THANKSGIVING CAKE.

With Maple Sugar Frosting—Some Other Delicious Confections.

Mix together and beat with the hand until perfectly smooth two cups of bread dough (ready for shaping into loaves), half a cup of butter, two cups of sugar, two eggs, one-fourth of a teaspoonful of cloves, half a teaspoonful each of cinnamon, nutmeg and nutmeg, half a teaspoonful of soda, one cup of seeded raisins and one-fourth of a cup of sliced citron. Turn into a tin cake pan and when light it should not quite double in bulk; bake in an oven at a temperature a little lower than for bread. When cold, pour a maple sugar frosting over the cake and decorate with pecan or hickory nuts and ornamental frosting. This cake is particularly good made of entire wheat bread dough.

Maple Sugar Frosting.—Stir a cupful of thin cream and two cupfuls (one pound) of grated or shaved maple sugar over the fire until dissolved.

then cook until the soft ball stage is reached without stirring. Remove from the fire, set into cold water and beat until of consistency to spread.

Boiled Maple Sugar Frosting.—Boil two cupfuls of maple sugar prepared as above with half a cupful of boiling water until a soft ball can be formed in cold water, then pour in a fine stream on to the stiff beaten whites of two eggs, beating constantly; return to the fire and beat carefully, to avoid burning, two or three minutes, then remove and beat occasionally until cold and of consistency to spread.

Mocha Cake.—Bake a sponge cake mixture in two round layer cake pans. Half a pound each of eggs and sugar and the usual proportion of other ingredients will give two layers and a dozen lady fingers. Prepare a mocha cream and spread smooth between the layers and upon the outside of the cake. Score the cake in pieces for serving. Pipe with the remainder of the cream.

For the mocha cream wash a cup of butter, then beat to a cream and add slowly enough thick sirup, flavored with coffee, to sweeten the mixture to taste. To make the sirup cook together a cup of sugar and half a cup of clear, strong coffee until a thick sirup is formed; cool before using. A cup and a half of butter will be needed for a large cake with heavy decoration.

Pound Cake.—Beat one and a half pounds of butter to a cream, add gradually one and a half pounds of sugar, then the beaten yolks of ten eggs; add alternately one and a half pounds of flour sifted with two level teaspoonfuls of baking powder and a scant cup of milk and, lastly, the whites of ten eggs beaten dry. When putting the mixture into the pan, add here and there a slice of citron.

A Popular Decorative Idea.

It has been quite a popular idea of late, says Good Housekeeping, in artistic efforts to use handsome stretches of tapestry or brocade for background pieces against the wall behind seats or sofa. They make a fine show of from beauty and harmony of color or richness of texture they deserve a worthy and conspicuous place. But it must be remembered that such backgrounds are to be the setting for living pictures, and it is only fair that they should not diminish or detract from the pose of the actors. It would be the poorest expression of art in the home if the personality of the occupants should not be always at its best in its own surroundings.

Why He Was Put to Bed.

Tommy—Pa, was time invented in Ireland?
 His Father—No, my son. But why?
 Tommy—Then why did they name it O'Clock?

The Savage Bachelor.

"Women," said the Sweet Young Thing, "do quarrel a little easier than men, but then they make it up quicker."
 "So," said the Savage Bachelor, "they can have the pleasure of an other quarrel."

Knocked Out in One Round.

Jack—You never told me Miss Fairgirl was an athlete.
 Nolly—Well, is she?
 Jack—Yes, she has thrown me over.
