Premier Asquith Has Promised a Day of Discussion in the Commons.

By Special Wire to the Courier. London, May 4—There now seems to be little doubt that Great Britain will follow the example of Holland and adopt the daylight saving system Premier Asquith has promised to give a day for discussion of the ques-tion in the House of Commons while Home Secretary Samuel has written a long letter for publication, strongly recommending the idea, holding that ir would be an important saving in fuel and illuminants. He pointed out We have moved to 367 Colborne that the government committee or with a full line of Fixtures.
