

IS THE KAISER THE ANTI CHRIST?

The Amazing Prophecy of a French Monk

Present War Foretold In A
Most Striking Manner

Is the Kaiser Wilhelm of Germany
the Anti-Christ?

The name of God is continually on his lips, but his appeal seems to be not to the God of Incarnation, but to the tribal War God of the Prussians, "our good German God, who has helped us so magnificently, our great ally."

"The Holy Spirit," the Kaiser is reported to have said, in his proclamation to his eastern army, "has descended on me. Because I am the Emperor of the Germans, I am the instrument of the Most High. Woe and death to those who resist my will; woe and death to those who do not believe in my mission; woe and death to those who are enemies of Germany. God demands their destruction."

It is an amazing fact that sages of centuries ago prophesied the coming of the Kaiser Anti-Christ.

One of these sages was Brother Johannes, believed to have been a French monk who lived and wrote in the sixteenth century, and whose writings have created a profound interest throughout Europe.

Allegorically, France is represented in this astounding prediction by a cock, England by a leopard, Russia by a white eagle, Germany by a black eagle and Austria by "the other eagle."

The authenticity of this amazing document can scarcely be doubted. The Latin original was found among the papers of the late Adrien Peladan, author of a work in three volumes on "Prophecies," and editor of a review named, "The Annals of the Supernatural," by his son, who had it translated into French and published in a recent issue of the Figaro, Paris.

M. Peladan (the son) a deep student of all matters appertaining to theology, found the manuscript in 1890, on the death of his father, among a mass of other papers dealing with the gift of prophetic vision. Although even at that time he was startled by the extraordinary vividness of the picture drawn by Brother Johannes, he never thought of it again until the entrance of England into the present struggle recalled to his mind the "leopard" and his claws." He rediscovered the prophecy, and the description of the battling nations led him to translate it and give to the world what readers must admit is one of the most startling

Full Text of Prophecy
Following is the full text of the prophecy:

1. Several times has one seemed to recognize him, because all the slayers of the lamb resemble each other, and all the wicked are the precursors of the Great Wicked One.

2. The veritable Anti-Christ will be one of the monarchs of his time, a son of Luther; he will invoke God and call himself His messenger.

3. The prince of lies will swear by the Bible; He will call himself the Arm of the most High, chastising corrupted people.

4. He will only have one arm, but his innumerable armies, who will take as their motto "God is with us," will seem like infernal legions.

5. For a long while he will act by ruse and treason; his spies will spread all over the earth, and he will be the master of the secrets of those in power.

6. He will have theologians in his pay to certify and prove his celestial mission.

7. The war will furnish him with the reason for lifting the mask. It will not be the one which he will make against the French monarch, but another which will be easily recognized by the fact that in two weeks' time it will have become universal.

8. It will call to arms all Christians, all Mahometans, and even other very distant peoples. Armies will be formed in the four parts of the world.

Christian Words—Fiendish Act

For men's minds will be opened by angels, and in the third week they will understand that this is the Anti-Christ, and that they will all become slaves if they do not trample down this conquering one.

10. The Anti-Christ will be recognized by several marks; he will chiefly massacre priests, monks, women, children, and old people. He will show no mercy; he will pass along holding a torch like the barbarians, but inking the name of Christ.

11. His false words will resemble those of Christians, but his acts will be those of Nero and the Roman persecutors; there will be an eagle in his coat of arms, and there will also be one in that of his confederates, the other wicked monarch.

12. But this one is a Christian, and he will die cursed by the Pope Benedictus, who will be elected at the beginning of the reign of the Anti-Christ.

13. Priests and monks will no longer be seen confessing and absolving the combatants because for the first time priests and monks will fight with the other citizens, and also because Pope Benedictus having cursed the Anti-Christ, it will be proclaimed that all those who wage war against him will be in a state of grace, and should they die, will, like martyrs, go straight to heaven.

14. The Pope's "Bull" proclaiming these things will make a great sensation, and will cause the death of the monarch, the Anti-Christ's ally.

15. In order to conquer the Anti-Christ, more men must be killed than Rome has ever held. It will require an effort from all lands, for the cock, the leopard, and the white eagle would not suffice to overcome the black eagle if they were helped by the prayers and devotion of all the human race.

Humanity in Grave Peril
Never before has humanity been in such peril, for the triumph of the Anti-Christ would be that of the Demon, in whom he is incarnated.

17. For it has been said that twenty centuries after the incarnation of the World the Beast in his turn would be incarnated, and would threaten the earth with as many evils as the Divine Incarnation had brought it grace.

18. Near the year two thousand the Anti-Christ will appear; his army will surpass in numbers anything heretofore imagined; there will be Christians amongst his hordes, and amongst the defenders of the Lamb there will be Mahometans and savage tribes.

19. For the first time the Lamb will be entirely red, in the whole of the Christian world there will not be a space that will be red, and the heavens, the earth, the water, and even the air, will be red, for blood will flow in the sphere of the four elements at the same time.

20. The black eagle will throw itself upon the cock, which will lose many of its feathers, but will strike heroically with its spur. It would be soon annihilated were it not for the help of the leopard and its claws.

21. The black eagle, which will come from the land of Luther, will surprise the cock by another side and will invade one-half of the land of the cock.

22. The white eagle, which will come from the north, will surprise the black eagle, and the other eagle, and will completely invade the land of the Anti-Christ from one end to the other.

Rivers Crossed Over Corpses

The black eagle will be forced to leave the cock to fight the white eagle, and the cock will pursue the black eagle into the land of the Anti-Christ to help the white eagle.

24. The battles waged until then will be small in comparison to those that will take place in the Land of Luther, because the seven angels will at the same time pour fire from their burners on the impious land (image taken from Apocalypse), which means that the Lamb will order the extermination of Anti-Christ's race.

25. When the beast sees he is lost he will become furious; during months the beak of the white eagle will devour the carcasses of the cock and the spurs of the cock must harass him.

26. Rivers will be crossed over masses of dead bodies, which in some places will change the course of the waters. Only great noblemen, superior officers, and princes will receive burial, for to the carnage caused by firearms will be added those who furnished by famine and plague.

27. The Anti-Christ will several times ask for peace, but the seven angels who precede the three animals, defenders of the Lamb, have declared that victory shall only be accorded on the condition that the Anti-Christ be crushed, like straw on the threshing floor.

28. Executors of the Lamb's justice, these three animals cannot stop fighting as long as any soldiers remain to the Anti-Christ.

29. The reason the sentence of the Lamb is so implacable is that the Anti-Christ has pretended to be a Christian; and to be acting in his name, so that if he did not perish, the fruit of the Redemption would be lost; and the gates of Hell would prevail against the Saviour.

Predicts Era of Peace

It will be seen that it is not a human combat which will be waged where the Anti-Christ forges his arms. The three animals, defenders of the Lamb, will exterminate the Anti-Christ's last army; but the battle will become an altar of sacrifice, larger than the greatest of altars, and the corpses will have changed its shape by raising in it chains of mounds.

31. The Anti-Christ will lose his crown, and will die demented and
