

4th Victoria, Cap. 1.

or Commander of the Vessel in which such Timber, Lumber, or Shingles, may have been imported, shall, before such Vessel shall be cleared at the Customs, produce to the Collector or Sub-Collector, respectively, a certificate from some one of the Sworn Surveyors of Lumber appointed by Law, of the true measurement and contents of such Timber, Lumber, or Shingles respectively.

III.—And be it further enacted, that the said Duties shall be raised, levied, and exacted, on all such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, over and above and in addition to the Duty or Duties now raised, levied, or collected on the same articles, under and by virtue of an Act of the Imperial Parliament passed in the third and fourth years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled, “An Act to regulate the Trade of the British Possessions abroad,” and over and above and in addition to any Duty or Duties now raised, levied or collected, or which hereafter may be raised, levied or collected, on the same, under or by virtue of any other Act or Acts of the Imperial Parliament; and that nothing in this Act contained shall reduce or lessen, or be construed to reduce or lessen, the amount of any such Duty or Duties, now received or receivable under the said Acts of the Imperial Parliament or any of them.

Duties hereby imposed to be in addition to those previously existing.

IV.—And be it further enacted, that all sums of Money granted or imposed by this Act, either as Duties, Penalties, or Forfeitures, shall be deemed and are hereby declared to be Sterling Money of Great Britain; and that all such Duties shall be paid and received according to British Weights and Measures in use on the Sixth day of July, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Twenty-five; and that in all such cases where such Duties are imposed according to any specific quantity or any specific value, the same shall be deemed to apply in the same proportion to any greater or less quantity or value.

Duties to be in Sterling, and according to Imperial Weights and Measures of July 1825.

V.—And be it further enacted, that the produce of the Duties received by the means and powers of this Act shall be accounted for and paid quarterly by the Collector or Sub-Collector of Her Majesty's Customs, into the hands of the Treasurer or Receiver General of this Island, or other proper officer authorized to receive the same, to be applied to such uses as shall be directed by the Legislature of the Island of Newfoundland.

Duties to be paid over to Colonial Treasurer quarterly.

VI.—And be it further enacted, that all Ships and Vessels arriving at any Port, Harbour, Roadstead or Cove, in this Island or its Dependencies, having on board any Goods, Wares or Merchandize, and the Masters, Owners, Consignees and Importers of the same respectively, shall be under and subject and be liable to the same Rules, Regulations, Forms and Restrictions as are expressed and contained in an Act passed in the Imperial Parliament in the third and fourth years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled “An Act to regulate the Trade of the British Possessions abroad,” in respect to the report and entry of such Vessels and their Cargoes with the Collector of Her Majesty's Customs or the Sub-Collector as aforesaid, both inwards and outwards, the entry of Goods comprising any of the said articles to be laden or unladen, the payment of all Duties and Dues, the entry inwards of such Goods by Bill of Sight, the Regulations made and provided in case the importer of any Goods subject to Duty under this Act should refuse to enter the same and pay the Duties thereon, the validity of any entry made, the mode and manner of Ware-

Same forms of entry &c to be observed as directed by 3 & 4 Wm. 4, Cap. 59.
