL BENEFIT ASSOCIATION—The regular meetings of London Branch No. 4 of the Catholic Mutual Benefit Association, will be held on the first and third Thursday of every month, at the hour o 18 o'clock, in our rooms, Castle Hall, Alblon Block, Richmond St. Members are requested to attend punctually. M. HARTMAN, Pres., JAS. CORCOREN, Rec. Sec.

TRISH BENEVOLENT SOCIETY The regular monthly meeting of the Irish Benevolent Society will be held on Friday evening, 12th inst., at their rooms, Masonic Temple, at 7.30. All members are requested to be present. C. A. Suppi, President. NEW BOOK.

MISTAKES OF

MODERN INFIDELS REV. FATHER NORTHGRAVES,

Comprising Evidences of Christianity and Complete Answer to Col. Ingersoli.

Eminently deserving favorable reception and patronage and warm welcome."—Letter of Bishop Watsh, London, Ont.

Highly recommended by the Catholic Bishops of London, Hamilton, Peterboro', Ottawa, Buffalo, Detroit and Peoris; also by the Protestant Bishops of Detroit, Toronto and Ontario, and by the press of Canada and the United States.

424 pages. Paper, 75c.; cloth, $1.25.
Sent on receipt of price. Active canvassers wanted.

WHITE SULPHUR BATHS Dunnett's Baths and Pleasure Grounds, Dundas Street, London, are now open. The baths have been thoroughly cleaned and refitted. JOHN FLEMING, Proprietor, 16 DUNDAS STREET, CITY.

The Heart's Desire.

You think, perhaps, I should be all con To know so well the loving place I he within your life, and so you do not dr How much I long to hear the story to ary sometimes of the rugged way, should you say, "Through the life is sweet," dreamest desert that our path at matter that our granaries are fi

Go praying with white lips from day t For love's sweet tokens, and receive PIVE-MINUTE SERMON FOR EARLY MASSES By the Paulist Fathers. eached in their Church of St. Pa Apostle, Fifty-ninth Street and Avenue, New York.

SIXTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOS "And they had nothing to eat."

The people who crowded about Lord had nothing to eat, because love of the word of God they had time quit their work and their before their earnestness in the fulfilm all their other duties. They were food, not through laziness, but be of set purpose they preferred spirit temporal nourishment. Hence merited this extraordinary and unlefor manifestation of our Lord's god and providence in supplying them food.

We may confidently expect, my ren, the assistance of God even in poral want and necessity if our lendeavors fail. We are not to be solicitous; we are not to deair strive after an abundance of such the second of t This promise, however, we have our heavenly Father knows our and He will come to our aid. B have a duty, an obligation to disc and that is to work, to earn our Now, this is the point of my se that there are many people—the ber seems to be increasing—who nothing to eat, or who say they have and it is their own fault.

They do not merit any special position of heaven to save them fr

They do not merit any special position of heaven to save them from sequences of their own lazines do not seem to deserve, they deserve, the sasistance of the charwho are the stewards and the retatives of the Lord. Now, brethnot imagine that this is a harsh unchristian way of regarding the sities of the very poor; do not sthat I make no allowance for the same the lack of work, the hard the calamities which from time afflict the deserving and the lat If you are in a position to kno cannot but be persuaded that the ency to ask for help, the inclinations but the persuaded that the ency to ask for help, the inclination of the increase; the number of who are unwilling to exert them to undergo the routine, the story and private, the frequency, the bothe unreasonableness of such dies on the increase; the number of who are unwilling to exert them to undergo the routine, the story and in the says, "If any man will no neither let him eat." He bids eviabor faithfully in the calling who has been placed. There is nothing as true religion save in the discharge, first of all, of our duties, and in compliance with great law of labor.

Now, I have frequently notic peculiarity about many of those great law of labor.

Now, I have frequently notice peculiarity about many of those they have nothing to eat, and they cannot be said to have no drink; and the presence of this nourishment explains very of lack of all other. No, my brett us be industrious, mindful that of God has imposed labor on utry to help ourselves; then, if heaven will surely help us, even as truly miraculous as our Savithe multitude in the desert.

"Is there no balm in Gilead Ia there no physician there?" Thanks to Dr. Pierce, there in his "Golden Medical Disco "balm for every wound" to heal colds, coughs, consumption, broand all chronic, blood, lung a affections. Of druggists. The Best Yet.

The Best tet.

There is no preparation be people to day that commands the fidence more, or meets with a bethan does Dr. Fowler's Extract Strawberry—the infallible remed forms of Summer Complaints. Unknown.

There is no remedy known to science that can excel Dr. Extract of Wild Strawberry as a Cholera Morbus, Diarrhos, D or any form of Summer Caffecting children or adults. A Good Filter. Pure water is indispensable the least impurity should be by a good filter. Pure Blood i dispensable; there can be mealth without it. The Liver Blood. Regulate the Liver dock Blood Bitters and make pure the control of the control of

An Invisible Foe. The poisonous germs of dislurking in the air we breathe a water we drink. The system a kept carefully purified and all toned to proper action. This be done by the regulating, puritonic powers of Burdock Bloomers.