The Municipal Elections

HERE AND ELSEWHERE

The municipal elections on New Year's day developed an unusual feature in the village, additional candidates being entered by reason of the prohibition of the law.

The various candidates were all in the field to win, and every available vote was polled.

The prohibition question secured the active interest of the majority of the voters, whom voted early, being conveyed to the polls in comfortable cars.

The positions of deputies and clerks at the polling booths were no secret, as they were kept busy all day, having four halts to handle.

The elections were for councilors and school trustees, the result having been elected at the nomination meeting by acclamation.

The result was no doubt a surprise to some, but the voters exercised their right to vote for the men that suited them best.

The following is the result in full:—

No. 1 No. 2 Total

A. W. Blanchard . . . 79 47 126

Samuel Boddy . . . 86 41 127

School Trustees.—The bounds of school section No. 4 include the whole of the village of Athens and part of Rear Yonge. Two of the candidates, Messrs. John Crawford and Johnson A. Green, own property in the township, although Mr. Green resides in the village. The small number of voters from the township shows either the carelessness of the outside voters or else perfect satisfaction with the manner in which the school has been conducted in the past. THE WILSON TARIFF BILL.

Minor Changes Will be Conceded to Avoid Embarrassing Outbreaks.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—The Democratic caucus of the tariff bill will probably be held on Friday or Saturday evening.

Mr. Wilson gave notice just before the House adjourned for the recess, that he would, on Friday evening, introduce a bill to amend the tariff act of 1890.

It is expected that minor changes in the bill will be conceded to avoid any embarrassing outbreak in the House. It is believed that the Democratic side will go into the House practically united on this portion of the bill. The income tax is likely to be the only proposition that will encounter any decided opposition.

The Democratic caucus, it is thought, will bring about a satisfactory understanding with many of the dissatisfied Democrats who have been talking so loudly about opposing the bill, with the result that a large number of amendments will be agreed to by the committee. It is not expected that there will be any organized opposition on the floor.

THE MAN SCOTT.

The Body of a Supposed Suicide Thought to be His.

LONDON, Jan. 2.—The body of a man who had committed suicide has been found in a lodging house in Old Ford road, East London. The man had shot himself with a revolver in the temple. When the police saw the body they were at once struck by the resemblance to the description of the mysterious "Scott," for whom they have been looking for months in connection with the alleged murder of Lieut. Hambrugh.

The police were told that the man was named "Scott," and that he had been in the village of Athens, Ontario, a few days ago and "Scott" did not appear for trial, he was declared an outlaw.

Monsieur was tried and escaped by the jury returning a verdict of "not proven," but the police continued their search for "Scott." The man found dead is supposed to have shot himself. The police have sent for some of "Scott's" relatives in order to have them identify the body, as they think it is undoubtedly his.

THE ALGUE-MORIS AFFAIR.

ROME, Jan. 2.—The authorities in Turin had the French consulate guarded last night in consequence of an organized demonstration against the verdict in the Algue-Moris affair. People were prevented by the police from gathering in front of the consulate.

A number of newspapers printed the Italian Government's refusal to indemnify and that a national demonstration was to be held in the city of Turin.
