Bayside Women's Institute to Assist the Red Cross

The first meeting of the Bayside Women's Institute was held on Wednesday afternoon at the home of the President, Mrs. E. E. Mallory. Messdames Lauer and Yeomans came out from Belleville, and told of the needs of the Red Cross, and suggested some lines of work that it would be possible for the Institute to undertake. This created much enthusiasm among the ladies, who resolved to make a canvass for members and to hold an open meeting in the near future to raise funds with which material may be purchased to make up supplies for the wounded. In the meantime work is being arranged for, so that knitting may be proceeded with at once. The next meeting is to be held on the third Wednesday in August at the home of the Secretary, Mrs. Fred Gardner. After the hostess had served dainty cakes and ice cream, the meeting was dismissed by singing "The Maple Leaf."

The Lakes are Calling You

Tourists from all parts of the country are this year seeking the Great Lakes for their recreation trips, and to those who have never before enjoyed the delights of these great waterways and the large and splendid steamers and unexcelled service will be a revelation. This is particularly true of Lake Erie upon whose waters plies the Great Ship "SEANDBEE" daily between Cleveland and Buffalo. This great ship is 500 feet long, 98 feet wide and has 510 state rooms and parlors of luxe accommodating 1500 passengers which equals the sleeping capacity of the largest hotels in the country. The splendid steamers "CITY OF BUFFALO" and "CITY OF ERIE" also ply on this route and with the Great Ship "SEANDBEE" maintain daily service between Cleveland and Buffalo, leaving either city at nine o'clock in the evening and reaching destination following morning at 7:30. In point of expense these lake trips are by far more economical than travel by rail, and once one has tasted of their delights, succeeding vacations are sure to include a lake journey.

Will of Daniel Simmons

We understand that the will of the late D. L. Simmons of Colborne, which was recently probated, disposes of an estate of about $150,000. By the will all his relations and friends are liberally provided for. Amongst the bequests he leaves to the Hospital for Sick Children, Toronto, the Brunswick hotel block in Colborne, on payment of eight thousand dollars to his estate the balance to endow to cot to be known as the D. L. Simmons cot and Eliza Ann Simmons cot. To the Methodist church in Colborne he leaves four thousand dollars, the interest on which is to be expended on books for the Sunday school, music and books for the choir and an annual subscription to the minister's salary.

The Largest Pickerel

Mr. John McBain, so far as we have been informed, bears off the palm for landing the largest pickerel that has been caught in Moira lake this year. In length it measured 22 inches and weighed 41.4 pounds. Mr. McBain is to be congratulated on landing a pickerel of such dimensions or for that matter a pickerel of any dimension as owing to the illegal methods used by some fish hogs who frequent Moira lake it is almost impossible to get a mess of pickerel this season.—Meadow Review

Foreigners in Row

Melion Rotar of Point Anne was arrested yesterday charged with having caused grievous harm to Dan Tomich. This morning before he was brought into court, Mr. W. Carnew on his behalf made an appeal on his behalf for bail. Crown Attorney Anderson stated that he had been told that Rotar was an alien Austrian and did not keep the peace. "We should let Col. Marsh investigate the matter." Mr. Carnew—"This man has been here for a number of years." Magistrate Masson—"Some men have lived here for a long time and still are strongly pro-German." Mr. Carnew conferred with Mr. H. Yaover, and said "He tells me the man is not an Austrian but a Serbian." Rotar was brought into court. The question of bail was dropped as it was then decided to try the assault case tomorrow.

Rotar, the accused has a swolled right eye and Tomich, the complainant also had his eye injured. The allegation is that the defendant threatened Tomich with a knife.

Western Crops Good

Mr. Geo. H. Wilson, of the Lindsay Post, and daughter, Miss Jean, are home from a five weeks' trip to Victoria, B.C. Mr. Wilson says that crops all along the C.P.R. seem to be in excellent condition and experienced westerners predict a bumper crop if weather conditions continue to improve so that crops will properly ripen. Western provinces have had much rain and wheat growers have been nervous. Wheat crop west of the mountains is already being harvested. Small fruit in British Columbia has been a very large crop and quality better than we get in Ontario.—Post

42 Recruits Are Drilling

In the past few days 42 recruits have come in to the 49th and 15th regiments at their recruiting tent on the armouries lawn. Twenty-eight of these are on the 49th list and fourteen on the 15th roll. These men will not leave the city until the 7th battalion begins mobilization.

Lieut. McCarger was engaged this morning in drilling recruits on the armouries lawn. He had 36 men going through the preliminary manoeuvres.

Sergeant James McGlagon, curator of Belleville armouries, has returned from a trip to Toronto. He spent some time around the recruiting tents and offices and gives great praise to the recruiting staffs there for the efficiency and persistency in bringing men to sign up. Every inducement he says, is made to the men who seem undecided and arguments are made which few can get away from. One recruiting officer will spot a man and question him and if he fails another approaches the civilian a few feet further on. Marked success is meeting their efforts and it is no wonder the recruiting lists are swelling.

Bruin Among the Berries

No little excitement was caused at Indian River, near Peterboro, early yesterday morning, when a big bruin found his way into Mr. Dave Kidd's berry patch and began "nibbling" on the choice fruit. He went at it with such a right good will and snuffed with such enjoyment that it awoke Mrs. Roberts, wife of Rev. Mr. Roberts, the Baptist parson, who in going to the window to spy the cause of the turmoil was indeed surprised to see the bear strolling up and down the row of berry bushes and eating away to his heart's content. Before Mrs. Roberts had an opportunity to notify anyone of the animal's presence, Mr. Dave Kidd's prize bull dog, smelling trouble, left his warm lair in the wood-shed and chased the midnight marauder back into the woods, a mile or so to the rear of the village.

Chinatown and Canoe Accident

Dreaming of far off China, and thinking they were rocking in a wretched fishing smack on the waves of the Yang-Tee Kiang, two Celestials of Belleville rolled from a canoe in the harbor yesterday afternoon off Victoria Park into the placid waters of Old Quinte. A torrid heat was beating down and to the accompaniment of "Chinatown, My Chinatown" played by the band (there was a splash and bubbling. Two heads of Chinamen appeared above the waters. "Chinatown" in Belleville was too strong for them. A motorboat went out from shore and effected the rescue of the Celestials from the submarine regions.

Gananoque Boy a Prisoner in Need of Food

"Awful to be Locked Up" Says Pte. Angus McDonald. Complaining of his inability to secure food, Pte. Angus McDonald, a Gananoque boy who is a prisoner of war at Nottingham, Hanover, Germany, writes home as follows: "I have been a prisoner of war since the 24th of April, but it seems more like a year. The Canadian boys sure went up against it hard. God knows they fought hard enough but were outnumbered and we had nothing to eat for three days. No one knows the horror of such a battle unless you see it. They killed a lot of the boys and I don't know how it was I didn't get a scratch: they say 'the good die young' so I guess that lets me out. How I wish I was along the old St. Lawrence. It is awful to be locked up, though we are all right we cannot expect to be used as friends, but I have no kick coming; the only thing I am out of boots and tobacco and if any of the boys want to send me anything I would be very glad. We haven't a cent to buy anything and I could do with any kind of eatables now; if I wasn't badly in need I wouldn't mention it. Most of the prisoners get parcels from England but I have no friends there and I tell you it is no joke to be a prisoner, but I feel fine at present. I cannot give details of the fight but hope to see all of the Gananoque people again some time—Hope it will be soon.

Police Notes

Charles Martin, the young man, who confessed on Saturday to having collected money on the undersandings that a portion would go to the Red Cross, whereas such was not his intention, thus committing fraud, appeared in court today and was remanded two weeks at his own request in order that he might get testimonials. His companion Lambert was this morning allowed to go under suspended sentence as it was felt he had been led away. In police court this morning, Stanley Hammett was again remanded for judgment this time for four weeks as he desired an opportunity to get in touch with some of his friends. He pleaded guilty last week to misappropriation of over $300, funds of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen.

Time to Call Halt in Providing Machine Guns

Ottawa, Ont., Aug. 2.—Subscriptions towards the purchase of machine guns for the Canadian troops, have already reached a total quite beyond the expectation of the Department of Militia and there appears to be no abatement. Subscriptions so far received and promised are sufficient to purchase 1,500 machine guns. They are coming from wealthy and semi-wealthy, individuals, from firms and institutions, from municipalities and corporations, from philanthropic societies and Church societies, fraternal societies and women's societies, from employees of firms and of the Government service. Allowing for the eight machine guns per battalion which the Government declares it will supply as the regulation complement—the private subscriptions to be over and above the Government supply—Canada's battalions at the present rate of contribution will be equipped with from 40 to 50 machine guns each. It is not assumed that more than two divisions of Canadian troops will be in the field at the same time. This makes 24 regiments, each of which will be equipped at the outset with eight guns. If the 1,500 guns are divided among the 24, allowing for a few being served for training purposes, it will be seen that the Canadian troops will be very heavily equipped with the weapon. Even allowing for wastage in guns, it will be evident that there is a limit to the number of machine guns which may economically be contributed, having regard to the other laudable funds which exist. The Government has not set any limit, but it is unofficially intimated that the public in its zeal for providing death-dealing weapons should not forget the other channels of patriotic giving. The Patriotic Fund will have heavy calls upon its funds, the Red Cross Fund is continually in need of assistance, comforts will always be acceptable by soldiers at the front, while much good can be accomplished by assistance towards the equipping of convalescent homes.
